Re: Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs, United States Department of Labor v. Google Inc.
Case No.: 2017-OFC-00004

Google's Response to OFCCP's Letter Regarding the Hearing Date in this Matter

Dear Judge Berlin:

On behalf of Google, we are writing in response to OFCCP's letter today regarding Regional Director Wipper's availability and the hearing dates in this matter. Google and its counsel are available on April 7, 2017, and do not oppose OFCCP's request that the Court set the first day of the hearing for that day. However, during the teleconference with the Court on Friday March 3, 2017, Your Honor ruled that Google will be permitted a second day of hearing, as required, to allow Google to present its cases and defenses. In order to ensure that all parties and counsel can be present, Google respectfully requests, at its earliest convenience, that the Court set a date for the second day of the continued hearing.

Very truly yours,

JACKSON LEWIS P.C.
