ADMINISTRATOR, WAGE AND HOUR DIVISION Plaintiff	*	Case No.: _____
	*	WHD Reference #: 1689932
v.	*
BUTLER AMUSEMENTS, INC. Respondent	*

* * * * * * * * * * * * * *

REQUEST FOR HEARING

Respondent hereby requests a hearing[1] on a determination dated February 6, 2018,[2] and issued by the Wage and Hour Division under Reference #: 1736916, and says:

This is a request for a hearing on a determination issued following an investigation of the Respondent, a participant in the H-2B program.

Pursuant to 29 C.F.R. § 503.43 (b) (3 & 4), Respondent now identifies issues and reasons why the determination is in error. In further response, Respondent says:

General statement of reasons why the determination is in error: The WHD has no basis to enforce the now-vacated 2008 Rule or any other relevant standard. The provisions of the 2015 IFR cannot be applied retroactively to this case. WHD lacks any basis to show a

[1] By filing this request, Respondent does not waive its right to seek immediate or other relief, including from the retroactive application of the 2015 IFR or the application of the now-vacated 2008 Rule.

[2] The determination letter "rescinded and replaced" a prior determination letter dated January 29, 2018. As such, any claim under the prior determination letter has been waived. To the extent that the prior determination letter has any operative effect, Respondent appeals it as well.

willful misrepresentation or a substantial failure. This employer is exempt from the Fair Labor Standards Act. The Wage and Hour Division has failed to proceed within the statute of limitations, in whole or in part. This employer reasonably relied upon professional counsel to prepare its #9142 and I-129. This employer used a prepayment plan and properly determined all deductions and any overtime obligations. Respondent did not act willfully by hiring professionals to advise it. Department of Labor has made it unnecessarily difficult to, and has failed to issue proper notice so that Respondent may, know with precision what it regards as the proper procedure. Wage and Hour Division has improperly calculated any alleged back wages, hours worked, or civil monetary penalties. Wage and Hour Division has improperly determined "compensable work time." Wage and Hour Division has improperly relied upon U.S. workers, but it has no jurisdiction over U.S. workers. Department of Labor has not promulgated meaningful regulations for how an FLSA-exempt employer is to proceed. Wage and Hour Division has failed to credit Respondent for facilities, such as bunkhouses, food, local convenience travel, in and out of country travel, a prepayment plan, prepaid spot-to-spot variations, bonuses, and reimbursement of employee expenses. Wage and Hour Division failed to credit Respondent according to governing special procedures. Wage and Hour Division lacks the authority to enforce the terms of the #9142 or I-129. Respondent did not substantially fail to meet a condition in its #9142 or I-129 or willfully misrepresent a material fact in its #9142 or I-129.

Issue No. 1: The Wage and Hour Division's determination fails to state any – much less an adequate - factual and legal basis, thereby depriving Respondent of due process notice of the allegations and impeding Respondent's ability to identify and articulate issues and supporting rationale.

Reasons why the determination is in error: 29 C.F.R. § 503.42(a)(5); Administrative Procedures Act.

Issue No. 2: To the extent that the WHD determination states any factual or legal basis, it is incorrect and legally insufficient.

Reasons why the determination is in error: General statement of reasons.

Issue No. 3: The penalties and back wages proposed in the WHD determination are excessive and otherwise inappropriate.

Reasons why the determination is in error: 29 C.F.R. § 503.19 & § 503.23; General statement of reasons.

Issue No. 4: Respondent is entitled to judgment as a matter of law.

Reasons why the determination is in error: General statement of reasons.

Issue No. 5.: Respondent did not engage in any willful or substantial failure to comply with H-2B program requirements.

Reasons why the determination is in error: General statement of reasons.

Issue No. 6: Respondent accurately described its job offer.

Reasons why the determination is in error: General statement of reasons.

Issue No. 7: Respondent did not offer job terms and working conditions that were less favorable than those offered to temporary foreign workers.

Reasons why the determination is in error: General statement of reasons.

Issue No. 8: Respondent properly paid wages as required by the H-2B program.

Reasons why the determination is in error: General statement of reasons.

Issue No. 9: Respondent was entitled to credit for providing bunkhouses, local convenience travel, in and out of country travel, and a prepayment plan.

Reasons why the determination is in error: General statement of reasons.

Issue No. 10: Respondent did not substantially fail to restrict H-2B workers to an approved itinerary.

Reasons why the determination is in error: General statement of reasons.

Issue No. 11: The Department of Labor lacks jurisdiction, rule-making authority or enforceable rules for the H-2B program.

Reasons why the determination is in error: G.H. Daniels III & Assocs., Inc. v. Perez, No. 13-1479, 2015 U.S. App. Lexis 15689, at *12 (10th Cir. Sept. 3, 2015); Bayou Lawn & Landscape Servs. v. Secretary of Labor, 713 F.3d 1080, 1085 (11th Cir. 2013); Bayou Lawn & Landscape Servs. v. Solis, No. 3:12cv183, 2012 U.S. Dist. Lexis 69297, at *13 & n. 10 (N.D. Fla. Issue No. 12: The employer is exempt from the Fair Labor Standards Act.

Reasons why the determination is in error: Fair Labor Standards Act.

Issue No. 13: The employer is not liable because it relied in good faith on a regulation, order, ruling, or interpretation of the Wage and Hour Division, or an administrative practice enforcement policy of the Wage and Hour Division.

Reasons why the determination is in error: 29 U.S.C. § 259.

Issue No. 14: The employer is not liable because of its good faith and reasonable grounds to believe there was no violation.

Reasons why the determination is in error: 29 U.S.C. § 260.

Issue No. 15: Neither DHS nor DOL have provided notice as to the method for and legal requirements for completing the I-129, and have misapplied the job classification to I-129's job description and wage rate.

Reasons why the determination is in error: DHS instructions for the I-129.

Issue No. 16: WHD failed to apply the "incidental activities" rule.

Reasons why the determination is in error: 73 Fed. Reg. 77110, 77117 (Dec. 18, 2008).

For these reasons, we request a hearing of the Wage and Hour Division's determination. Further communications should be directed to counsel at the address listed below.

January 16, 2019

FROM: Butler Amusements, Inc., and Michael Brajevich, Respondents

TO: Administrator, Wage & Hour Division, Plaintiff

Butler Amusements, Inc., and Michael Brajevich, Respondents, answer the Plaintiff's interrogatories and say:

A. The information supplied in these answers is not based solely upon the knowledge of the executing party, but includes the knowledge of the party's agents, representatives, and attorneys, unless privileged.

B. The word usage and sentence structure is that of the attorneys who in fact prepared these answers and language does not purport to be the exact language of the executing party.

C. These interrogatories have been interpreted and answered in accordance with the Rules of Procedure and plain English usage. To the extent the definitions and instructions included with the interrogatories are inconsistent therewith, this party disavows any intention to abide by them.

D. Defendant objects to the interrogatories to the extent that they purport to require answers on behalf of any entity other than this Defendant.

INTERROGATORY NO. 1: Unless you unconditionally admitted Request for Admission No. 1, provide the basis or bases upon which you rely for each part of your denial of Request for Admission No. 1.

ANSWER NO. 1: In addition to the basis obvious from the answer itself, the basis for the conditional answer is that the request was overbroad and included false statements or implications. The request also exceeded the permissible bounds for a request for admission of facts.

INTERROGATORY NO. 2: Unless you unconditionally admitted Request for Admission No. 2, provide the basis or bases upon which you rely for each part of your denial of Request for Admission No. 2.

ANSWER NO. 2: In addition to the basis obvious from the answer itself, the basis for the conditional answer is that the request was overbroad and included false statements or implications. The request also exceeded the permissible bounds for a request for admission of facts.

INTERROGATORY NO. 3: Unless you unconditionally admitted Request for Admission No. 3, provide the basis or bases upon which you rely for each part of your denial of Request for Admission No. 3.

ANSWER NO. 3: In addition to the basis obvious from the answer itself, the basis for the conditional answer is that the request was overbroad and included false statements or implications. The request also exceeded the permissible bounds for a request for admission of facts.

INTERROGATORY NO. 4: Unless you unconditionally admitted Request for Admission No. 7, provide the basis or bases upon which you rely for each part of your denial of Request for Admission No. 7.

ANSWER NO. 4: In addition to the basis obvious from the answer itself, the basis for the conditional answer is that the request was overbroad and included false statements or implications. The request also exceeded the permissible bounds for a request for admission of facts.

INTERROGATORY NO. 5: If you are seeking a credit or other offset for furnishing housing to any of your H-2B Workers, please state the address of each housing furnished, the name of each of your H-2B Workers who resided in such housing, the time period of each of your H-2B Workers' residence, and the cost of the housing to you.

ANSWER NO. 5: Objection. This request is not limited in time or to the implicated workers, and is therefore largely irrelevant. Without waiving this objection, housing was made available at locations reflected on Butler's itinerary and previously produced. Each of the 9 implicated workers lived in the housing during the 2013 season. Respondents are still identifying and preparing cost documentation, and this answer will be supplemented.

INTERROGATORY NO. 6: Explain each basis upon which you rely for establishing your offered wage rate during the Period of Intended Employment.

ANSWER NO. 6: Objection. This interrogatory calls for a legal conclusions not appropriate for interrogatories. Without waiving this objection, "offered wage" is a term of art, and by definition, the basis for the offered wage rate is the ETA Form 9142.

INTERROGATORY NO. 7: Please identify each of your H-2B Workers. (For the purposes of this Interrogatory, the term "identify" shall include but not be limited to each H-2B Worker's: name, last known contact information [address, phone, e-mail address]; job title; job duties; supervisor; rate of pay; method of pay, and period of employment with you for the Period of Intended Employment.)

ANSWER NO. 7: Objection. This request is not limited in time or to the implicated workers, and is therefore largely irrelevant. Without waiving this objection, Butler's H-2B workers for the 2013 season were identified in the records already produced for inspection. Specifically, contact information is contained in the Excel spreadsheet for the 2013 H-2B workers.

INTERROGATORY NO. 8: Please identify each practice referenced in your statement that you follow "prevailing practices for the Traveling Amusement Industry in regards to housing, transportation and weekly salary for workers" on page 5, § G of your ETA Form 9142B.

ANSWER NO. 8: This statement indicates that Butler availed itself, as permitted under the 2008 rules, to follow industry practice to provide housing, in and out of country travel, and local convenience travel for a credit, and to use a prepayment plan for compensating wages. Respondents were also entitled to credits for providing visa and inspection fees, and bonuses or merit pay.

INTERROGATORY NO. 9: If you dispute any of the Secretary's computations of backwages to your H-2B Workers (attached as EXHIBIT A), please identify and explain each such dispute.

ANSWER NO. 9: Objection. The Administrator has not explained how those calculations were made, so it is not possible to answer this interrogatory. Further, by its very nature, once a dispute is acknowledged, there is nothing remaining to "identify and explain."

Without waiving this objection, Respondents believe that the Administrator made no allowance for proper credits (including for the duration of the season), nor the issues identified in Respondents' motion for summary judgment, including:

- The unenforceability of the 2008 regulations.
- The binding nature of ETA's prevailing wages.
- The absence of enforceable regulatory requirements.
- It is not necessary to identify every single job task when applying for a prevailing wage.
- The H-2B workers were entitled to work minor or incidental duties outside of their designated job code up to 20% of their time.
- The H-2B workers were entitled to work up to 80% of their time supervising others in the same job code.

INTERROGATORY NO. 10: If you dispute the amount of the civil money penalties assessed in this matter, please identify each such dispute.

ANSWER NO. 10: Objection. The Administrator has not explained how those calculations were made, so it is not possible to answer this interrogatory. Further, by its very nature, once a dispute is acknowledged, there is nothing remaining to "identify." Without waiving this objection, Respondents simply state that they identify the dispute by acknowledging that they dispute the amount.

INTERROGATORY NO. 11: Please state each legal offset or other credit you are seeking or expect to seek in this matter to reduce your financial liability. (If you are seeking a housing credit, you need not repeat any information you included in your Answer to Interrogatory No. 5.)

ANSWER NO. 11: This information was already provided in other answers.

INTERROGATORY NO. 12: Please explain your corporate structure with such information to include but not limited to: each principal with their name, title, job duties,

Butler: 2018-TNE-19
Administrator's Exhibit
Ex. N-5, Page 322

and corporate address; the address of each entity; whether any principal has an interest in any other entity; the dates each entity has been in legal existence, whether any entity has a website, and if so, the website address.

ANSWER NO. 12: Objection. This request is not limited in time, and is therefore largely irrelevant. Without waiving this objection, Butler's chief executive officer is Michael Brajevich. The Board of Directors consists of Michael Brajevich, Lance Moyer, and Tom Shobaken. Corporate shares are owned by Tammy Quint, Kelly Butler, Kris Brajevich, Jill Moyer, and Sean Butler.

INTERROGATORY NO. 13: If any information you indicated in your TEC has changed since filing, please identify and explain each such change. (For purposes of this Interrogatory, the term "identify and explain" shall include but not be limited to: an identification of the change, the location (form name, part or subsection, and page number) of each piece of changed information; the reason why the information changed (if any); and the individual or individuals responsible for each such piece of changed information.)

ANSWER NO. 13: Objection. This request is not limited in time, and is therefore largely irrelevant. Without waiving this objection, Respondents are not aware of any information in their ETA Form 9142 for the 2013 season that was not accurate at the time the form was submitted.

INTERROGATORY NO. 14: Please explain your method of paying each of your H-2B Workers. (For purposes of this interrogatory only, the term "explain your method of paying" shall include but not be limited to: how you determine the amount of pay, the name and title of each person who dispenses pay; the method of payment (such as whether cash, check, electronic funds transfer, or any other method), whether payment is made to all H-2B Workers at the same time; the name and title of the individual who determines who will be paid first; if pay is contained in an envelope, the name and title of each of your employees who handled the envelope before it is given to each H-2B Worker, and; whether all H-2B Workers are paid on the same day.)

ANSWER NO. 14: Objection. This request is not limited in time or to the implicated workers, and is therefore largely irrelevant. Without waiving this objection, in 2013, Butler's H-2B employees in 2013 were paid in cash on Sunday. They countersigned their pay statement, and the pay statements were sent to the Beaverton office.

INTERROGATORY NO. 15: Please identify each person involved in paying your H-2B Workers.

ANSWER NO. 15: Objection. This request is not limited in time or to the implicated workers, and is therefore largely irrelevant. Without waiving this objection, in 2013, Butler is the employer and was responsible for paying.

INTERROGATORY NO. 20 [sic]: Are you able to meet your financial obligations?

ANSWER NO. 20 [sic]: Objection. This request is not limited in time or to the implicated workers, and is therefore largely irrelevant. It also appears to go to collectibility, for which discovery is inappropriate at least until an adverse judgment is obtained. Without waiving this objection, in 2013, Butler satisfied DHS's definition of financial viability.

I, Michael Brajevich, am chief executive officer of BUTLER AMUSEMENTS, INC., and am duly authorized by the corporation to execute these answers to interrogatories under oath on its behalf. The information set forth in these answers was collected by others and such information is not necessarily within my personal knowledge. FROM: Butler Amusements, Inc., and Michael Brajevich, Respondents

Butler Amusements, Inc., and Michael Brajevich, Respondents, respond to Plaintiff's request for production of documents as follows:

GENERAL OBJECTIONS

A. These parties object to producing any documents requested that are privileged, including those protected by the attorney-client privilege and/or the work-product doctrine.

B. These parties object to those instructions and definitions set forth in the Request for Production of Documents that exceed the scope of the rules of procedure.

C. These parties object to the production schedule in the document requests. These parties will produce documents responsive to the Request for Production of Documents as they are kept in the usual course of business at the offices of The Pierce Law Firm, LLC, 133 Defense Highway, Suite 201, Annapolis, Maryland 21401-7015, on a date and at a time agreeable to counsel.

D. The statement that "documents will be produced" is not a representation that responsive documents exist, have ever existed, or can be found, only that such responsive documents as may be located will be provided.

REQUESTS AND RESPONSES

REQUEST NO. 1: If you did not unconditionally admit Request for Admission No. 4, please produce each document upon which you rely for each part of your denial of Request for Admission No. 4.

Response No. 1: In addition to the basis obvious from the answer itself, the basis for the conditional answer is that the request was overbroad and included false statements or implications. The request also exceeded the permissible bounds for a request for admission of facts.

Butler: 2018-TNE-19
Administrator's Exhibit
Ex. O-2, Page 328

REQUEST NO. 2: If you did not unconditionally admit Request for Admission No. 5, please produce each document upon which you rely for each part of your denial of Request for Admission No. 5.

Response No. 2: In addition to the basis obvious from the answer itself, the basis for the conditional answer is that the request was overbroad and included false statements or implications. The request also exceeded the permissible bounds for a request for admission of facts.

REQUEST NO. 3: If you did not unconditionally admit Request for Admission No. 6, please produce each document upon which you rely for each part of your denial of Request for Admission No. 6.

Response No. 3: Objection. It is unduly burdensome to produce "each" document to prove that Butler hired U.S. workers at some undisclosed point in time in the past. Without waiving this objection, this is readily apparent from the payroll and timekeeping records already produced.

REQUEST NO. 4: If you did not unconditionally admit Request for Admission No. 8, please produce each document upon which you rely for each part of your denial of Request for Admission No. 8.

Response No. 4: Objection. It is not possible to answer this request further as it is currently phrased.

REQUEST NO. 5: If you did not unconditionally admit Request for Admission No. 9, please produce each document upon which you rely for each part of your denial of Request for Admission No. 9.

Response No. 5: Respondents have already produced their payroll. Discovery continues and this response will be supplemented as needed.

REQUEST NO. 6: If you did not unconditionally admit Request for Admission No. 10, please produce each document upon which you rely for each part of your denial of Request for Admission No. 10.

Response No. 6: Respondents have already produced voluminous timekeeping records.

Butler: 2018-TNE-19
Administrator's Exhibit
Ex. O-3, Page 329

REQUEST NO. 7: Produce each document which relates to your Answer to Interrogatory No. 2.

Response No. 7: Objection. This request is so overbroad as to be impossible to answer. Without waiving this objection, Respondents believe that any documents identified in the interrogatory answers have already been produced.

REQUEST NO. 8: Produce each document which supports, contradicts, and/or relates to your Answer to Interrogatory No. 5. (For purposes of this Interrogatory, the records requested by this Interrogatory shall include but not be limited to documentation that: substantiates the cost of the housing furnished; substantiates the value of the housing furnished, and; demonstrates each of your H-2B Workers' voluntary and uncoerced acceptance of the housing furnished.)

Response No. 8: Discovery continues and this response will be supplemented as needed.

REQUEST NO. 9: Produce each document which supports or contradicts your Answer to Interrogatory No. 11.

Response No. 9: Objection. Those credits or offsets that Respondents claim have already been identified, and Respondents are not aware of further documents (other than the pleadings in this case) to substantiate the fact of what they are claiming in this case.

REQUEST NO. 10: Produce each document which supports or contradicts your Answer to Interrogatory No. 14.

Response No. 10: Discovery continues and this response will be supplemented as needed.

REQUEST NO. 11: Produce each statement (whether written, electronic, audio, or in some other format) upon which you will rely which was made by and/or taken by you from any person with knowledge of the relevant facts relating to the prosecution and/or defense of this matter.

Response No. 11: Objection. Statements made by individuals other than the parties are not discoverable. Suggs v. Whitaker, 152 F.R.D. 501, 505 (M.D.N.C. 1993) (no discovery of witness statements); Fernandes v. United Fruit Co., 50 F.R.D. 82, 83-84 (D.Md. 1970) (no discovery of those persons from whom a statement was taken); Board of Educ. v. Heating & Ventilating, Inc., 104 F.R.D. 23, 32 (N.D. Ill. 1984) (interrogator cannot ask who was interviewed and whether a statement was prepared); Uinta Oil Refining Co. v. Continental Oil Co., 226 F.Supp. 495, 500, 505-06 (D.Utah 1964) (no discovery of those persons from whom a statement was requested or taken); Buining v. The Transporter, 171 F. Supp. 127, 133 (D.Md. 1959) (court disallowed interrogatory seeking identity of any person who had given a written statement to the opponent); O'Brien v. Equitable life Assur. Soc'y, 13 F.R.D. 475, 477 (W.D. Mo. 1953) (same). Notwithstanding this objection, defendant is not aware of any such documents generated in the ordinary course of business. Respondents reserve the right to produce such statements as part of its exhibit list.

REQUEST NO. 12: Produce each document you have filed or otherwise submitted to any governmental organization (foreign or domestic) regarding your intent to employ H-2B workers for the 2019 season.

Response No. 12: Objection. This request does not seek information likely to lead to admissible evidence. Without waiving this objection, Respondents will produce their ETA Form 9142 and I-129 for the 2019 season.

REQUEST NO. 2: You employed H-2B Workers in positions other than as Amusement and Recreation Attendants.

The request is otherwise denied.

REQUEST NO. 4: The housing you provided to your H-2B Workers had no permanent address.

Response No. 4: Objection. This request is not limited in time, and is therefore largely irrelevant. Without waiving this objection,Respondents admit that the housing that they provided during the 2013 season was used at various locations. The request is otherwise denied.

FROM: Butler Amusements, Inc., and Michael Brajevich, Respondents

TO: Administrator, Wage & Hour Division, Plaintiff

Butler Amusements, Inc., and Michael Brajevich, Respondents, respond to Plaintiff's request for production of documents as follows:

GENERAL OBJECTIONS

A. These parties object to producing any documents requested that are privileged, including those protected by the attorney-client privilege and/or the work-product doctrine.

B. These parties object to those instructions and definitions set forth in the Request for Production of Documents that exceed the scope of the rules of procedure.

C. These parties object to the production schedule in the document requests. These parties will produce documents responsive to the Request for Production of Documents as they are kept in the usual course of business at the offices of The Pierce Law Firm, LLC, 133 Defense Highway, Suite 201, Annapolis, Maryland 21401-7015, on a date and at a time agreeable to counsel.

D. The statement that "documents will be produced" is not a representation that responsive documents exist, have ever existed, or can be found, only that such responsive documents as may be located will be provided.

REQUESTS AND RESPONSES

REQUEST NO. 1: If you did not unconditionally admit Request for Admission No. 4, please produce each document upon which you rely for each part of your denial of Request for Admission No. 4.

Response No. 1: In addition to the basis obvious from the answer itself, the basis for the conditional answer is that the request was overbroad and included false statements or implications. The request also exceeded the permissible bounds for a request for admission of facts.

Supplemental Response No. 1: Request for admission #4 asked Respondent to admit that its mobile housing had no permanent address. As seen in Respondent's document production, the bunkhouses are registered to specific addresses.

REQUEST NO. 2: If you did not unconditionally admit Request for Admission No. 5, please produce each document upon which you rely for each part of your denial of Request for Admission No. 5.

Response No. 2: In addition to the basis obvious from the answer itself, the basis for the conditional answer is that the request was overbroad and included false statements or implications. The request also exceeded the permissible bounds for a request for admission of facts.

Supplemental Response No. 2: Request for admission #5 asked Respondent to admit that it employed one or more H-2B workers from the 2013 season during prior seasons. The request is denied as to Mr. Brajevich. See the #9142 and I-129, both of which identify the employer.

REQUEST NO. 3: If you did not unconditionally admit Request for Admission No. 6, please produce each document upon which you rely for each part of your denial of Request for Admission No. 6.

Response No. 3: Objection. It is unduly burdensome to produce "each" document to prove that Butler hired U.S. workers at some undisclosed point in time in the past. Without waiving this objection, this is readily apparent from the payroll and timekeeping records already produced.

Supplemental Response No. 3: Request for admission #6 asked Respondent to admit that it hired no U.S. workers during the 2013 season. Documentation showing that Respondent hired U.S. workers in 2013 has been produced in the payroll documents, such as Butler 000001-001074.

REQUEST NO. 4: If you did not unconditionally admit Request for Admission No. 8, please produce each document upon which you rely for each part of your denial of Request for Admission No. 8.

Response No. 4: Objection. It is not possible to answer this request further as it is currently phrased.

REQUEST NO. 5: If you did not unconditionally admit Request for Admission No. 9, please produce each document upon which you rely for each part of your denial of Request for Admission No. 9.

Response No. 5: Respondents have already produced their payroll. Discovery continues and this response will be supplemented as needed.

Supplemental Response No. 5: Request for admission #9 asked Respondent to admit that it paid a weekly salary regardless of the number of hours worked to the H-2B workers in the 2013 season. Payroll has been produced as Butler 000001-001074.

REQUEST NO. 6: If you did not unconditionally admit Request for Admission No. 10, please produce each document upon which you rely for each part of your denial of Request for Admission No. 10.

Response No. 6: Respondents have already produced voluminous timekeeping records.

Supplemental Response No. 6: Request for admission #10 asked Respondent to admit that it did not keep timekeeping records for H-2B workers during the 2013 season. Timekeeping records have been produced as Butler 000001-001074.

REQUEST NO. 7: Produce each document which relates to your Answer to Interrogatory No. 2.

Response No. 7: Objection. This request is so overbroad as to be impossible to answer. Without waiving this objection, Respondents believe that any documents identified in the interrogatory answers have already been produced.

Supplemental Response No. 7: Interrogatory #2 was directed to whether Respondent employed H-2B workers in 2013 in positions other than as amusement and recreation attendants. Responsive documents have been produced in the payroll documents, such as Butler 000001-001074.

REQUEST NO. 8: Produce each document which supports, contradicts, and/or relates to your Answer to Interrogatory No. 5. (For purposes of this Interrogatory, the records requested by this Interrogatory shall include but not be limited to documentation that: substantiates the cost of the housing furnished; substantiates the value of the housing furnished, and; demonstrates each of your H-2B Workers' voluntary and uncoerced acceptance of the housing furnished.)

Response No. 8: Discovery continues and this response will be supplemented as needed.

Supplemental Response No. 8: Interrogatory #5 asked for the address of each bunkhouse provided, the name of each H-2B worker who resided in the bunkhouses, the timeframe that each H-2B worker resided in the bunkhouses, and the cost basis and fair market value for the bunkhouses. Documents are identified in the answer to interrogatory #5, and copies are attached.

REQUEST NO. 9: Produce each document which supports or contradicts your Answer to Interrogatory No. 11.

Response No. 9: Objection. Those credits or offsets that Respondents claim have already been identified, and Respondents are not aware of further documents (other than the pleadings in this case) to substantiate the fact of what they are claiming in this case.

Supplemental Response No. 9: Interrogatory #11 simply asked Respondent to identify each credit claimed in this case. Other than the request for hearing and discovery in this case, Respondent is not aware of other documents that corroborate what it is claiming. Coincidentally, Respondent is gathering supporting material for all credits, but Interrogatory #11 did not request that information.

REQUEST NO. 10: Produce each document which supports or contradicts your Answer to Interrogatory No. 14.

Response No. 10: Discovery continues and this response will be supplemented as needed.

Supplemental Response No. 10: Interrogatory #14 requested documents concerning the method for paying H-2B workers in the 2013 season. Payroll documents, including countersigned pay stubs, have been produced as Butler 000001-001074.

REQUEST NO. 11: Produce each statement (whether written, electronic, audio, or in some other format) upon which you will rely which was made by and/or taken by you from any person with knowledge of the relevant facts relating to the prosecution and/or defense of this matter.

Response No. 11: Objection. Statements made by individuals other than the parties are not discoverable. Suggs v. Whitaker, 152 F.R.D. 501, 505 (M.D.N.C. 1993) (no discovery of witness statements); Fernandes v. United Fruit Co., 50 F.R.D. 82, 83-84 (D.Md. 1970) (no discovery of those persons from whom a statement was taken); Board of Educ. v. Heating & Ventilating, Inc., 104 F.R.D. 23, 32 (N.D. Ill. 1984) (interrogator cannot ask who was interviewed and whether a statement was prepared); Uinta Oil Refining Co. v. Continental Oil Co., 226 F.Supp. 495, 500, 505-06 (D.Utah 1964) (no discovery of those persons from whom a statement was requested or taken); Buining v. The Transporter, 171 F. Supp. 127, 133 (D.Md. 1959) (court disallowed interrogatory seeking identity of any person who had given a written statement to the opponent); O'Brien v. Equitable life Assur. Soc'y, 13 F.R.D. 475, 477 (W.D. Mo. 1953) (same). Notwithstanding this objection, defendant is not aware of any such documents generated in the ordinary course of business. Respondents reserve the right to produce such statements as part of its exhibit list.

Supplemental Response No. 11: Any such statements were prepared in anticipation of trial and will be produced according to the scheduling order.

REQUEST NO. 12: Produce each document you have filed or otherwise submitted to any governmental organization (foreign or domestic) regarding your intent to employ H-2B workers for the 2019 season.

Response No. 12: Objection. This request does not seek information likely to lead to admissible evidence. Without waiving this objection, Respondents will produce their ETA Form 9142 and I-129 for the 2019 season.

Declaration of James Kendrick Judkins

ATTORNEY WORK PRODUCT – PRIVILEGED AND CONFIDENTIAL

I, James Kendrick Judkins, do hereby swear, affirm, and attest as follows, based upon my personal knowledge of the matters contained herein:

1. I am over 18 years of age and am competent to testify to the matters stated in this declaration. I make this declaration based upon my personal knowledge. I have not been promised any benefit, coerced or threatened in any manner in exchange for the testimony in this declaration.

2. I have been active in filing for, processing, facilitating, and employing non-immigrant foreign artists, support persons and workers for the Outdoor Mobile Entertainment Industry (Circus, Carnival and Concessions) industry since 1978, in my various capacities as Circus Manager, Circus Owner, H-2B Facilitator, Agent and Recruiter. As President of JKJ Workforce Agency, Inc., an H-2B facilitator, agent and recruiter specializing in the Mobile Entertainment Industry, I work with over 90 different Mobile Entertainment Employers, entertaining the American Public in communities in nearly every state from Maine to Hawaii, partnering with a myriad of local charitable, civic and social organizations in those communities.

Exhibit 10

Butler: 2018-TNE-19

Rebuttal: Ex. R - 1

3. I have participated in the H-2B program since its inception. The mobile entertainment industry has traditionally utilized legal foreign artists, riggers and workers, using legacy non-immigrant programs to be able to present to American Audiences "Artists from Around the Globe" for Generations. Although our H-2B Client Employers have experienced increased costs (filing fees, legal fees, recruitment fees, transportation fees) and regulatory mandated "prevailing wages" that exceed true industry prevailing wages and prevailing practices than their non H-2B competitors, and have struggled with the DOL bureaucracy to accommodate our industries congressionally mandated FLSA 13(a)(3) exemption within the constraints of the H-2B program, prior to the implementation of this new wage methodology the benefits of being in the program were sufficient to allow the employers to accept the additional costs. The benefits experienced by our H-2B Client Employers, by being Stakeholders in the H-2B program, include having a reliable and dependable labor force, and labor costs have been sufficiently reliable and predictable that the various business owners and managers can properly plan for their business needs.

4. Based upon the Department of Labor's (DOL) statement in the January 19, 2011 Final Wage Rule that the Rule would not be effective until January 1, 2012, past experience with rule changes whereby the effective dates of the rules applied prospectively and never retroactively, and that the Department was considering additional measures for phasing-in the implementation even after that date, I understood, and our H-2B Employer Clients understood, that the requirements of the Rule would not apply to my or their business operations in 2011. In addition, a majority of our H-2B Employer Clients applied for and received their FY 2011 Final Determination prior to issuance of the January 19, 2011 Final Wage Rule.

5. In reliance on the fact that the Wage Rule would not apply to any of our clients' businesses in 2011, in reliance on the variable prevailing wages ranging from $7.25 to $8.89 per hour, and an OES Category of 39.3091 that had been assigned to client companies by the Department of Labor (DOL), our client companies made decisions to participate in the H-2B program in 2011.

a. As an agent for our H-2B Client Employers, prior to January 19, 2011, we assisted approximately 73 of our H-2B Client Employers with filing with the Department of Labor ETA for Temporary Labor Certification for approximately 3016 H-2B workers for the periods and prevailing wages indicated on [JKJ EXHIBIT 01] attached.

b. As an agent for our H-2B Client Employers, on or after January 19, 2011 but prior to August 1, 2011, we assisted approximately 16 of our H-2B Client Employers with filing with the Department of Labor ETA for Temporary Labor Certification for approximately 413 H-2B workers for the periods and prevailing wages indicated on [JKJ EXHIBIT 01] attached.

c. As an agent for our H-2B Client Employers, on or after August 1, 2011, we assisted approximately 0 of our H-2B Client Employers with filing with the Department of Labor ETA for Temporary Labor Certification for approximately 0 H-2B workers for the periods and prevailing wages indicated on [JKJ WF EXHIBIT 01] attached.

d. As an agent for our H-2B Client Employers, on or after August 1, 2011, we have efiled DOL ETA form 9141 for Prevailing Wage Determinations for approximately 33 H-2B Employer Clients. We intend to efile DOL ETA form 9141 for Prevailing Wage Determinations for approximately 57 additional H-2B Employer Clients within the next 30 days.

6. Upon receiving approval of the applicable Labor Certification for FY 2011, I assisted our H-2B Employer Clients in applying for approximately 3429 H-2B workers for applicable periods by submitting Form I-129s Petition to the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS). The USCIS approved our H-2B Employer Clients' Form I-129s and issued corresponding forms I-797 showing the approval by USCIS of their visa petitions. Details on applications (dates applied for, numbers and approvals) indicated on [JKJ EXHIBIT 02] attached. I advised and assisted our H-2B Employer Clients in good faith belief that the terms and conditions of their approvals would not be

Butler: 2018-TNE-19
Administrator's Exhibit

drastically and retroactively changed. The H-2B Employer Clients filed in good faith belief that the terms and conditions of their approvals would not be drastically and retroactively changed.

7. In reliance on the DOL and USCIS approvals, I assisted our H-2B Client Employers (as needed) in recruitment, hiring and processing of H-2B workers at rates and periods as indicated on [JKJ EXHIBIT 02] attached, and each of our H-2B Employer Clients made their business planning, labor planning, sales contracts and commitments, insurance, cash flow, and other financial arrangements for the year. The H-2B Employer Clients acted in good faith that the terms and conditions of the employment of their H-2B Foreign Workers and Domestic Workers hired under the recruitment process would not be drastically and retroactively changed.

8. I now understand that the DOL Wage Rule published on August 1, 2011 will require our H-2B Employer Clients to drastically increase the wages they pay to H-2B employees and any U.S. workers hired in connection with H-2B certified application by imposing on those employers and their current H-2B employees and certain U.S. employees in 2011 a new wage methodology that previously did not apply to their business. As an agent for our client companies in filing for DOL Labor Certification, we receive notice of the Supplemental Prevailing Wage Determinations being issued by the US DOL ETA. As of September 13, 2011, only 17 days prior to the effective date for these so-called Supplemental Prevailing Wages, we have only received approximately 50% of the Supplemental Prevailing Wage Determinations that Department of Labor, Employment and Training Administration, Office of Foreign Labor Certification must issue and the employers must put into effect, on September 30, 2011. Our Mobile Entertainment H-2B Employer Clients perform services in multiple venues. The 46 Supplemental Prevailing Wage Determinations that I have received, provide approximately 890 distinct prevailing wage determinations, and any analysis of this data from DOL shows the following:

a. Wide ranges of H-2B wage increases for the various locations, ranging from Merced County, California which will increase from $8.66 to $9.05 per hour, which is a $0.39/hour or 4.5% increase to Kings, Queens, Putnam, Rockland and Westchester Counties, NY which will increase from $7.97 to $17.13 per hour, which is a $9.16/hour or 117% increase. [JKJ EXHIBIT 03] There does not appear to be any reasonable and logical explication or basis for the widely variable increases in Prevailing Wage Determinations for the same exact job title even in divergent physical locations. I could see no logical or apparent correlation between percentage or dollar increases v local unemployment rates or poverty levels. For instance, some of my H-2B Client Employers with work in Imperial County, California, with 30.8% unemployment and 22.8% poverty level are being given a Supplemental Prevailing Wage that is 72.14% higher than the previously certified wage. Just a few miles away, in Orange County, California, with an unemployment rate of 9.3% and a poverty level of 10.7%, some of my H-2B Client Employers are being provided a new Prevailing Wage Rate that is 9.48% higher than the previously certified wage. [The Orange County rate of $9.70 is $5.50 less than the Imperial County $15.20 rate]. [Poverty level rates from: http://www.ers.usda.gov/data/povertyrates/PovLstpct.asp?st=CA&lonqname=California and Unemployment level rates from: http://data.bls.gov/map/MapToolServlet]

b. Wide ranges of H-2B wages for the various locations, ranging from $8.21 in Louisville, KY to $17.13 in Rockland County, NY. If a mobile entertainment operator is traveling from one location to another, providing either free or fixed cost transportation and housing to employees, is there a reasonable basis for this 108% wage differential? [JKJ WF EXHIBIT 03] [This is not taking into account the Prevailing Wage Determinations that were generated by DOL as $0.00].

c. Wide ranges of H-2B wages for adjacent counties. It is not reasonable for an employer to be given a Supplemental Prevailing Wage in Rockland County, NY of $17.13 per hour, but $13.45 in the adjacent Orange County, NY. Or a prevailing wage of $8.21 in Louisville County, KY but $12.75 in Adair County, KY – a short 80 miles away. [JKJ WF EXHIBIT 04]

Butler: 2018-TNE-19
Administrator's Exhibit
Rebuttal: Ex. R - 5

d. Errors in DOL's process. One of our H-2B Client Employers was issued a Supplemental Prevailing Wage Determination of $0.00 wages per hour for 16 different physical locations [JKJ WF EXHIBIT 05].

e. All of these H-2B employer clients are mobile entertainment companies, not similarly situated to fixed entertainment parks, bowling alleys, video arcades, miniature golf courses, county clubs and/or sports parks, and it is my view that no industry-appropriate wage survey has been conducted by the BLS or USDOL on the mobile entertainment industry. Thus, the underlying data being used is invalid as the terms of employment being demanded by DOL are not "consistent with the nature of the occupation, activity and industry in the United States" in which the workers are employed. This is what I understand is part of the Department of Homeland Security USCIS rules under which DHS may consult with DOL for advice as to what wage rates should be required in the H-2B program according to 8 CFR § 214.2(h)(6)(iii)(B). See Ex. 10, p. 314. As I understand the applicable law, now DHS, formerly the U.S. Attorney General, is supposed to consult with the DOL as to whether to admit nonimmigrants into the country, but DHS has not fully delegated all decision-making about terms of employment to DOL and it does not appear to have that full delegation power under the law. Neither the Wage Methodology for the Temporary Non-Agricultural Employment H-2B Program, Final Rule, 76 Fed. Reg 45667 (Aug. 1, 2011) ("Wage Rule II"); nor the Wage Methodology for the Temporary Non-Agricultural Employment H-2B Program, Final Rule, 76 Fed Reg. 3452 (Jan. 19, 2011) ("Wage Rule I") provides a means for an industry wide prevailing wage survey to be done to remedy this problem, and DOL does not survey the occupation, activity or industry in which my mobile entertainment company clients and their employees work.

f. It should be noted that under current special procedures that the DOL ETA has established for the Mobile Entertainment Category, employers can either pay the highest

Butler: 2018-TNE-19
Administrator's Exhibit

prevailing wage on their route or a variable wage, changing at each location. Historically, the differential from one location to another has been minimal and a majority of our H-2B Client Employers have chosen to pay the highest prevailing wage on their route for the whole season. If it had been indicated in any way, shape or form, at the time of filing for Temporary Labor Certification that the DOL ETA would, contrary to prior practice, be generating extremely variable Supplemental Prevailing Wages based upon a variety of OES and SCA codes and applying them retroactively, I would have advised and our H-2B Client Employers would have mitigated the immediate financial damages by opting to pay the variable prevailing wages instead of the highest prevailing wage for their full route. It is assumed, but not clear, that the US DOL is effectively mandating a change in the basic terms and conditions of employment effective September 30, 2011 so the employers should be able to alter their decision to pay the highest prevailing wage on their route. It is also not clear how this new retroactively applied Prevailing Wage Methodology will be enforced by the US DOL, WHD. It is conceivable that a Mobile Entertainment Employer, with a season and wage rate that was approved from January 15, 2011 to November 15, 2011, with prior approved wages from $7.25 to $8.89 per hour, had attested that the "Employer will pay the highest prevailing wage in the listed venues as per the 9141 Attached", if issued a Supplemental Prevailing Wage that is $17.00 for a location that had been valid only for 1 week in July 2011, may be required to pay the $17.00 rate retroactively for all locations starting on January 15, 2011 and not simply for the locations it works in on and after September 30, 2011.

g. An individual employer receiving a Supplemental Prevailing Wage Determination from the DOL ETA would reasonably expect that other H-2B employers in the identical market area with the identical job category would receive an identical Supplemental Prevailing Wage. Without the US DOL ETA providing a method for H-2B employers to access and compare all Prevailing Wage Determinations issued, on a timely basis, that employer is unaware of any variations or deviations between its business and other similarly situated businesses. Without access this makes it impossible for those employers to request a fair review of their Supplemental Prevailing Wages or to adequately utilize the appeal process in place, effectively leaving those employers without a review or appeal process.

h. However, as an agent receiving multiple Supplemental Prevailing Wage Determinations for employers with multiple locations, all for the exact same OES Wage Category and job description, I am in a unique position to compare and contrast these various Supplemental Prevailing Wage Determinations as they are issued. For the past several seasons, we have been advised by the State Workforce Agencies (SWA) that OES Category 39-3091 Amusement Attendant applies to Carnival and Circus Amusement Ride and Concessions Operators, and the OES Description: "Perform variety of attending duties at amusement or recreation facility. May schedule use of recreation facilities, maintain and provide equipment to participants of sporting events or recreational pursuits, or operate amusement concessions and rides" is a comprehensive description covering this job. The DOL ETA has certified for several seasons that these are the correct job categories and that these prevailing wages do not adversely affect similarly employed US Workers as DOL ETA broadly defines this OES category. Although all of the original DOL ETA Prevailing Wage Determinations issued by US DOL for FY 2011 were for OES 39-3091 wages, the DOL ETA Supplemental Prevailing Wage Determinations that are now being issued by US DOL for FY 2011 are for 4 different OES and SCA Job Categories, without any given, implied or obvious reason for the differences. The job descriptions our office submitted and on which this patchwork of 4 different Job Codes and Categories is based can only be the result of arbitrary, capricious and unreasonable application of the applicable requirements. These results simply make no rational sense. We have only received approximately 50% of all the Supplemental Prevailing Wage Determinations

Butler 2018-TNE-19
Administrator's Exhibit
Rebuttal Ex. R - 8

that we should receive prior to September 30, 2011 and have 4 different Job Codes and Categories so far, but there may be more that appear in the remaining Supplemental Prevailing Wage Determinations. The 4 OES and SCA Job Categories received so far are as follows:

i. OES 39-3091.00, Amusement and Recreation Attendants. Perform variety of attending duties at amusement or recreation facility. May schedule use of recreation facilities, maintain and provide equipment to participants of sporting events or recreational pursuits, or operate amusement concessions and rides.

ii. SCA 28041, Carnival Equipment Operator. This operator works under supervision of carnival contractor who checks performance for safety, reliability and attentiveness, operates and maintains amusement rides such as roller coasters, ferris wheels, pony rides, etc, sets up and prepares amusement rides for use by the public, accepts ticket as tender for rides, performs other duties as assigned.

iii. SCA 28043, Carnival Worker. The Carnival Worker works under supervision of carnival contractor, receives change fund from supervisor and signs appropriate hand receipts, rings sales on cash register, collects admission fee/tickets as tender for participation in/on amusement rides and sideshows, etc. This worker makes necessary change. Accounts for cash issued at beginning of tour, and receipts for sales, refers unusual problems to supervisor, may conduct internal performance checks for carnival's compliance to contract specifications, and performs other duties as assigned.

iv. SCA 23470, Laborer. The Laborer performs tasks that require mainly physical abilities and effort involving little or no specialized skill or prior work experience. The following tasks are typical of this occupation: The Laborer loads and unloads trucks, and other conveyances, moves supplies and materials

Administrator's Exhibit
Rebuttal: Ex. R - 9

to proper location by wheelbarrow or hand truck; stacks materials for storage or binning, collects refuse and salvageable materials, and digs, fills and tamps earth excavations. The Laborer levels ground using pick, shovel, tamper and rake, shovels concrete and snow, cleans culverts and ditches, cuts tree and brush; operates power lawnmowers, moves and arranges heavy pieces of office and household furniture, equipment, and appliance, moves heavy pieces of automotive, medical engineering, and other types of machinery and equipment, spreads sand and salt on icy roads and other types of machinery and equipment, spreads sand and salt on icy roads and walkways, and picks up leaves and trash.

Of the 4 Job Descriptions being provided by the US DOL ETA in the Supplemental Prevailing Wage Determinations, the only category that even arguably correctly and accurately covers the work actually performed is the OES Category 39.3091.

Each of these differing job categories has differing Supplemental Prevailing Wages, and as the Supplemental Prevailing Wage Determinations are being received there, are no logical reasons why one employer/venue is provided with one code/wage and the same employer/different venue or different employer/same venue is provided a different code/wage. It appears that instead of providing the Job Code / Category that correctly identifies the work performed based on the existing certifications and past practice, the US DOL ETA has randomly chosen the category that provides the highest possible wage.

i. The mobile entertainment industry is a very competitive business. Being able to sign and maintain multiple year contracts with State and County Fairs and local charitable and community service groups are what make or break a mobile entertainment business. To secure the multiple year contract the Carnival will typically place a bid, paying a certain percentage of sales with a minimum guarantee. The Carnival Management must calculate expected expenses vs. expected income and hope that unpredictable weather and economic conditions do not adversely affect attendance and revenues. Labor costs

Butler: 2018-TNE-19
Administrator's Exhibit

are a huge component of the total expenses, and these must be predictable and competitive. For contracts already in place, if our H-2B Employer Clients pay the new mandated wages to their H-2B workers and US Workers hired as a result of the recruitment (and make the cascading wage increases that they would have to make within their organizations so that there is pay equity) they will be losing money on a daily basis. The H-2B Client Companies will be put into a competitive disadvantage against non H-2B Companies with far lower market-driven, as opposed to DOL-mandated, labor costs and are able to place more competitive bids.

j. In addition, as an agent receiving multiple Supplemental Prevailing Wage Determinations for employers with multiple locations, all for the exact same OES Wage Category, I am in a unique position to compare and contrast these various Supplemental Prevailing Wage Determinations as they are issued. As the US DOL ETA rushed the Supplemental Prevailing Wages out the door, DOL ETA has issued different Job Categories and Prevailing Wages for different employers for the same job category in the same DOL-mandated and defined market areas. I do not know if this is caused by simple mistakes on the part of the DOL ETA employees as they rush to meet their bosses unrealistic, artificial, self- imposed deadline on this job killing regulation of September 30, 2011, a mandate to establish the highest imaginational wage possible, or some bias for one particular employer over another. However, these differences are wide-spread and not only make some of our H-2B Client Employers non-competitive with their non H-2B Competition, they make them non-competitive against other H-2B Client Employers who were provided Supplemental Prevailing Wages much lower than the ones others of my H-2B client employers received. The results for my sample of H-2B Employers, with less than 50 Supplemental Prevailing Wage Determinations received to date, and with approximately 890 unduplicated determinations by employer / county are detailed in the attached [JKJ WF EXHIBIT 06], and are summarized as follows:

Although these employers have requested a review of their Supplemental Prevailing Wage Determinations and have a right to appeal the results of the review, the process is expected to take months to complete. If the wages are paid to employees and similarly employed employees, and the reviews and appeals produce reductions and corrections, then the employer will not be able to recover the wages paid and will have a difficult time reducing wages to pre-September 30, 2011 levels.

And in all of these locations, their competitors, those not involved in the H-2B program are able to pay the minimum applicable FLSA, State or Local wage. Please note that the Job Category of 39-3091 Amusement Attendant involves workers who spend a majority of their time performing such duties as opening a gate and taking tickets at amusement rides, handing basketballs to patrons to toss through a hoop, or scooping snow-cones and handing them to customers. It is difficult to believe that anyone would expect that these non-skilled, entry level positions would have a prevailing wage of up to $17.13 per hour or that an employer could stay in business with these mandated wages when their competition are paying the legal minimum wage.

k. I am put into an impossible situation due to these conflicting Supplemental Prevailing Wage Determinations. As an agent for a large number of fiercely competitive employers, I am trusted by each employer with confidential information, including their intended route, physical locations, contracts and employment plans, with the understanding that I will not reveal that confidential itinerary or other information to other employers. If I reveal the wage differential to competitive employers, then I have betrayed that confidentiality. If I do not reveal that wage differential to competitive employers, and they are unable to utilize that information in their individual Supplemental Prevailing Wage Reviews, Appeals, or individual Plaintiff Declarations in this legal filing, then I am also not fulfilling my ethical duty. The only course of action that I can take is to file a Plaintiff Declaration on behalf of my company and all our H-2B Client Employers so that these examples of capriciously, arbitrarily, unreasonably, and egregiously varying Supplemental Prevailing Wages can be provided to the Court.

l. I am put into a second impossible situation due to these conflicting Supplemental Prevailing Wage Determinations. As a recruiter for over 2500 Mexican workers, all of whom are seeking a reliable and predictable wage, employment that currently provides them with wages that are more than triple the wages they can earn at home, wages that they have depended upon to raise the standard of living for their families, I am faced with the inevitable result of this unwarranted increase of prevailing wages. Many of the employers will opt out of the H-2B program, either by simply closing their businesses, downsizing, be forced to lower standards and put their patrons at risk by hiring workers that are not drug free, or hire undocumented workers. This will result in a majority of the H-2B workers losing their opportunity to work legally in the USA. They may feel forced to take the dangerous path of illegal entry, risk real abuse and danger at the hands of those who traffic in illegal aliens and employers who hire them, simply to feed and house their families, send their children to schools, and provide basic medical care for those that depend upon them. I will have to decide, as a recruiter, which workers are able to continue legal employment and which workers will be forced to seek other methods of fulfilling their responsibilities to their families. I find it highly ironic that the Secretary of Labor is busy signing agreements with Latin American Countries stating that the full force of the U.S. Government will be directed toward protecting the rights of undocumented workers, while at the same time that same US Government will be forcing me to tell the H-2B guestworkers who have depended upon me for years, who have trusted me for years, who have respected and followed the law and faithfully returned to their home country each year at the end of their certification to work that they no longer are able to work legally in the USA with the employers that they have grown to think of as their family.

Butler 2018-TNE-19

Rebuttal: Ex. R - 17

m. As noted earlier as of when I am preparing this Declaration, we have only received about 50% of the Supplemental Prevailing Wage Determinations that are to be issued for our H-2B Client Employers. It is noted on the Supplemental Prevailing Wage Determinations that are being issued that if the employer disagrees with the determination, the employer may either:

Administrator's Exhibit
Rebuttal: Ex. R - 18

i. Request review by the NPWC Director under 20 CFR § 655.11 within 10 days of the date of the issuance of the SPWD, or:

ii. Submit a new ETA Form 9141, Application for Prevailing Wage Determination.

Due to the extraordinarily abbreviated and irregular processes, combined with errors created by the US DOL ETA's haste in pushing the SPWD's out the door, even if all of our H-2B Client Employers request reviews, the reviews will not be completed before the effective date of the new wage rule and these new wages. In addition, if the employer does not agree with the review when it arrives, the opportunity to file an appeal will fall after the September 30, 2011 effective date of the new Prevailing Wage requirement. The review and appeal process has effectively become a farce, especially for those employers who have not yet received their Supplemental Prevailing Wage Determinations, and may not even have 10 days from the date their Supplemental Prevailing Wage Determinations are issued until the date they are mandated to pay the increased wages.

The second option is also a farce, because the DOL ETA has already announced that it is suspending the processing of new ETA Form 9141 until it has completed the issuance of all Supplemental Prevailing Wage Determinations, and its current backlog is over 60 days.

n. There are cascading effects that negatively impact all of our H-2B Employer Clients, recruited and processed H-2B workers as well as JKJ Workforce Agency, Inc. itself. The January 19, 2011 final rule defines the Wage Methodology for employment to commence on or after January 1, 2012. The errors, the discrepancies between and among employers, the erratic and capricious application of SCA wages and categories for historically OES positions, the Administrative Procedure Act Violations, the Regulatory Flexibility Act Violations, and the Takings Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution should be cause to invalidate this final rule. In addition, its haste in implementing the

Butler: 2018-TNE-19
Administrator's Exhibit
Rebuttal: Ex. R - 19

August 1, 2011 final rule, by admission of the US DOL ETA, has stretched the resources of the US DOL ETA staff up to, and perhaps, past the breaking point. They have suspended issuance of Prevailing Wage Determinations for employment to commence in FY 2012. This has caused the entire H-2B program to grind to a screeching halt because our H-2B Client Employers cannot begin the recruitment process, they are delayed in filing for Labor Certification, they are delayed in filing their forms I-129 with USCIS, effectively shutting down the program. We urge the Judge to consider the following additional remedies, if the Judge finds this case in our favor:

i. Mandate that the US DOL ETA issue Prevailing Wage Determinations within 30 days of electronic filing of the 9141. If the US DOL ETA does not issue prevailing wage determinations within 30 days of filing, the OES Level 1 Wages on the http://www.flcdatacenter.com/ would be accepted as valid for US DOL and US CIS processing and enforcement for FY 2012.

ii. Mandate that if the US DOL ETA does not issue Prevailing Wage Determinations within 30 days of electronic filing of the 9141, that the US DOL will expedite the processing of 9142 for H-2B employers and that the US CIS must process the H-2B Petition on a Premium Processing Basis without charging the Premium Processing Fee.

iii. Mandate that if the US DOL ETA is not able to process properly filed forms 9142 and issue Labor Certification within 30 days of filing, the employer will be allowed to file and US CIS must process form I-129s on the basis of the filed form 9142.

o. I cannot speak for all industries, but for many seasons it has been impossible for Mobile Entertainment Employers to hire sufficient US Workers to fill the key position of Amusement Attendants. The seasonal nature of the employment is aggravated by the travel from venue to venue, the need to live and work away from home for the extended touring season, the need to work on evenings, holidays and weekends, as well as industry best practices (and often state and local laws and regulations) that require both drug and background checks for these employees. JKJ WF EXHIBIT 07 attached, documents the recruitment effort for 2011 for our H-2B Client Employers.

i. Of the 90 Mobile Entertainment Companies for which my company is their agent and that we facilitate in the H-2B process, there were a total of 3583 positions needed. The mandated recruitment efforts produced 590 referrals from all of the various State Workforce Agencies (SWA) combined and 120 referrals from newspaper ads. If all of the referrals had been hired this would have only filled 19.82% of the need. However, many of the State Workforce Agencies merely produce lists of names that are simply in their computer systems and the recommended workers cannot even be contacted because there is no valid address or telephone number or when they are contacted, they have no interest in the employment and are actually offended that the employer is calling and offering a job.

ii. The 90 employers that we work with were able to contact and hire a total of only 98 US Workers to travel with the Circus, Carnival and Concessions operators. That is only 2.74% of the employers' needs. Of those total of 98 U.S. workers (approximately 1 per employer), not a single prospective one showed up for work and has completed the season. (Notably, if this new wage rule is allowed to become effective on September 30, every single worker that I understand is entitled to the new higher wage rate is a foreign H-2B guestworker - - not a single person is a U.S. worker to the best of my knowledge and belief.)

9. This new wage methodology that now will apply to my H-2B Client Employers businesses in 2011 was proposed on June 28, 2011 and adopted by DOL on August 1, 2011 without DOL providing me an opportunity to comment on the content and applicability of those requirements to my business in 2011. In fact, DOL provided the public with only 10 days to comment on its proposal to suddenly change the wage methodology in the middle of the year, which would apply new substantive obligations on employers, as well as change existing H-2B certifications that had already been approved by DHS. DOL also explicitly stated that it would not accept any comments regarding whether or to what extent certain provisions of the wage methodology should be adopted or modified, or whether the provisions should apply to my business. DOL only permitted the public to comment on whether the Rule should be effective on or about October 1, 2011. Of course in our industry, my Employer Clients generally are experiencing their busiest time of the year during the July 4 holiday period.

a. In my role as Chair of the Small Business Workforce Alliance (SBWA), I provided the attached comments JKJ WF EXHIBIT 08 to the Wage Methodology for the Temporary Non-Agricultural Employment H-2B Program, Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, 75 Fed. Reg. 61578 (October 5, 2010). It was clear that DOL ignored our comments, the comments of all of the other commentators that opposed the proposed rules all, or in part, including the comments submitted by the Federal government's own Small Business Administration, Office of Advocacy, in opposition to this rule. It was obvious that the DOL had blinders on, was acting on a political agenda, and had abdicated its responsibility to effectively manage the H-2B program as mandated by Congress to balance employer's needs and protection of U.S. workers who are similarly employed. DOL had become a rogue agency steamrolling over the business community, the rule of law, and the intent of Congress.

b. When the DOL issued the Final Rules on January 19, 2011 it appeared that this Steamroller was inevitable. Assuming that the Final Rule would be interpreted in the most logical and reasonable manner, and not be abusive to H-2B Employers, we began working with our clients to investigate the how it would be possible to utilize the applicable OES 39-3091 wage for employment starting January 1, 2012. Many of our clients indicated that they could not pay the increased wages, questioned how the DOL ETA could mandate any prevailing wage for a FLSA Section 13(a)(3) exempt employer, and asked me to investigate any and all options for the employer to remain within the H-2B program because the only other option would be shutting down the business.

c. When the DOL issued the Wage Methodology for the Temporary Non-Agricultural Employment H-2B Program, Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, 76 Fed. Reg. 37686 (June 28, 2011) ("Wage NPRM II") it still was not clear that if SCA or DBA wages had not applied previously to H-2B employers, they would be applied if they simply existed within a region, but it was clear that the DOL was not only steamrolling ahead, ignoring employers as part of the equation, acting upon a political agenda but was upping the ante by now making the enforcement effective on September 30, 2011 – not for employment certification application filed on or after September 30, 2011 but for previously certified, contracted for, valid visa-holding, and employed workers on September 30, 2011. At this point in time it became clear that submission to the current DOL of comments would be ignored, and within in the realm of probability result in retaliatory action from the agency in regards to processing of future application and/or enforcement by the DOL WHD.

d. In addition, DOL would not accept comments on the substance of the wage requirements it proposed on June 28 to impose on our H-2B Client Employers in 2011, nor would DOL allow a reasonable amount of time to comment. Even though it was apparent that the comments would be ignored and I suspected would result in overt or covert retaliation, I would have provided comments to DOL, suggesting changes and modifications to the details/requirements of the wage methodology, and I would have explained the extreme hardship the proposal would cause.

e. I firmly believe that the US DOL was acting in a deceptive and fraudulent manner during the entire charade involved in the proposal and then supposed review of comments and then the issuances of the Wage Methodology for the Temporary Non-Agricultural Employment H-2B Program, Final Rule, 76 Fed. Reg. 45667 (Aug. 1, 2011) ("Wage Rule II"); Wage Methodology for the Temporary Non-Agricultural Employment H-2B Program, Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, 76 Fed. Reg. 37686 (June 28, 2011) ("Wage NPRM II"); Wage Methodology for the Temporary Non-Agricultural Employment H-2B Program, Final Rule, 76 Fed. Reg. 3452 (Jan. 19, 2011) ("Wage Rule I"); Wage Methodology for the Temporary Non-Agricultural Employment H-2B Program, Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, 75 Fed. Reg. 61578 (Oct. 5, 2010) ("Wage NPRM I"). As indicated in SBWA comments, the DOL stated very clearly

Butler: 2018-TNE-19
Administrator's Exhibit
Rebuttal: Ex. R - 23

that it firmly believed that the prevailing wages should be raised for the benefit of workers, society, the economy and nearly every possible beneficiary or interested party, excluding the actual H-2B Employers. I believe that in setting up this program to obtain foreign guestworkers Congress intended that the needs of employers be balanced with the needs of employees who are similarly employed to those the employer seeks to bring into the country as guestworkers; otherwise, why would Congress have even set up and provided for a guestworker program at all. In addition to the examples detailed in the SBWA comments, it should be noted that in its proposed rules, the DOL estimated that the proposed method of Prevailing Wage Determination would result in an average increase of $1.37 per hour for H-2B employees in the Amusement Industry. This would be based upon the assumption that the workers were not re-classified from OES Categories to SCA or DBA Categories and by not using the figures that included SCA or DBA categories. The DOL was deceptive in all of its calculations regarding potential impact on the affected Small Businesses and the Economy as well as the American workforce as a whole, including those that depend on my Employer Clients' businesses remaining in operation so they have jobs. In reality, using the Supplemental Prevailing Wage Determinations issued to our H-2B Client Employers, the increase is not $1.37 per hour, but rather $3.48 per hour (JKJ EXHIBIT 03) which is a whopping 250% deviation from the official DOL Estimate. If all of the underlying information provided in the rulemaking process is also off by 250%, the validity of the entire process must be questioned.

10. The first Supplemental Prevailing Wage Determinations that I received as agent for our H-2B Client Employers from US DOL ETA were dated August 9, 2011 and the last ones I have received (so far) as of Friday, September 16, were dated September 9, 2011. There were none that were dated 8/27/2011 to 9/6/2011 inclusive. When we received the first Supplemental Prevailing Wage Determinations, as per the procedures outlined by the US DOL, we filed requests for review for those outrageous increases. It was also common knowledge that we were looking at possible relief from the courts from the new prevailing wage methodology, the very basis of how it is being calculated and imposed upon employers retroactively. This action was filed on September 7, 2011. I recently received

Butler: 2018-TNE-19
Administrator's Exhibit
Rebuttal: Ex. R - 24

another set of Supplemental Prevailing Wage Determinations, all dated September 7, 2011, September 8, 2011 or September 9, 2011. There are notable differences between the Supplemental Prevailing Wage Determinations issued before September 7th versus those issued on September 7th or after. These are ALL for employers and job categories previously certified for OES 39-3091 Amusement Attendant positions. On the pre-September 7, 2011 Supplemental Prevailing Wage Determinations 155 or 33.19% were issued for the highest possible wage category, the SCA 28041 Carnival Equipment Operator, and 66.81% were issued for the other 3 possible wage categories. On those issued on or after September 7, 2011, 98.27% were issued for the highest possible wage category, the SCA 28041 Carnival Equipment Operator, and only 1.43% were issued for the previously approved OES 39-3091 Amusement Attendant category. [JKJ EXHIBIT 09]. This pause in issuing the Prevailing Wage Determinations plus the stark difference in how our many Employer Clients were treated leads me to believe that I have been targeted by the US DOL for retaliation either because I have filed for Administrative Review of the Supplemental Prevailing Wage Determinations or because I have been involved in the planning, fund raising and filing of the request for relief via the Courts from this horrible Prevailing Wage Methodology. I have worked with the various agencies and their legacy agencies (US Department of Labor, US Department of Homeland Security and US Department of State) on various levels and in various forums since 1978. I always trusted that I could be frank and honest in my discussions with the officers that represented their respective agency and the US Government in their roles in those agencies, and that neither I nor my clients would be retaliated against by those officers or agencies that administer these programs. Sadly, my faith in the honesty and integrity of the US DOL ETA has been broken by that agency's processes of finalizing the rules, dismissing our comments as irrelevant and by the issuance of these clearly retaliatory Supplemental Prevailing Wage Determinations starting September 7, 2011. This has caused me irreparable harm because clients would prefer to deal with an agent that by association will not result in retaliatory action from the US DOL ETA. In addition this has dealt irreparable harm to the US DOL ETA and their administration of the entire Foreign Labor Program, and casts doubt in my mind as to whether US DOL ETA can even be trusted to act as impartial administrator of the program without continued Judicial review and oversight of the Agency's handling of the program. It appears that instead of taking the true interests of the H-2B Workers, of the very few US Workers who work in H-2B certified jobs in my industry and according to my understanding in any of the jobs for which employers seek H-2B workers, or of US Employers into account, the US DOL, is utilizing the H-2B Program and the new Wage Methodology as punishment for H-2B Employers simply trying to follow the regulations instead of hiring either undocumented workers or labor union workers, and the hammer is coming down harder on those who are legally challenging the Department of Labor's unjustified and unwarranted activities.

11. This wage rate increase will cause irreparable harm to my company. The harm to JKJ Workforce Agency is:

a. Upon receiving the Supplemental Prevailing Wage Determinations, our H-2B Client Employers have stated that they cannot pay the Supplemental Prevailing Wages indicated, that their competitors (non H-2B employers) are paying either the FLSA, State or Local Minimum Wage or they are FLSA 13(a)(3) exempt, paying as per industry prevailing practices, that they cannot compete and/or remain in business if they remain in the H-2B program, so they will either withdraw from the H-2B Program and/or close their businesses. This will reduce or eliminate my client base, forcing me to reduce and/or close my business and lay off all of my employees.

b. As demonstrated in 8.n. above the backlogs and delays in processing FY 2012 petitions, will make it impossible for me to effectively act as an agent and/or recruiter. This will reduce or eliminate business opportunities for my company.

c. The ethical problems outlined in 8.k above harm my reputation for impartiality and confidentiality and will cause current and potential clients who remain in the program to seek other agents, recruiters, facilitators in the future, causing me to reduce or close my business.

d. The ethical problems outlined in 8.l above harm my reputation for impartiality and confidentiality and will cause current and potential workers who remain in the program to seek other agents, recruiters, facilitators in the future, causing me to reduce or close my business.

c. As an American firmly believing that the mission of the US Government, its officers and agencies should be to provide impartial, honest regulation and guidance, without promoting a particular ideology, I feel that I have been betrayed by a process that is patently unfair. My faith in the US Government and the US Department of Labor's stewardship of the entire H-2B Program has been destroyed.

12. This wage rate increase will cause irreparable harm to our H-2B Client Employers. The harm to our H-2B Client Employers has been detailed above.

13. This wage rate increase will cause irreparable harm to the H-2B Current and Future Workers that JKJ Workforce Agency recruits and provides to our H-2B Client Employers. The harm to our H-2B Current and Future Workers has been detailed above.

14. This wage rate increase will cause irreparable harm to the sponsors and event organizers and their communities that depend upon our H-2B Client Employers as fund raisers for their Charitable, Social and Community Events by removing the events and entertainments that form the basis for their annual fund raising events. The cascading results will be reduced scholarships for FAA students, reduced glasses from Lions Clubs, reduced social services from local Churches and Charities, and the list goes on and on and on.

15. I expect that both my Company and those with whom we do business will suffer additional harms not specifically detailed above. However, given the short period of time within which this new Wage Rule was issued and will go into effect, I have not had an opportunity to fully evaluate all potential effects the Rule will have on the Company's operations.

16. I object to the content of this new wage methodology, the way in which it is applied and the manner in which the Wage Rule was issued by DOL. The mobile entertainment business was granted a FLSA 13(a)(3) exemption. I have been in the Mobile Entertainment Business since 1976, and based upon my 35 years of experience in this business, the new wages assigned by DOL under this new methodology bear no relation to the actual prevailing wages and prevailing practices paid in the occupation in the local area, and therefore violate the intent of Congress, establishing the H-2B program, as a balanced program to take into account the needs of employers and of U.S. workers who are similarly employed to the jobs that are available through the employer that seeks H-2B labor certification. Under "101(a)(15)(H)(ii)(B). An H-2B nonagricultural temporary worker is an alien who is coming temporarily to the United States to perform temporary services or labor without displacing qualified United States workers available to perform such services and whose employment is not adversely affecting the wages and working conditions of United States workers." The new wage methodology does adversely affect the wages and working conditions of United States workers by driving employers out of business, exports jobs and opportunities overseas, and is in violation of the mandate from Congress. It specifically adversely affects the wages and working conditions of United States workers in the Mobile Entertainment Industry by not effectively addressing true prevailing practices in that industry and destroying the jobs of U.S. workers who work in the industry in jobs that are not within the H-2B job description or job category, such as supervisors and managers, bookkeepers and accountants and many more.

17. I object to the assumptions made by the DOL in formulating the Wage Rule. The individuals drafting the DOL's proposed rule and the final rule made it clear that they held the H-2B Stakeholder Community in contempt, speaking about widespread fraud and abuse of the program without a scintilla of evidence or proof. In my role as agent and recruiter, I have had the pleasure of working with thousands of workers and hundreds of employers, managers and supervisors. I have had two amputees request employment; they were given jobs and issued visas. After reporting for work, one called me to tell me that his employer had brought him a newer and better prosthetic leg and has worked for that employer for 3 seasons. I have had 3 deaf workers who were given an opportunity for employment. When their employer discovered that they had never had an opportunity to learn to read or write or learn standardized sign language, the employer made arrangements for the three to receive tutoring. One of the three young men suffered from a birth defect, causing him embarrassment and possible future health issues, and the employer paid over $8000.00 for surgery to correct this deficit for this H-2B employee. I cannot tell the court how many times workers have been flown home at employers' expense for a family funeral, provided monies to assist with family medical emergencies, and taken to dentists and medical offices for personal medical care. When a hurricane damaged and destroyed many of our recommended workers' homes, I cannot tell you how many of my H-2B Employer Clients paid for new roofs for their workers' families homes. I long for the day when the H-2B Employers, who are striving to comply with the letter and spirit of the law and have rejected the option of hiring undocumented workers, receive the respect that they deserve from the US Department of Labor instead of scorn. And I long for the day when H-2B Stakeholders can return to a working partnership with the US Department of Labor in administration of the H-2B program.

18. The calculations and statistics contained in this Declaration were completed at 12:30 p.m. on Friday, September 16, 2011. Although additional Supplemental Prevailing Wage Determinations arrive on a daily basis, and each new Supplemental Prevailing Wage Determination that arrives increases the number of conflicting wage determinations between employers for the same original job category in the same county and further documents all of the irreparable harm detailed above, at this point in time, providing additional documentation it is like "killing a dead horse". Unfortunately, if the court does not provide relief from this new prevailing wage rule, the dead horse will be my business, my clients' businesses and the jobs currently being filled by our H-2B guestworkers.

19. Prior to signing this declaration, I was provided with a full opportunity to carefully review this declaration and freely make any corrections and additions of any kind. I verify that the information I have provided in this declaration is true and correct.

PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I VERIFY UNDER PENALTY OF PERJURY UNDER THE LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA THAT THE FOREGOING IS TRUE AND CORRECT.

Executed in Monterrey, NL, Mexico, this 19th day September, 2011.

PROCEEDINGS

(8:58 o'clock a.m.)

JUDGE CLARK: Good morning. We're on the record in the matter of The Administrator, Wage and Hour Division, versus Butler Amusements, case 2018-TNE-00019.

Today is May 9th, 2019. And this is the second day of our hearing. We are in San Francisco.

We have two additional witnesses to call, one by telephone, who is waiting to go. And then, we have one additional live witness this morning.

Is there anything for the record before we get started, Ms. Gorman?

MS. GORMAN: No, sir.

JUDGE CLARK: Mr. Pierce?

MR. PIERCE: No, Your Honor.

JUDGE CLARK: Okay. We do have a witness. It is Mr. Shobaken.

MR. PIERCE: Shobaken.

JUDGE CLARK: Shobaken. Mr. Shobaken, can you hear me okay?

MR. SHOBAKEN: Yes, I can.

JUDGE CLARK: Okay. So I'm going to have you raise your right hand, if you would, please?

THE WITNESS: Yes, got it up.

JUDGE CLARK: Very good.

Whereupon,

THOMAS SHOBAKEN

having been first duly sworn by the Administrative Law Judge, was examined and testified as follows:

JUDGE CLARK: If you will, state your name, and then spell it for our record, please.

THE WITNESS: My name is Thomas Shobaken. Last name is S-h-o-b-a-k-e-n.

JUDGE CLARK: Okay, thank you, Mr. Shobaken. Both attorneys are going to ask you questions, starting with Mr. Pierce.

We are recording everything that is said here, and obviously, we can't see you. So I need you to use words, and not say, "Uh-huh," and "Uh-uh."

And you can't shake your head because we can't see that. So you have to say yes or no. Do you understand?

THE WITNESS: I understand.

JUDGE CLARK: Do your best to let the lawyers ask a complete question before you give an answer, because we can't record two people at one time. Do you understand?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

JUDGE CLARK: Okay. If one of the lawyers makes an objection, just stop talking. I will let you know whether or not you can answer the question. Fair enough?

THE WITNESS: Fair enough.

JUDGE CLARK: All right. We'll get started. Mr. Pierce, please.

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR. PIERCE:

Q Good morning, Mr. Shobaken.

A Good morning.

Q Can you tell us where you are presently located today?

A I'm here in Beaverton, Oregon at our corporate administrative office. The exact address is 8035 Southwest Cirrus Drive, Suite 2180. That is C-i-r-r-u-s. We're here in Beaverton, zip code 97008.

Q Could you tell us a little bit about your position and your background with the Butler Amusements Company?

A Yes. My position is I'm the corporate treasurer. I've been with the Butler organization since the corporation, and well before that, going back to my collegiate years.

My background is I have a bachelor of science degree in business administration from Creighton University.

I've been internal auditor for the K-Mart Corporation back in their heydays out of Detroit. I was the audit department manager for the corporate auditors out of Detroit.

I came west. Earl and Butch Butler, the cofounders of Butler Amusements, Inc., made the purchase of a large amusement ride, and I worked into their office situation back in the mid eighties, and I've been there ever since.

Butler was incorporated back in February of 1984. We've been around since, working in the accounting area.

Basically, the duties are to direct the cash flow coming in to the bank accounts, all the credit card data that comes at us. We check the bank account status daily.

We basically arrange for heavy-weight finance companies to provide financing for our major acquisitions.

And we compile and submit all the data that's necessary on a monthly, quarterly, annual basis to the various entities out there, federal, state, local.

We are active in shopping for work comp insurance, and have been with the various work comp carriers. In California, we've been with work comp state fund, in California since -- for over 30 years. So those are some of the duties.

JUDGE CLARK: Mr. Shobaken?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

JUDGE CLARK: I'm going to have you stop there, and have Mr. Pierce ask you another question.

THE WITNESS: Okay. If we're going to go on ad nauseam, that's probably close enough on the bio.

JUDGE CLARK: It's a little narrative at this point. Thank you.

BY MR. PIERCE:

Q Mr. Shobaken, did you receive from my office a group of a half a dozen exhibits?

A We did. We printed that out, had a little difficulty, printed that out yesterday. We do have those exhibits.

Q And do you have them available to you so we can reference them as needed?

A Yes. They on the conference table. I'm here in my office. I can just step out real quick. It just takes a second to grab a particular exhibit in question.

Q Well, if you could scoop them all up and have them in front of you?

A Okay. I'm going to put you on hold, and I'm going to switch to a telephone that I will be right at the conference table. Hopefully, I will not cut you off. So hold steady for just about a second. Hello, are you with me?

Q Yes.

A Okay, we're back with you. I'm looking at all of the exhibits right in front of me.

Q All right. Let me start by asking you a couple of questions about Exhibit 24.

A Yes.

Q Do you recognize this as a list of witnesses that your office provided for the individuals who were working as

H-2B in the 2013 season?

A Yes.

Q And then, down the left hand column, the heading is Date. Is it your understanding that that shows the date that these various individuals were processed through the Consulate?

A Right. That would be my understanding.

Q And then --

A In some cases, we spoke with the Border officials at the Port of Entry. On occasion, they would have a question or two. But that is my understanding.

MR. PIERCE: Your Honor, the nine individuals at issue here are identified in specific lines throughout this, 19, 20, 29, 33, 39, 48, 63, 74 and 156.

THE WITNESS: I have here a complete form here. I have a separate list on the individuals.

MR. PIERCE: Tom? Tom?

JUDGE CLARK: Hold on a second, please, Mr. Shobaken. You just need to answer whatever questions are asked of you. So you don't need to volunteer any information. Just wait for a question from Mr. Pierce, or when Ms. Gorman asks some questions.

THE WITNESS: Okay. Will do.

JUDGE CLARK: Will you repeat those lines again, please?

MR. PIERCE: The nine individuals are on lines 19, 20, 29, 33, 39, 48, 63, 74 and 156.

JUDGE CLARK: Thank you.

BY MR. PIERCE:

Q Mr. Shobaken, you have also been leading the charge gathering the payroll information that has been collectively gathered as Exhibit 26, did you not?

A Yes.

Q And those were the records that were generated and maintained by the company in the normal course of business?

A Yes.

Q Let's go down to Exhibit 27. Actually, back up for one moment. As to the payroll, do you remember when you originally produced them?

They were in individual packets labeled in the envelope with the name and dates for the locations where those time sheets were generated?

A Excuse me. As far as the generation source, these were generated on site by the offices on site, would be the original starting point.

Q Right. And then it came through your office. Did you actually see it? There was like 35 packets, envelopes with those time sheets. Did you physically see that?

A For each and every one of these, we have a storage system where we, if there's no demand for the documents, we place them in storage boxes, and label accordingly.

So as far as having any reason to note that we have these individual ones, we would've labeled them 2013 payroll stubs, et cetera.

But so, we would have them in a generic yearly box by location.

MS. GORMAN: Your Honor, objection. I move to strike as unresponsive. The witness did not answer the question.

JUDGE CLARK: I'm not going to strike the answer. Well, I think he did answer. I don't know that it was specific to the question you asked. So ask it again.

MR. PIERCE: Well, I'd actually like to ask the question that she thinks I didn't ask, which is going to go to --

JUDGE CLARK: Well, the objection is overruled. You can ask another question. The answer will stand.

BY MR. PIERCE:

Q Mr. Shobaken, in the paper, versus electronic record retention policy, where is the Butler organization on keeping lots of paper, versus trying to put it digital into the computer?

A Where are we at in this point?

Q Right. Are you --

A What's that?

Q Are you paper heavy? Or, are you electronic heavy?

A If you look at 2013, we're paper heavy.

Q And originally when this audit first started in 2013, at what address was the office located at that time?

A We were over at 3003 153rd Drive in Beaverton. We had been there for 21 years.

Q And what was the arrangement for keeping your paper heavy record retention policy?

A The arrangement was to keep it in storage a few feet from the administrative office.

Q Did you have a big, I'll call it a big bay area, like an open garage area?

A Right.

Q And how were the boxes of papers organized in the bay area at your original location?

A They were organized in banker boxes with labels noting what particular unit they originated from, what operational unit.

Q And once you moved -- when was the move to the new location?

A The move to the new location was about five years ago. That was forced by Nike, which you don't need to know, took over our premises.

Q And what did that do to the organization of your paper-heavy records from 2013?

A That made it -- let's say that move, after 21 years, was haphazard, difficult to bring it back up to good Dewey Decimal retrieval-type scenarios. It's a major one you don't want to face. It was difficult.

Q Okay. Now if you would direct your attention to Exhibit 27?

A Yes.

Q You recognize this as a schedule for the show as it was operating in the 2013 season?

A That's correct.

Q And if you were to take the payroll -- well, excuse me. Down the middle column, two columns on Exhibit 27, you see the reference to Butch's Unit?

A Yes.

Q What is Butch's Unit?

A Butch's, excuse me, Butch's Unit would be -- would've been the unit operated by our co-founder, Earl Butch Butler. And that unit has continued with that reference since Mr. Butler's passing in 2011.

And these are -- these locations, cities that are noted are the fairs that have been contracted, many long-term contracts.

Most of these locations are carved in stone in terms of they are repeat venue sites that we play continuously.

So this would've been Mr. Butler's main operating unit that he managed, hands on.

Q Mr. Shobaken, looking now at the evidence summary, Exhibit 28, if you were to take the information contained in the payroll for where Butch's Unit was working, and the itinerary in Exhibit 27, would that allow you to be able to show the specific working addresses for Butch's Unit throughout the 2013 initial part of the season as reflected in Exhibit 28?

A Right. That should be, like I say, should be somewhat -- corresponds with your statement or question.

Q Okay. And then Exhibit 29, you recognize that as a listing of the specific addresses for the various locations that the show would play throughout the 2013 season?

A Correct. Yes.

Q Then going now to Exhibit 37 --

A Thirty-seven, I may not have.

Q You're not seeing it?

A No, unless I've covered it.

Q Do you remember not too many weeks ago putting together some W-2 information for me?

A Hold on. I do have that. I just moved a page here. Bear with me for a second. I did have that here for a second. Give me one more second to locate it. Sorry about that. I have it in hand.

Q All right. And this is a document that you were involved in preparing or gathering the information. Correct?

A Yes, that's correct.

Q And on the first page of Exhibit 37, what are the pay figures that are reflected for these various individuals?

A What we have in the column almost to the far right side is the weekly wage at the time of the start of the first quarter of the 2013 season.

Q And what was the source from which you got these numbers?

A The source was from the -- the payroll sheet that we had for documenting the entry workers. I had a summary of workers coming in, and their initial arrival date. So it was the arrival date that I had. An employee back then let me know when these H-2B workers arrived.

Q And if you would flip to page 13 within Exhibit 37?

A Page 13 of Exhibit 37?

Q That's right.

A Okay. Okay, on page -- are we looking at the employee earnings summary?

Q Yes.

A Okay. That's the compilation. Once we submit our payroll documents, these are the quarterly work ups for the amount of gross pay, the amount of federal and state and Social Security and MediCare tax, whatever is applicable.

That's a spreadsheet that breaks it out.

Q So this quarterly report for the start of the 2013 season would pick up about the first seven weeks of the actual employment for most of these individuals?

A Correct. The -- that would reflect back on the schedule that you have for the start of the main fair season -- not the main season. But our first fair would've been at Indio, and that normally starts in mid February, and that would be reflective.

Q Who was actually paying the mandatory income tax withholdings related to these various individuals?

A The official payment would have been out of here when we compiled and sent in the documents to the federal government and to the state government. That would've been paid here in the electronic funds transfer payment service to the IRS. That's the main payment source to the federal government.

And then we have the state government that we have to send a payment in quarterly, and then monthly, and then, some cases, weekly deposits are required. They want weekly deposits. But they're paid out of here in terms of the actual payments of the liability that's due.

Q On the employee earnings summary on page 13, which of the columns are reflective of what Butler was paying for the individual taxes on the workers involved?

A Well, if you go over to the charts that show the federal, that would be the federal. Then you would have MediCare. You'd break that down, MediCare.

Then you would have Social Security. That's a standard at 6.2. Then you would have MediCare at 1.45. So you've probably got a grand total of about 7.65 that the employee pays. The 7.65 that, under normal circumstances, that Butler has matched. That's what all employers do.

Q Okay. But some of these taxes that you were paying, the company was not obligated to do that. Correct?

A I don't know what actually took place at the scene, at the on-site management scene where the operational managers are, how the employees receive their pay, whether they received the gross and not the net.

But I believe the paycheck stubs would reflect what the net should be. But I believe there might have been some situations that I've -- where Butler has paid more of the gross than the net.

Q Now, if you would, look at the third page of Exhibit 37.

A Okay, got it right here.

Q And do you see a series of collections from the W-2's for the individuals that are at issue in this case?

A Yes.

Q Starting with the first one on page three, Saul

Estadillo, which were the numbers that the company was paying that would have been the employee's responsibility?

A It would have the -- on the break down on the W-2, you would have the federal income tax withheld, number two, and then number four, Social Security tax withheld, and then number six, the MediCare tax withheld.

Q All right. So if you added those three numbers in the upper right corner on the third page of Exhibit 37, that would give you the total tax payment that the company took on that was the individual's responsibility for the full 2013 season, would it not?

A That would be my understanding, yes.

Q And in order to come up with a fair estimate of the proportion of those taxes that were incurred during the first 11 weeks of the season for 2013, would it have been a fair estimate to just take a proportion out of the full length of the operating season?

A That would be probably a comparable number with the starting point being federal income tax, Social Security and MediCare. Going with Social Security and MediCare, that's automatic, 7.65 percent.

The additional federal income tax, I don't know what that percentage would be. But it would probably be above the 7.65 percent, which is locked in. That's automatically paid in.

Q And if you take the wage rate for this individual that we're talking about, Saul Estadillo Herrera, on the first page, that's $500.00 weekly, and divide that into the total payment as reflected on the third page, would that give you how many operating weeks there were in the 2013 season?

A Right. That would probably be -- you'd probably have it almost right on the head, 500 into the 17 five, you would probably have the operating season.

Q So that would be about a 35-week season that Mr. Estadillo Herrera was with the company?

A Yeah, I'd have to track him individually. But if you took that 500 into the 17 five, I guess you'd multiply it by two, and have about 35, yes, that would be correct, about 35 weeks should be reflective of when he arrived and when he departed, the span in between.

Q There was a question that was raised yesterday whether the company was actually paying workers' compensation insurance premiums related to these individuals in 2013.

Was the company paying workers' compensation premiums for these individuals in 2013?

A Yes.

Q Do you need to think about that? Is there any hesitation?

A Oh, there's no hesitation. The hesitation was on the part that we definitely -- that is one of our most tremendous costs, especially in the State of California. That's based on a gross wage figure. Then it's based on an experienced mod factored into the class rating.

And our class rating, some people used to say, that worked for state comp, it's comparable to a deep sea diver, well beyond roofers. So it's in a high risk category.

Definitely the people that you have here on this exhibit, we paid work comp for sure.

Q There was also a question raised yesterday. So I would ask you this question: When it comes to actually issuing the payments for various company expenses, does Steve Nittler, as the outside company accountant, play any role in payments that are issued for Butler expenses?

A Mr. Nittler tracks the expenses based on the fact we send him the data. But I make payments to State of California work comp monthly out of this office by an electronic funds transfer immediately.

They do not allow you any slack. If you're late, they're quick to push a button to say cancel. The insurance has been cancelled. So I make the electronic payments. I make them monthly. That's on the work comp payments. That's done electronically.

Mr. Nittler would see the data on our check register, on our -- he would see the money taken out of our statements. But I make the payments every month.

MR. PIERCE: Mr. Shobaken, that is the end of my Direct Examination. If you could hold on for a minute?

JUDGE CLARK: Ms. Gorman, do you have questions?

MS. GORMAN: I do, Your Honor. Can I do it from here? He was hearing you, I figured because you were amplified.

JUDGE CLARK: Let's ask him.

MS. GORMAN: All right. Mr. Shobaken, my name is Jeannie Gorman. I'm an attorney for the U.S. Department of Labor.

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MS. GORMAN:

Q Can you hear me?

A Yes, I can hear you.

Q Excellent, thank you.

A Loud and clear.

Q Just give me one moment here, sir. Mr. Shobaken, you were talking with Mr. Pierce about the document in Exhibit 27. Can you go back to that document, please?

A Yes.

Q And let me know when you have it in front of you.

A I have it right in front of me.

Q Did you create this document?

A No. No, I didn't.

Q Did you confirm any data that is contained within this document?

A Yes. This is based on my long-term service with the corporation. I get a copy of this document. It's put together by our booking and promotion office.

These are based on the solid contracts that we have. And they have the contracts for each individual location.

So this one is formulated not out of this office, but it's based on the contracts we have in place for these various venues.

Q Did you take any data that is contained in the document at Exhibit 27 and confirm its accuracy, or confirm it against any other document that you know -- that you know about?

A I can confirm all the -- the accuracy of everything that involves the sales tax to the 58 counties in California. Each and every quarter, I have to track and pay to the State of California for each and every venue that we have. So I know each and every one of these locations intimately.

Q So by looking at this document, you can confirm that it is true and correct. Is that what you're saying?

A It is true and correct as far as doing a 98 percent scenario. Once in a while, there might be a smaller site that may or may not go on with their festival or festivity or church activity or school fund raiser. But this document is at least 98 percent accurate.

Q The document at Exhibit 28, can you turn to that, please?

A Yes, I have it right here.

Q Did you create that document?

A No, I didn't.

Q Did you confirm any of the data on this document?

A I looked at it, and I'm in agreement that these are the locations that we played in 2013.

Q How do you know that?

A How do I know that? Well, I get the sales and the deposits from the Indio, California date. That is -- we track that. I talk to the people in Indio. That's a fair contract that we've had for years and years and years.

And the revenue that comes in, I track from Indio. So that's as close of a confirmation that I can say. It's a solid contractual document.

If we didn't play there, there would be lawsuits. There would be additional penalties if we didn't play Indio.

Q All right.

A The Elderage in Arizona, they have each and every county and city there jealously needs their sales tax scenario. So we did sales tax spreadsheets personally on each and every one of these locations for Arizona. If you don't file these quarterlies, they will come get you with penalties and interest that you can't possibly match how they compute and get larger.

So I can confirm that each and every one of these addresses here, we reported to the State Board of Equalization in terms of sales tax.

Q And what about with the dates associated with each of the locations?

A Could you repeat that?

Q Yeah. What about the dates, can you -- I mean as you look at the document at Exhibit 28, can you confirm the accuracy of the dates associated with each of the locations? I mean do you know them off the top of your head, is what I'm getting at?

A I don't know them off the top of my head, but they fit right into the program. We left Phoenix and headed to Lompoc, which is a smaller venue. And then, they go on to Santa Barbara. And that's been an ongoing fair for some time.

As to whether it corresponds exactly, this is the time of the year. Looking at Santa Barbara, the dates there are fairly close.

Like I say, on one document, it might say the 24th through the 28th. And on the other one, we've got the 22nd through the 28th of April. But it's in the correct week scenario.

Q But you didn't independently confirm these dates for the creation of the document in Exhibit 28. Correct?

A I didn't create this document. But I look at each and every one of the items on the document, and it fits into the general time frame of when we would have been there. I haven't personally gone back and checked the exact dates for the starting dates. But these are the normal starting scenarios. This, the date here for Indio might be slightly off, if you look at it. But the Indio fair took place in February.

Q Okay. And I think you answered my question. Thank you, sir. I want to go back to Exhibit 27 that we were just talking about. Are you there?

A Go ahead.

Q Okay. It looks like this document contains information for four different units, Nick's Unit, Butch's Unit, Lance's Unit and Washington. Is that correct?

A That is how the spreadsheet is laid out here, yes.

Q Okay. And then, there's this one column kind of in the middle-ish, towards the right that does not have a unit name on it.

A Right.

Q It starts with 28/3, Goodyear, 8/10, Chandler. Do you see that column?

A Yes, I do.

Q What is that? What does that correspond to?

A That would -- can you hear me?

Q I can.

A That would correspond to events in Arizona. We would have the huge fair constituent group that left Indio to work in Arizona. We have plenty of equipment. So that would've been two dates going on at the same time, two venues.

Q Would those employees be associated with a particular unit?

A They would. Like I said, they were part of the -- should've been part of the Butch Butler Unit.

Q And who -- I think you mentioned that Mr. Butler passed in 2011. Who took over his unit, if he has passed?

A Well, one of the main contact operators, operations operators would be his daughter and his son.

Q And his daughter's name is?

A Kelly Butler.

Q And so she would have been the operator, the operational head, I guess, for Butch's Unit?

A Operations manager, right, in addition, probably co-sharing the duties with her brother, Sean Butler.

Q And would the operations manager be on site with the employees?

A Yes, that would normally be the case.

Q Do you know if it was the case in 2013?

A In 2013, unless there were some personal situations, the Butler would've, a daughter or a son would have been on site for actual operation management control.

Q Okay. And I wanted to call your attention to Exhibit 37 that you were discussing with Mr. Pierce.

A Yes, I have it in front of me.

Q Okay. And pardon me, give me one moment, please, sir. Okay, thank you for your patience. On this first page, looking at -- this is a list of, I think the employees that the Department of Labor has determined are due back wages in this case.

And I want to focus on number nine. It's kind of handwritten number nine, Felipe Villegas Quijano. Do you see him?

A Yes, I do.

Q Okay. And as I read this document, this document says that Mr. Quijano was paid $365.00 a week for the seven weeks -- for the seven weeks from -- for the first quarter of 2013. Did I get that right?

A In terms of the document here, that's what I see on the document, yes.

Q Okay. Do you have a copy of the -- and I think Mr. Pierce referenced Exhibit 26, which is about four inches of paper?

A I have a huge document here in front of me.

Q Okay. I think that's probably Exhibit 26. If I can draw your attention, please, to Exhibit 26 at page 56?

A Could you give me a second? I'm trying to determine on the pages whether they're --

A Okay, I'm looking at the numbers. Okay, I have page 56 in front of me.

Q Okay. And 56 looks to be three smaller slips of paper, all photocopied on the same page. Right?

A Yes.

Q And the last one on that page says Felipe Villegas?

A Yes.

Q Okay. And that document shows that for a week in the beginning of February, Mr. Villegas, who worked for all days during that week, was paid $320.00. Right?

A That's what the document says here.

Q How does that 320 -- is that 320 factored into the 365 that we see on Exhibit 37?

A This appears to be -- I don't know. Having not looked to see when Mr. Villegas entered the country, entered the work scenario, that's about the time Indio started. So it might be close to. I haven't had a chance to check Exhibit 24. It might be pretty close to the time he arrived stateside.

Q Okay. So, but if we look at Exhibit 26 at page 56, it shows that Mr. Villegas worked for all days within that work week. Right?

A What I'm looking at, based on this sheet here, I see seven days. So it would appear that he's got a seven-day scenario based on this paycheck stub, based on what you've had me refer to here on page 56.

Q Okay. So the document in Exhibit 37 shows that he was paid 365 a week. But then, the document at Exhibit 26 at page 56 looks like that he was only paid 320. You would agree with that. Right?

A Well, we're looking at a net, as opposed to a gross. So general principle, I would say the net here was 320. The other is based on gross.

Q So you're saying weekly wage. So the handwritten information on Exhibit 37 says weekly wage. And you're saying that that is not the same weekly wage that we see on Exhibit 26?

A What I'm saying is based on what we're seeing here, this is what he received net wise.

Q Okay. So still on Exhibit 26, I'm going to call your attention to page 160.

A Yes, I have it right here.

Q In the middle of that document, do you see what purports to be a time stub for Mr. Villegas?

A Yes.

Q Okay. And that one shows a payment of $395.00. Right?

A Right.

Q How does that factor into the 365 that we see on Exhibit 37?

A I don't know the details on that one. That is, like I say, apparently -- I haven't tracked the next one. But looking at this one, we've got apparently more of a full week here.

This would be probably, looking at the dates, this would probably be his first or second week of arrival at the on-site location. So I would say there's probably some adjustments for his arrival.

Q You are speculating on that answer, right? You don't know the answer?

A Right. I don't know. I was not on site to tell what took place as far as operations.

Q And you would agree that the time period at page 160 is after the time period that we were looking at page 56. Right? I mean the time period at page 160 is the middle of March. And the previous document at page 56 was the beginning of February. Right?

A I'm looking at what you directed me to on 56.

We've got dates of February 4th through February 10th. And you've directed me to page 160 where we're talking February 11th through February 17th. So I would say it's the following week.

A Fair enough. You're right. My eyes are terrible. I can't make a two from a three. But you would agree then, that the document -- well, you just testified that the document at page 56 shows, reflects that Mr. Villegas worked for all seven days on that document. Right?

A Based on looking at this document, yes.

Q Okay. And you would also agree that the document at page 160 shows that Mr. Villegas worked for all seven days during that pay period?

A Based on what I'm looking at, I would say yes, based on the document I'm looking at.

Q You also testified, Mr. Shobaken, that the Employer is not required to pay all taxes for an employee. And I think you went through with Mr. Pierce on Exhibit 37, page 13, oh, actually, it wasn't that one. If we take a look at page three of Exhibit 37?

A I'm back on Exhibit 37.

Q At page three?

A Okay, go ahead.

Q If I understood your testimony, it was that this is a copy of a W-2 wage statement. And if I understood your testimony, it was that the dollar amounts contained in boxes two, four and six on the right hand side were not required to be paid by the Employer?

A We did pay those by the Employer.

Q Right, but that the Employer was not required to pay those? Perhaps I misunderstood your testimony.

A No, we did pay those. In addition, the corporation manages that on the 941 forms.

Q I understand that you did pay them. If I understood your testimony, it was that the Employer was not required to pay them.

A I'm -- if you could repeat that again, I'm confused as to your question.

Q Was the Employer required to pay the dollar amounts in boxes two, four and six from Exhibit 37, page three?

A Normally, this would be paid by the employee.

Q But here, the Employer paid these amounts. Right? It equals about 1,800 -- about $1,800.00 or so?

A That would be -- again, that would be my assumption. I wasn't there at the actual site. I'm looking at what -- I work off the documents that I receive.

But two, four and six would be what normally the employee would pay.

Q You said the employee. Correct?

A Yes.

Q Okay. And here, did the Employer pay these amounts in boxes two, four and six?

A I don't know on this individual case. I'm looking at documents that would indicate that we -- it's difficult, without having been actually on site making the payroll payments.

MS. GORMAN: Thank you, sir. I have nothing further.

JUDGE CLARK: Anything further, Mr. Pierce?

MR. PIERCE: Yes.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR. PIERCE:

Q Mr. Shobaken, what you were just trying to indicate to Ms. Gorman was because you're not physically present at the time the cash payment occurs, you don't know whether or not taxes were withheld at that time at the location level. Is that your testimony?

MS. GORMAN: Objection to leading and testifying.

JUDGE CLARK: Sustained. Rephrase your question.

BY MR. PIERCE:

Q Are you physically present on pay day when the folks are being paid at these various units?

A No.

Q Do you have any way of knowing what taxes are withheld for the individuals each time they get paid in cash?

A No.

Q If you go through the pay slips that are gathered in Exhibit 26, is there any indication there that the employees were paying taxes for the wages that they were receiving?

A No.

Q If the employees were paying it, and the W-2's are reflecting that taxes were paid, who was paying the taxes?

MS. GORMAN: Objection. Calls for speculation.

JUDGE CLARK: Overruled. If you know?

BY MR. PIERCE:

Q You can answer, Tom. Did you hear me?

A Yes. Well, we pay the taxes out of this office to the federal government.

Q And that's the taxes reflected on the W-2 that you're talking about?

A Correct.

Q Now in the case of Felipe Villegas Quijano, that's page one of Exhibit 37, you have inserted a line there that he was being paid $365.00 for a seven-week period. Do you see that?

A Yes, I do.

Q And how did you derive that particular figure for the seven-week period?

A That figure was derived based on the gross amount that I was supplied a document with, that they were paying Mr. Quijano upon arrival. And that would've covered the first quarter of 2013.

Q All right. So if you look at page 15 of Exhibit 37, towards the bottom, you see the entry for Felipe Villigas, who we've been talking about.

Were you attempting to use that information in some way to calculate the $365.00 figure?

A Was I attempting to use this information?

Q Right. Yes.

A No. This is a summation, a compilation of the weeks involved in his work in the first quarter based on the gross pay that we were informed he was being paid.

Q I think we're saying the same thing. You got the quarterly figures from page 15 of Exhibit 37, did you not?

A Yes.

Q And I did not send to you, Mr. Shobaken, Exhibit 45.

A Okay.

MR. PIERCE: But I think it would be useful to point out that whether taking the time to do it with the payroll that he has, if you go to the bottom line of Exhibit 45, the Bates numbers are there.

That shows the actual the actual payment for Mr. Villigas. And if you were to follow through each one of those for that first week, which was low, I believe that you would find that in all those other ones, they're $395.00.

I just don't think it would be a good use of time to go and look at each one of those pages. I'm just pointing out that that information is there.

JUDGE CLARK: Okay.

MS. GORMAN: And I think that is argument for a post-hearing brief, and not for a trial.

JUDGE CLARK: I appreciate you pointing it out, but that is something you have to argue. It's not really evidence at this point. I appreciate the guidance, but you can put that in your brief.

MR. PIERCE: I will. But it goes beyond an argument. I'm just summarizing the evidence in Exhibit 46 and telling you for your convenience there is an answer to this.

JUDGE CLARK: Okay. Appreciate that.

MR. PIERCE: That's all, Your Honor.

JUDGE CLARK: Ms. Gorman, anything further?

MS. GORMAN: No.

JUDGE CLARK: Mr. Shobaken, you're done. Thank you so much for your time this morning. You're free to go.

THE WITNESS: Okay. I'm heading back to my McDonald's coffee. Thank you.

JUDGE CLARK: Thank you. Have a good day.

(Witness excused.)

MR. PIERCE: Should we all be so lucky.

JUDGE CLARK: Okay. Any further witnesses on behalf of -- you do have Mr. Brajevich. Let's take a quick break. Let's take about a five or six-minute break. We will come back at 10:00 and start with Mr. Brajevich. Off the record.

(Off the record.)

JUDGE CLARK: We are back on the record. All parties are present. Ms. Aguilar is not here, but Ms. Gorman is going to proceed in her absence for the moment.

MS. GORMAN: Thank you.

JUDGE CLARK: Mr. Pierce, do you have another witness?

MR. PIERCE: Yes, Your Honor. We would call Mr. Michael Brajevich.

JUDGE CLARK: Mr. Brajevich, before you sit, raise your right hand.

Whereupon,

MICHAEL BRAJEVICH

having been first duly sworn by the Administrative Law Judge, was examined and testified as follows:

JUDGE CLARK: Have a seat, please. And if you would state your name, and spell it for our record, please?

THE WITNESS: Michael Brajevich, B-r-a-j-e-v-i-c-h.

JUDGE CLARK: Thank you. Mr. Brajevich, you were here when I gave the admonitions to the other witnesses. Correct?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

JUDGE CLARK: Do you have those in mind?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

JUDGE CLARK: Okay. We can go ahead and get started, Mr. Pierce.

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR. PIERCE:

Q Mr. Brajevich, what is your position with Butler Amusements Company?

A Currently I'm the president of Butler Amusements.

Q And you are also the individual that has been named individually in this particular enforcement action. Correct?

A Yes.

Q Let's talk a little bit about your background. Could you summarize your educational background?

A I graduated from high school in 1976. I went to Palamar College for one year. And then a couple years later, I went to Miramar College, where I graduated from the San Diego Fire Academy. And I've been in the carnival business since then.

Q When did you first start working in the carnival business?

A In the summer of 1976.

Q And when did it become a full-time occupation?

A I would say 1983.

Q And just sort of walk through. You stayed in the California area most of your life?

A Yes. I moved to California with my family when I was two years old, and my residence has always been in California.

Q And the shows that you were working?

A Yeah. When I started working in the carnival business, I predominantly only worked in the California shows. I've worked for a number of them.

I was hired in 1990 to come be a manager for Butler Amusements.

Q And as you have evolved since 1990, have positions have you had with the Butler organization?

A Well, I was hired as an assistant manager, and I was an assistant manager until about 1998. In '98, Bud Butler, one of the owners of the company died, and I took over his position running that particular unit, which is now referred to as the Nick's Unit.

And I've been doing that since, continuously. I still operate those two units.

Q All right. And there came a point when you eventually married the boss' daughter?

A Well, yeah. We started dating in 1995, and we got married in 1998.

JUDGE CLARK: I'm sorry, you said you're overseeing two units. Did I understand you say that?

THE WITNESS: Well, Nick's Unit. And if you look on the, we call them the route sheet, I have two units. In order to play big events, you have to have X amount of people and equipment.

But when you don't have a big spot to go to, everybody still has to get paid. So we break into smaller units and play smaller events.

But I'm still -- it's my equipment that I'm over, and those are the people that I -- are physically under my control.

JUDGE CLARK: Okay. So the Nick's Unit, and there's second on that one document. I think it said Washington, maybe. Is that --

THE WITNESS: No, the Washington is all the way off to the other side. And actually, that -- yes.

JUDGE CLARK: Okay, got it. I think I understand.

BY MR. PIERCE:

Q Well, talk a little bit more about Exhibit 26 -- excuse me, 27.

A Okay.

Q The Nick's Unit you're referring to covers the first two coves?

A Correct.

Q And what was their relationship or affiliation? Were they like a sister sub unit.

A Well, this is all -- all this equipment is owned -- most of the equipment is owned by Butler Amusements. What we have is like Nick's Unit, Butch's Unit, and then Lance's Unit, then the Washington Unit that's on here.

So my unit is totally independent of all the other units. Butch's Unit and Lance's Unit, if you look on the schedule, they do combine at different times to play bigger events.

But like I said, when you don't have big -- there's only so many big events.

So we break into smaller -- smaller units to play smaller events so that everybody continues to work. But like we never cross paths. As you see, I'm always in another location.

And then if you go over to the Washington unit, just for clarity, once it gets to -- after Gate Harbor, that's when I go north to Washington County, and that equipment actually comes in, and I actually use some of that equipment, and the employees while I'm in the State of Washington.

Q Okay. So you started as assistant manager. How did you progress within the company?

A I was an assistant manager on -- on like two different like branch off units. And then, like I said, in 1998, Bud Butler passed away, and I became the unit manager for the unit that he oversaw.

Q All right. And eventually -- well, what was the time line for you becoming CEO?

A I stayed in that position right there from 1998, and I became a vice president in about 2008. But we had -- there's multiple vice presidents. It all has to do with tax law and different types of things, workmen's comp.

But Butch Butler passed away in December of 2011, and I became the president of the company upon his death. It was a continuum in that position.

Q Okay. And was Butch Butler, is he more-or-less the Butler in Butler Amusements?

A Absolutely.

Q So what was your involvement with the H-2B program before becoming CEO?

A Limited. I did use some H-2B's. But I -- I was not involved with any recruiting. I did not -- I wasn't involved in any of the procedures of how we obtained them.

All I know is that, you know, at the time, it would be, "How many guys do you think you might need," and I think when I first started, I had like 12. So I had 12, and we tried to incorporate them into our business. And over time, we got more.

Q Had you signed any of the H-2B paperwork before taking over as CEO?

A No.

Q Who is Jim Judkins?

A Jim Judkins is a recruiter. I believe he's out of the State of Texas. But he's a recruiter that helps us obtain the workers.

Q All right. And what is his presence in the amusement industry? How much of the market does he have? What does he deal with?

A He's the largest. He's the largest recruiter in the carnival industry in the United States.

Q And what is your understanding as far as his history and background for providing consulting services related to the H-2B program?

MS. GORMAN: Objection, to the extent that it calls for speculation. If this witness relied on that history, that's one thing.

JUDGE CLARK: Overruled. I'll allow you to get some background.

THE WITNESS: Can you restate that?

BY MR. PIERCE:

Q What is Mr. Judkins's background, as you understand it, in the amusement industry?

A Well, I'd say in my opinion, and many others, that Jim Judkins would be the person that would give you the best information. He's the most knowledgeable in the H-2B system.

Q And any idea how long he's been doing it?

A Well, we started in, I think the year 2000, and he had been doing that previous to that. He had been bringing in service workers and I think some carnival workers. I can't speak to how long before that. But he was already established in that business prior to us entering.

Q And is he recognized in the industry?

A Yes, he is.

Q And when I say recognized, recognized for his abilities, his expertise?

A Correct.

Q Did you rely on Mr. Judkins as you took over, shortly after Mr. Butler's passing?

A Yes, I did.

Q Was the paperwork that we are here for today to get started in the 2013 season, was that literally your very first time signing H-2B paperwork?

A First time seeing it, and signing it.

Q And how important was Mr. Judkins's participation in order to get your feet under you as you got into the H-2B program?

A It was crucial, because again, I had no understanding of the workings of the H-2B systems as far as bringing in the workers and acquiring them.

Q Had you dealt with Mr. Judkins before going through the process of submitting the paperwork for the 2013 season?

A I don't believe so.

Q Were you aware of the company having any issues, you know, from either Butch Butler or anybody else, having any issues with Mr. Judkins's reliability before you started dealing with him?

A I'm not aware of any.

Q So the Exhibit 7 is the 9142 that started the ball rolling from the 2013 season. And you actually signed off on this. Correct?

A Hold on one sec?

Q The very last page.

A Yes.

Q Now who actually filled out the paperwork itself?

A I don't know, but it wasn't me.

Q Do you have any reason to believe that it was anyone, other than someone with Mr. Judkins's office?

A I have no reason to believe that.

Q That --

A I believe that Jim Judkins's office generated this document.

Q All right. And there's some attachments. There's a Statement of Temporary Need at page 19. There's an addendum on page 12. And there's a little bit of language at the bottom of the itinerary on page 17. Do you similarly believe that it was Mr. Judkins's office that actually came up with the wording?

A Yes.

Q And then, the itinerary that is reflected on page 15, you would have supplied that. Correct?

A Fifteen?

Q Right.

A The itinerary, we would have generated.

Q So after Mr. Judkins's office had prepared the guts of the 9142 submission, did it come back to you?

A You mean after I signed it?

A Before you signed it, did it come back to you? In order for you to sign it, you were presented with the full paperwork?

A Correct.

Q And what did you do with that?

A I'm sure that I e-mailed a copy back. Then I mailed the hard copy back to their office.

Q Did you attempt to review it?

A I did review it.

Q All right.

MS. GORMAN: Your Honor, I'm sorry, did the witness say did or didn't?

THE WITNESS: Did.

BY MR. PIERCE:

Q Did you have any discussions that you recall with Mr. Judkins related to the build up or actual preparation or submission of the 2013 paperwork?

A Not that I can think of.

Q Okay. Let me ask it a little bit differently. Who was primarily interacting with Mr. Judkins's office in order to get the raw material to him that he would use to then generate the final product?

A Well, I would've been involved with that. But again, like the itinerary, when it came out of our booking and promotion office, you know, they're the ones that actually have the contracts. That's where they're kept. So they would have that.

But when they were asking how many do we need and the different things, I would be the one supplying that information.

Q All right. And how long had you been with Mr. Judkins? I don't think you said.

A Myself?

Q No, the company.

A I believe it was the year 2000.

Q And has it been your experience that from year to year, a significant part of the guts of the 9142 get repeated?

A Yes.

Q And when you reviewed it, do you remember whether or not it provoked any questions?

A I don't remember anything that came to mind that I was concerned of.

Q Did anything seem to be out of the ordinary or untoward or suspicious?

A No.

Q Do you remember having any discussions at all with Mr. Judkins about -- along those lines? Is this --

A No.

Q -- the usual way it's done, or anything like that?

A Well, I'm sure I asked him, you know, how the procedure worked. You know, I'm sure that he told me that he takes care of all the paperwork, and that he'll send me the information, that he knows the processes, and how -- how to go about bringing them in.

And basically, I would give him, you know, how many we would need, and then our itinerary. Then he would generate the rest of the paperwork.

Q Okay. Are you aware of whether there were any indications by Mr. Judkins about the ability of people to provide, for example, driving services or some of the things that were at issue here today?

A Yeah, I -- I -- I think that back when we were doing this, that we could use these attendants in a way that made our company the most efficient.

Q Okay. And what I mean is I'm not limiting it to just to the 2013 season.

A Always. We -- we -- we, at that time, we were -- we were doing what we were allowed to do. There was nothing that said we couldn't do these things.

There wasn't any -- there wasn't any reason why we didn't think that we could do that.

Q Okay. And did you have an understanding as to whether or not Mr. Judkins, over the years -- it would've been 13 years from 2000 to 2013 -- that he had ever commented on the ability of these individuals to provide other related services?

A We were under the impression that we could use these workings in the carnival business. And the way we run our business, these guys, we were bringing these in and paying them to help us. And we were using them to be as efficient as we could.

Q Okay. Let's pull that part.

A Okay.

Q You know the carnival business.

A Yes.

Q Correct? You have served on the OBA business association?

A Eleven years I spent on that.

Q On the board of directors?

A Yes.

Q You know a lot of your peers?

A Correct.

Q You get around and you see their operations.

A True.

Q You've had discussions with them about how they staff and how they provide services within their companies?

A Yes.

Q Was there anything about how you were staffing and running your operation that was out of the ordinary, or how any other carnival was staffed?

A We were consistent with everybody in the industry.

Q Now in order to get the guys here into this country, you are aware that they must be processed through the Department of State Consulates at the Mexican border?

A Yes.

Q And over the years, as you have dealt with Mr. Judkins, what is your understanding as to how he goes about educating his workers to know -- so that they know what the deal will be when they get here?

A Yeah, it's pretty extensive. He brings them in in groups, and he gets together with that ground, and he explains to them, you know, how -- how the carnival business works, how Butler Amusements works, and then also, you know, some things along the lines about, you know, the laws are different in America and you have to do -- some things that might be okay in Mexico might not be okay in America, and they have to watch themselves.

Q But generally, it's just what is expected from them, and what's expected from us.

And does that include discussions between Mr. Judkins and people who work with him regarding pay or working conditions or things that are more germane to the case?

A Yes.

MS. GORMAN: Objection. Calls for speculation. This witness hasn't testified that he was present for any of these meetings.

JUDGE CLARK: Sustained. Rephrase your question, Mr. Pierce. See if you can lay a foundation for how he knows that.

BY MR. PIERCE:

Q Do you have an understanding as to how it is that, or the subject matters as to which Mr. Judkins or his protegees communicate with the workers?

A Yes. Mr. Judkins has told me himself that he gets them together, and instructs them on what we can -- what is expected from them and what is expected from us as an Employer.

Q Okay. And are you aware of what happens if a recruit shows up at the consulate, gets asked questions, and doesn't know basic answers like, "How are you going to be paid," or other relevant job terms?

A I think at that particular juncture, they will either be denied -- but I actually have had the consulate call me to clarify a question that they may have had.

Q And in addition to the instructions that Mr. Judkins would provide, how many of your workers on average are returnees and therefore, already knew the system because they had worked it?

A Ninety-something percent. Over 90 percent are returning workers.

Q And for those who were returning in the 2013 season, do you have any idea what the typical length of stay might be with your company?

A I do not know a typical length of stay.

Q And if you would, now look at Exhibit 39.

A Okay.

Q Could you explain what it is that Exhibit 39 represents?

A It appears that this is a letter that the employee signed that they understand the rules.

Q Okay. And specifically, in paragraph three, you see a reference about a prevailing wage and that Mr. Judkins or whoever is working with him had played a role in advising of that?

A Yes.

Q Is that your understanding of Mr. Judkins's role?

A Yes.

Q And then in the fourth paragraph, there are some statements there about providing of valuable benefits and a variety of other things. Was that you understanding of how the deal was set up with your workers, as well?

A Yes.

Q And then, the signature page, this was signed off, do you remember, about five or six weeks ago, something like that? The date isn't filled in for each one of these. But you remember I sent you --

A I remember that, yes.

Q So it was this year. And for those individuals who are still with you from the 2013 season, and therefore, would be relevant to this case, you see, for example, the fifth page of Exhibit 39, at the very top is one of the individuals, Saul Estadillo Herrera?

A Okay. That's marked three on mine. Oh, I see five different, all right, yeah, I see.

Q And a couple of lines below that is another individual, Jose Ivan Ortega Roma?

A Yes.

Q He is also involved. And if I flip the page, at the bottom of page six, we see Jaime Hernandz Serrano. He's also involved.

A Yes, I do.

Q As far as you know, have the -- out of the nine individuals, not all of them are still working for the company, are they?

A No.

Q Okay. And once the workers have been instructed by the Jim Judkins operation, processed through the consulate, arrive on site, what is the procedure or protocol for having a meeting or whatever so that they understand what the job terms are going to be?

A Yeah, we -- we -- we bring all the guys together again, and that's when we give them an orientation. We talk to them about again, how things work, what the processes are.

Usually at that time, I also try to test them, just to make sure that they're acquainted with the qualifications.

Q All right. And does the orientation cover things like how they're going to be paid and things like that?

A Absolutely.

Q And you said if they weren't returning, and didn't otherwise know?

A Yes.

Q So in the 2013 season, there are some indications in the payroll records that these individuals started working on February the 2nd. Does that sound about right to you?

A For some, yes.

Q And the summary that has been provided by the Administrator -- I believe it is their Exhibit I -- indicates that all these fellows were working in Yakima or Holtville. Did any of them ever work in Yakima or Holtville?

A Well, I can definitely say none were in Yakima, and I can't say if they were in Holtville or not. I don't -- February 2nd, I believe that that would not make it possible.

JUDGE CLARK: Where is it?

THE WITNESS: Holtville is about 70 miles south of the Palm Springs area, near the Mexico/California border.

JUDGE CLARK: Thank you.

BY MR. PIERCE:

Q Is Holtville a location that would be -- that would appear in the itinerary?

A I would think so.

Q Okay. And all these individuals worked for Butch's Unit?

A Yes.

Q Yesterday, there was a little bit of discussion with Mr. Nittler about there being 395 or something like that on Exhibit 34, 395 workers.

Can you say what's going on with the numbers there in that particular exhibit?

A Can you tell me where to look?

Q Thirty-four.

A Okay. This looks like some type of a spreadsheet here, travel confirmation.

Q Yeah, this is a document from Mr. Nittler.

A Okay. Okay, this looks like it's the, you know, how -- how -- how they were -- how we paid for to send the guys back to Mexico.

Q Okay. There's some pretty big numbers towards the middle related to the CEA travel, where it appears these folks were going to the Los Angeles airport.

Would there have been any reason to send workers at that point in the season to the Los Angeles airport, other than to get H-2B workers back to Mexico?

A No.

Q Given that those big numbers were related to H-2B return travel, any idea how that number, that big number, 395 showed up?

A I do not.

Q But in all events, you expect that the expenses reflected in Exhibit 34 were related to return travel for H-

2B workers?

A Absolutely.

Q Okay. Go, if you would, to Exhibit 7.

A Okay.

Q All right. And specifically on page seven, about a third of the way down --

A Okay.

Q -- do you see the line were it says, "Employer follows prevailing practices for the traveling amusement industry in regards to housing, transportation and weekly salary for workers," do you see that?

A Yes.

Q And if you'll hold your finger there, and flip to page 14?

A Page what?

Q Fourteen.

A Okay.

Q Now about a quarter of the way down, there's a paragraph that says, "As part of prevailing practices of the mobile amusement industry," and then there's three bullet items underneath, elaborating on those same topics, housing, transportation, et cetera. Do you see that, Michael?

A I do.

Q Are you familiar with industry practice within the mobile carnival industry in 2013?

A Yes.

Q Okay. And that is based on your years and background?

A Correct.

Q Was there anything out of the ordinary about you paying a set amount week-by-week relative to how the industry handles it?

A No, no difference.

Q Same question regarding housing, was the fact that you were providing housing consistent with how the industry was by-and-large providing housing?

A The same.

Q And then, the same question for transportation, either in and out of the country, if they're a participant in the H-2B program, or local convenience travel to get to Wal-Mart, was there any difference in how you were handling that, versus your peers?

A The only thing that I would say we might do different is when our guys leave, or we fly them to Mexico City -- we used to bus them, but the busses were being robbed, and our guys said it wasn't safe and they had money and their possessions when they were going home; it's just a fact -- so we -- it's a little more expensive. But we fly them to Mexico so that we know they're going to get home safe.

Q Okay. So then there's similar language you see in the I-129 submission, Exhibit 10, page 16.

A Okay.

Q Now that first paragraph also refers to you filing industry practice for those same three topics. Correct?

A I'm trying to read it real quick. Yes.

Q All right. So under prevailing practice within the industry, and as you were doing it within the Butler operation, was there such a thing as a credit for overpayment from one week to another?

A Yes.

Q How did that work?

A Well, it works because we come out in February -- well, actually not -- you asked me about how it works. How it works is that we -- we -- we take the total amount. If they worked 40 hours a week, we took how much they would make over the course of a year, and we divided it by that many weeks, and that's how much we paid.

Now some weeks, they would work less than 40 hours, but they would get the full pay. Some weeks, they would work more.

That's the nature of the outdoor amusement business, because we are dealing with the weather. We can go days without even opening, but we still pay the guys, because they need to know that they have a reliable amount of money coming in.

And then when the sun is shining, they might end up working 43 hours in a week because that's when the people are there.

But it averages out so that they always get what they're supposed to have coming, just not that day.

Q Okay. Why is a plan like that, where you are effectively -- in the beginning of the season, is it slow or nigh activity?

A Oh, it's much slower activity. And usually, if you look on those schedules, a lot of those events are just, you know, a weekend event, open on Thursday, and a lot of them open on Friday. So we're only open two and a half days.

But we still pay the full week. So there's days that they're not even working at all during that week, but we make up for it over time by having over the course of the year.

Q And the big dates with the big hours come when?

A Usually, you know, in the summer months. It would be like August and September.

Q Okay. So in the beginning of the season, you expect there would be an overpayment because they're not working at 40.

A Correct, yeah.

Q But then, as you get to the big dates with more hours, maybe they go over 40, hence creating a need for a credit because you had already paid them?

A Correct.

Q Now do you get audited by the various state wage and hour officials from time-to-time?

A Yes, we do.

Q How frequently do they show up?

A Well, there's -- they usually have a schedule. Some of them are yearly, and some of them are that they have to do it every three years at the minimum.

Q Okay. How many states do you operate in?

A We operate in six western states.

Q And over the course of being audited by the state officials on all these occasions, have any of them ever suggested that there is a problem with the fact that you are prepaying and taking a credit for that?

A No.

Q During the course of being audited by these numerous states on numerous occasions, have any of them ever suggested that there was a problem with your time-keeping system?

A We did have an issue in the 2000 years, right in the middle of the 2000s. I wasn't there, but I know it was in our company that happened.

We were playing the California State Fair. We'd just picked it up. And because that's where the state capital is, we had some Labor people out there, and they -- well, they didn't like our record keeping/time keeping.

So we changed it at that point. And that's what you see today, is what we were instructed by the State of California, how our time cards should look.

Q Okay. So the slips that we're talking about, the pay slips that show hours and amount of pay, is that something that was done in order to satisfy the officials here in California?

A Yes, it was.

Q And once you implemented that system that is reflected in the payroll records, was the California official satisfied with your time keeping?

A Yes, they were.

Q Have any other officials in any other state, as you've been audited, ever suggested that there was some sort of deficiency with your time keeping?

A No, they haven't.

Q Have they ever suggested that your time keeping was less than reliable?

A No, they haven't.

Q Okay. When you submitted the 9142 that's marked as Exhibit 7, and the I-129, marked as Exhibit 10, reflecting that you followed prevailing practice and got approved for that --

A Yes.

Q -- what did you think that that meant that you could do in order to continue those prevailing practices?

A Well, I thought we could continue the way -- what we were doing, and in an efficient manner, to run our business.

Q Did you see disapproval in the fact that you told them specifically that you filed prevailing practice?

A No.

Q You also have discussions with Mr. Judkins from time-to-time on wage and hour type of topics, do you not?

A Yes.

Q Had Mr. Judkins ever suggested that there was a problem with prepaying the guys in advance of when they would be owed that money?

A No. He told me that it was -- that everybody was doing it, and that it was fine.

Q But in all events, it wasn't a flat salary, was it? You were not going to pay them, irregardless. Was there an attempt to reconcile at the end of the season? Do you know what I mean by that?

A Yeah. No, yeah, I -- I can't say that I did that myself. But I'm sure we're supposed to. I can't tell you who did it. But yeah, we're supposed to. We're supposed to make sure, because we do get audited by the Department. I have had a different audit, and our paperwork, we've never had it come back to the paperwork was that we underpaid according to the hours that they had worked.

Q Okay. And when these state officials show up for the audits, you would make the same time records that were provided to Ms. Aguilar available to the state officials?

A Yes.

Q Now you've heard the evidence regarding the fact that your company is exempt from the Fair Labor Standards Act?

A Correct.

Q Are you aware of any rules that specifically apply to employers who are exempt from the Fair Labor Standards Act, who want to participate in the H-2B program specified in the 2008 regulations?

A No.

Q As to the credit related to the housing, are you aware of anything that prohibited you from taking a credit for providing of housing in the 2008 regulations?

A No.

Q Was the credit that you were claiming related to the bunk house that you were providing any different from a credit that any other carnival might have employed, assuming that they were exempt from the Fair Labor Standards Act?

A No.

Q Could you describe your bunk houses?

A Sure. They're pulled by semi tractor. They're -- the length varies from 48 to 53 feet long. They average 10 rooms per trailer, individual rooms where the person has their own space.

And then they also have two showers in the back that they can access through the back door, so they self contain the showers for the guys, too.

Q Electrical?

A Oh, it has heating and electrical, and air conditioning and electrical 24 hours. We run generators. If we're in a location where they can't plug in, we run a generating to keep all the living quarters fully powered 24 hours a day.

Q Is there enough room for personal items, like if they want to have a bow and arrow, or jogging shoes, or whatever they want in their personal life, did they have room for that?

A Yeah, they do. I think they -- I think the rooms average about 27 square feet.

Q Okay.

A I guess they're not square feet. I guess it's not. They're eight and a half feet wide. I believe they're about six feet wide, and they're eight and a half feet tall.

Q Okay. And how deep? As wide as a trailer?

A Yeah, eight and a half feet deep.

Q Okay. And why is providing bunk houses to H-2B workers or any other worker who is living a mobile carnival lifestyle a good thing for the worker?

A Well, it gives them a place to go. It gives them a place to, you know, call home. It's where they store their personal belongings, so that they're, you know, safe and out of the weather, and they can go and get out of the weather.

Q Okay.

A And also when they take and have their breaks, you know, that gives them a place to go. They can watch movies, lay down, read a book, whatever, take a nap or whatever they want.

Q Have you observed that that gives them an opportunity to socialize with friends and peers?

A Oh, absolutely.

Q If they were to take a hotel room somewhere nearby, how much of a pain would it be getting back-and-forth from the fairgrounds to wherever the hotel might be on busy fair days?

A Oh, it would be incredibly difficult if you tried to leave the fairgrounds, especially on a busy day, try to get back in.

You know, when they're on break, their breaks run from either one hour to two hours long on average. You would spend a substantial amount of time in traffic.

Q And most of your -- well, a good part of your season is in the hot part of the country, California and Arizona. Right?

A Correct.

Q And how important is being able to get into air conditioning when you're operating in an environment like that?

A It makes all the difference.

Q Does that include -- does the ability to cool off on hot days improve employee morale?

A Absolutely.

Q And conversely, what are the negatives to your company for providing of bunk housing, for example, the obvious one, who is paying for it?

A Well, the cost is the thing that would jump out first, is to acquire the equipment, insure it, maintain it, move it down the road.

Q Are you aware of shows that have lost contracts because -- well, let me ask you before I get to that where do you actually park the bunk houses?

A We -- we park them in the back lot where the fair would give us a designated area to park them.

Q So it's close walking distance between living and working?

A Reasonably close, yeah.

Q Have you -- are you aware that some shows have lost important contracts because they've got guys living on the facility and a fight or something like that breaks out?

A That happens quite a bit. You know, if you don't have bunk houses and then, you just let people put up like tents, they turn into tent cities.

And what happens is when you don't have any way to lock up the room in the area, you get people that are not supposed to be in that area, in that area.

Q Okay. And on the question of who primarily benefits, assuming that role applies here, who primarily benefits, Butler Amusements Company by providing bunk houses, or the workers who get to live in them for free? Obviously benefits is what I meant.

A Oh, absolutely the most benefit is to the employee.

Q Okay. Are you providing any service to them that they would not otherwise have incurred as a normal living expense?

A Could you restate that?

Q You're not overinflating this. You're not giving them a 60-inch panel television or anything like that?

A No.

Q You're giving them basic living expenses that they would incur pretty much anywhere?

A Correct.

Q There was also some testimony as to whether or not the bunk houses comply with health and safety standards. Do you get inspected for providing the bunk houses by any of the various jurisdictions where you operate?

A Yes, we have had bunk house inspections?

Q Have you ever gotten any indication that your bunk houses weren't up to snuff when it comes to health and safety standards?

A No.

Q I think there was also some testimony that maybe the guys don't get to choose voluntarily to live in your bunk houses. Is that true? Do they get to choose?

A Absolutely they get to choose.

Q Do you force them, in order to work for you, to live in your bunk houses?

A No. No.

Q If you had a choice, would it be just okay with you if they chose to go live in a motel or something?

A It would be quite a bit cheaper for our company to have them do that. But the cost of hotels would eat their whole paycheck up.

Q Okay. And I'm not sure I asked this. But were you aware of any regulation that prohibited you from taking credit for providing the bunk houses in the 2013 season?

A No.

Q You heard Mr. Shobaken talking about the income tax issue. Were you aware of any prohibition against the company paying income taxes for their workers?

A Can you restate that?

Q Are you aware of any regulatory provision that prohibited the company from paying the income tax portion that the individual would otherwise be responsible for?

A No.

Q Who primarily benefits when you voluntarily pay the income taxes for your workers?

A The employee.

Q And you are aware, as we've got more than 1,000 pages worth of payroll. Is there any indication that any of these workers were paying income taxes in 2013 by themselves?

A No. They were not.

Q Okay.

A If I can tell you why we did that, is because there was problems out in the industry about the different types of audits and the accounting and people who are getting accused.

So I said, "Well, listen, we will just pay theirs, we will, Butler will pay theirs, and that way, we're going to give them what we said we were going to give them in cash, and then anything else that we pay," which is the taxes,

"that is going to buffer us, and let the case come in," because you know, when you get audited, they come up with different types of things.

So I said, "We're going to do this, so that we know that when we're done being audited, we've paid the money."

Q And when you use the term, buffer, that means -- is that the same thing as saying taking a credit for?

A Taking a credit for it, and also paying the taxes because that's -- we pay that, so that's money that they should've paid, but we paid, which means that if they come in and say, "You're underpaying," or, "You've done something like that, we don't want that to happen," which would be in non compliance. So, "We'll just pay the taxes."

That's worth a couple of, you know, a few hours every week, type. And so that way, when we get audited, we're fine.

Q In and out of country, or relocation travel, are you aware of any regulatory prohibition that prohibited an FSLA-exempt employer in 2013 from taking a credit for in and out of the country travel?

A No.

Q In the instance of relocation travel, who primarily benefits when you volunteer to pay their expense to get into the country to work for you, then pay to get them back home?

A The company pays.

Q No, I understand that. But who primarily benefits from the fact that you're --

A The employee.

Q And why do you say that?

A Well, because if they had to incur that cost out of their own paycheck, then they would have less money.

Q All right. And in the case of local convenience travel, for what purposes would the Butler operation make vans or other means of transportation to take care of personal errands?

A Are you asking why we do it?

Q Yeah.

A Well, we do it because it's -- the guys need to -- they need things to live their lives. You know, they need food. They need, you know, soap and shampoo. They need clothing. They go to the movies sometimes. They just do different things.

So we -- we -- they pretty much have the run of those vans. They have the keys, and they get together, and off they go.

It's a morale-type thing, too, you know. We're trying to make it as easy as we can on them.

Q Are there occasions when they may want to wire money home?

A Absolutely.

Q Get to the laundry mat?

A Absolutely.

Q Who primarily benefits when your company takes on the expense so they can take care of personal business?

A Well, they are the ones that would benefit the most.

Q Are you aware of anything that prohibited you from taking any credit related to local convenience travel in 2013?

A No.

Q And when you make a van available, who is actually doing the driving to get them to a Wal-Mart or wherever?

A It has to be somebody that has a driver's license.

Q But an H-2B, off duty, with a license, is okay with the company?

A Yes.

Q All right. Next topic: In order to staff company operations, could you say a little bit about how the carnival staffs up? How important is efficiency, and just some general management-type considerations for you?

A Well, when we put together, you know, a unit or play in a spot, there are certain jobs that have to be filled. And then, most of all the work in the carnival business is just general work.

So you know, when we -- when we need 25 guys, we just get 25 guys and we put them wherever they are that makes the carnival business the most efficient that we can to operate.

Q As you signed off on your first ever H-2B application for the 2013 season, were you aware of any rules that limited or specified the type of job code that you could request?

A Say that again?

Q Were you aware of any rules, as you signed off for the 2013 application, that limited the type of job code that you could request?

A No.

Q Had you ever even heard of a SOC code before yesterday?

A No.

Q Do you even know what it is today?

A Still don't know what it is.

Q Okay. Did you have any idea when you signed this paperwork how OFC goes about job coding when they receive your application?

A No.

Q Did you have any idea of what the proper test might be for determining of a job code?

A No.

Q Did you have any idea of whether the regulations even specify what the proper test --

A No.

Q -- is for determining a job code?

A I did not.

Q Did you have any idea what limitations there might be for guys working outside of a job code?

A No.

Q Until I went through the exercise with Ms. Aguilar yesterday, had you ever read the detailed report related to an amusement and recreation attendant's job duties?

A No.

Q Were you aware of any rules that limited what it is that someone can do, if approved for an amusement and recreation attendant as found in the 2008 regulations?

A Can you restate that?

Q Were you aware of any rules in the 2008 regulations that limited what it is that amusement and recreation attendants could do, or could not do?

A No.

Q Were you aware of any rules in the 2008 regulations that indicated how much details you were to provide in a job code when you submitted an application?

A No.

Q How important was Mr. Judkins in making sure that you were staying within the lines?

A Well, I followed his direction.

Q You heard some testimony yesterday that there was a misrepresentation in the reasons why you needed temporary employment.

And if I directed you to Exhibit 7, page 19, did the company misrepresent any of the factual reasons for temporary need, as reflected on page 19?

A No.

Q Even as you're here now, is it obvious to you how to go about stating a job description for varied responsibilities as you employ individuals for the Butler operation in 2013?

A No.

Q Now you previously indicated that Butch's Unit and Lance's Unit were independent. And during the operating season, do you like go over and check them out or visit them or physically eyeball them?

A No.

Q Do you really know what they're doing with how they staff, particularly Butch's Unit in 2013?

A No.

Q All right. Now if you will flip to Exhibit 77?

A Okay.

Q Have you ever seen the USCIS regulations regulating the H-2B program as they existed for the 2013 season?

A No.

Q There actually is a regulation here that specifies how you are to work these guys. If you will flip to page four, that the very top of the first column ends with this wording: "You shall offer terms and conditions of employment, which are consistent with the nature of the occupation, activity and industry." Do you see that?

A Yes.

MS. GORMAN: Where are you? I don't see it.

MR. PIERCE: Top of the first column on page four.

BY MR. PIERCE:

Q Did Butler Amusements Company's job terms and conditions, were they consistent with the amusement industry in the 2013 season?

A Yes.

Q Do you have any doubt in your mind about that?

A Absolutely none.

Q And Exhibit 86, if you'll flip to that, have you ever seen the 2009 OFLC prevailing wage guidance document that is gathered in Exhibit 86?

A No.

Q Is that the sort of thing that you would count on Mr. Judkins to be familiar with?

A Yes.

Q And in that document, it indicates that they would like to receive enough detail to generate a relevant job code. Did your application provide enough detail for them to generate a relevant job code as far as you know?

A I believe it did, yeah.

Q You didn't get a -- do you remember getting a request for evidence in which they said, "You didn't give us enough information. We can't even generate a relevant job code," did you?

A No.

Q It also indicates that you were to give a job title that you believed most clearly describes the work to be done. Is the job title that you gave for amusement and recreation attendant, in your mind, does that clearly describe the work to be done?

A Yes.

Q You heard Ms. Aguilar talk yesterday about the predominant -- their primary duty role. Have you ever heard of the primary duty role?

A No.

Q She talked, I believe, about the predominant time test and where guys spend their time. Have you ever even heard of the predominant time test?

A No.

Q She talked about the most closely aligned test. Have you ever heard of that?

A No.

Q Are you aware of whether any of those purported tests even exist in the 2008 regulations?

A I don't think they were.

Q If the regulations don't tell you the tasks to apply or the rules to follow, what are you supposed to do as an employer?

A Well, we did the best that we could with the information that we had.

Q As you are sitting here today, having heard the Administrator's case, is there anything that you're aware of that would lead you to believe that the job title SOC code failed, that it was wrong, that it failed to comply with some rule?

A No.

Q But those are the sorts of judgments that you would hope and expect that your professional consultant, Mr. Judkins would be able to address?

A Correct.

Q As you have talked with other employers, your peers, do you from time-to-time find out about so-and-so got audited, or you know, that this is what they were told by the Wage and Hour Division? Does that come up from time-to-time?

A Yes, it has.

Q Is that the kind of thing that comes up in talking with Mr. Judkins?

A At times, yes.

Q In the course of those discussions, have you ever heard that somebody was audited, and there was an issue related to driving, or something else that's germane to this case, where the Administrator didn't pursue that action?

A I don't know.

Q So these kind of things come up, but you just don't remember as being a subject matter?

A That's correct.

MS. GORMAN: Objection. That was testifying. I think the witness -- I think the question should be struck, and the witness' answer should stand.

JUDGE CLARK: Sustained. I'll strike that answer and question. You can rephrase it.

MR. PIERCE: I don't remember what it was. I was just trying to speed this up.

JUDGE CLARK: Okay. Appreciate that.

BY MR. PIERCE:

Q Mr. Brajevich, do you know the Wage and Hour regulations better than Ms. Aguilar?

A We don't.

Q You have worked for H-2B workers for a long time?

A Yes.

Q And interacted with them, and have a pretty good understanding of what their expectations are, and their understandings, do you not?

A Yes.

Q And your company uses an appreciable number of breaks?

A Absolutely.

Q Why do you do that?

A Well, we do it for a number of reasons. If you look at our route schedule, we're a rather large company playing a lot of events.

And sometimes, we have to break up. And in order to move the equipment and get it set back up, and then play the spot, and then tear it back down, it takes a lot of people.

And so, we have more employees than it actually takes to run the ride.

But in order to set up and tear down efficiently and move it, and get back up to do business at the next location, we handle so many that we actually have more employees than what the average carnival would actually have.

But because we have been at this a long time, we play -- we have big events. And we generate the money that we hire extra employees, so that we can make these moves, you know, efficiently and honor our contracts, and go -- go about our business.

Q All right. And you don't take on more workers than you need because you want to drive yourself out of business, do you?

A No. Absolutely not.

Q And as you talked with the guys over the years, have you ever found that some of them will say, "Oh, I worked 12 hours yesterday," when in fact, they were working six hours, and had six hours of breaks?

A Yeah. That's pretty common in the fair industry, just not in the carnival side, even in the other parts of the fair. When the fair opens at noon, and let's say it goes from noon to 11 that night, well, the fair is open for 11 hours. So people reference that, that they were working 11 hours. They don't work 11 hours.

Our guys work every other hour. At the minimum, they would only work, you know, a maximum of half of the day, because we run an hour on/an hour off.

And what they do is sometimes they might say, "Hey, I want to take two hours because I'm going to watch a movie, but then I'll come back and you do the next two hours," and then they'll switch off somewhat on that.

But our guys work an hour on/an hour off. So that's why it appears that there's all these breaks.

Q When Ms. Aguilar gathers a witness statement indicating the slow part of the season, the start of the 2013 season, that somebody was pulling 60 or 70 hours on Butch's Unit, how likely is that?

A Not likely, just no way.

Q Okay. And whose unit was operating in Santa Barbara at the time Wage and Hour showed up for the on site interviews?

A Butch's Unit.

Q Do you have any reason to believe that any of these nine individuals worked anywhere, other than with Butch's Unit?

A No.

MS. GORMAN: Your Honor, I'm going to object, like three questions ago. I apologize.

JUDGE CLARK: Go ahead.

MS. GORMAN: Thank you.

JUDGE CLARK: Three questions ago is sort of a late objection.

MS. GORMAN: I understand. But it was that it called for speculation when counsel asked a question that if Ms. Aguilar calculated 70 hours, and then the rest of the question. That was a hypothetical. That didn't happen here.

Only 40 hours a work week were calculated for the employees at issue here.

JUDGE CLARK: The objection is overruled.

MS. GORMAN: Thank you.

MR. PIERCE: Yeah, I don't think I said that. Okay.

BY MR. PIERCE:

Q You have talked about the acceptability of your time sheets in the eyes of the various state authorities that you work with. Do you have any reason to question the reliability of your time-keeping method?

A I do not.

Q Do your time sheets reflect actual hours worked?

A Yes.

Q Do you have any hesitancy in holding out to state authorities at this site, or anybody else as being actual hours?

A No, no problem.

Q If you would flip to Exhibit 28, does this chart reflect the work site where the individuals working for Butch's Unit would have worked in early 2013?

A Yes.

Q You heard Ms. Aguilar saying that she regarded that everyone worked 40 hours every week, win, lose or draw. Did your company ever guarantee that someone would always work exactly 40 hours every week throughout the entire season?

A No.

Q When you submitted your 9142, was there any particular skill level or advanced whatever needs that you indicated that you were recruiting for in order to get folks to work for you in the capacity of amusement and recreation attendant?

A No.

Q All right. Flip, if you would, to Exhibit 76. Are you there?

A Yes.

Q And specifically, page 46.

A Okay.

Q In the third column, about in the middle, there are seven factors, and I'm going to ask you about them

A Okay.

Q Has Butler had any previous history of violations under the immigration statute?

A No.

Q Question number two: How many U.S. and H-2B workers were employed by Butler in early 2013? Can you give us a ball park?

A Early, that time of the year, probably roughly 350.

Q Okay. And out of that number -- well, that's interesting. I'm not getting some cooperation here, Your Honor.

JUDGE CLARK: What are you trying to do?

MR. PIERCE: I was going to do a quick math.

JUDGE CLARK: Oh, I see.

MR. PIERCE: And my calculator is not cooperating. I wonder why. It just worked this morning. Well, I'm going to move on. I apologize. That's strange.

BY MR. PIERCE:

Q So anyway, nine divided by 350 is going to be well less than one percent. Can we agree?

A Less than on percent?

Q Yes.

A I think it would be closer to two, two point something.

Q I lost my calculator, or I would've told you exactly. Okay. Number three in the list of regulations, the gravity of the violation or violations, I'm not sure that you really have a relevant opinion on that.

So let's go to number four, efforts made by you in good faith to comply with the immigration requirements, in addition to keeping up with your peers, consulting with your consultant, Mr. Judkins, are there some industry publications that come out from time-to-time related to H-2B compliance?

A Yes.

Q And you read those?

A Yes.

Q And when you were on the board of directors, you got various communications through the trade association on compliance related type topics?

A Yes.

Q Are there any other things you can think of that you attempt to do to keep on top of all these compliance related issues for the H-2B program?

A Well, I can't think of anything off the top. I do want to supplement what you said. But that's pretty extensive right there.

Q Okay. And how important is it to the company to comply, and be able to participate in the program?

A It's crucial. It's crucial to our company that we comply so that we can continue to get the workers.

Q And without compliance, what would that do to the company's survivability?

A It -- it -- it's crucial that we have employees. And the H-2B system is managed so that we can have a, you know, committed work force that comes in and works the whole season.

When you try to hire people and train them, and they quit after two days or three weeks, you know, and you're always rotating people in and out, there's so much safety factors involved here on the training part, and then also, the cost of trying to train people all the time, it's crucial that we're in the program.

Q Okay. Item number five, explanation regarding the violations, are you aware even today that there has been a violation?

A No.

Q Item number six, your commitment to future compliance, is there any reason to question that you are committed to complying going forward?

A We are committed 100 percent to comply.

Q All right. The last item, extent to which you achieved a financial gain due to a violation, so I'm not sure that there is a violation to predicate this on.

But let me ask this: You had -- you've heard many of the diverse work activities and job duties that amusement attendants can take on.

And you had such a good-size operation that those duties that any of those attendants could have done, do they give you -- how did you use efficiency in how you structured your operation in order to be able to meet the job duties that fall within that description for an amusement attendant?

A Well, what I think your question is, what we do is we just take the best person that can do every particular job. We have, let's say there's 40 guys out there working. And we put the people in the best places that we can, so that we can efficiently operate.

Q But your staffing level is so much higher, your operations are so much higher than -- there's a one-man Subway shop on the corner from here.

A Right.

Q How much specialization can you have in order to be able to structure your operation, say, within the job code, and still be efficient?

A Well, there -- there -- there's -- again, we take the people's talents. We don't have one guy doing everything.

Like, let's just say -- let's just say that we're doing, you know, inspections on the rides prior to opening. Well, when we get those back, we're going to have, you know, there can be a multiple;e of issues that we're trying to deal with right then.

Well, instead of having, you know, five different guys or 10 different guys trying to run to the shop and do that, we send the shop out there, and they take care of all the 10 things right away, instead of trying to have -- otherwise, you know, you couldn't control that. You couldn't -- you couldn't organize that, if everybody was trying to do their own thing. So everything has got a department.

Q Let's use another example. The job description for the amusement and recreation attendant, it states in many different locations that they are authorized to do repairs.

A True.

Q So maybe out of your 200 H-2B employees, maybe they spend five minutes a day per person, if you spread it all out?

A Yeah.

Q Are you aware of anything that prohibited you from concentrating your needs for repair in one or two guys, and not have 200 different people spending five or 10 minutes a day?

A No, I'm not aware of that.

Q Okay. If you would look at Exhibit 47?

A Yes.

Q And let me say that my temperamental calculator is working again.

JUDGE CLARK: Okay.

MR. PIERCE: And Your Honor, it's Exhibit 47.

JUDGE CLARK: Thank you.

MR. PIERCE: Now Mr. Brajevich, let's walk through what we have attempted to gather here for the various evidence that has been presented.

In Exhibit 47, the first column for these nine individuals reflects the number of work weeks.

And Your Honor, just for your benefit, these numbers were prepared several weeks ago on a different version of their wage calculation.

The prior version indicated that three of these people were not working the full 11 weeks, and that's why it reads that. They changed that. I'm not objecting or anything. I'm just telling you there is a reason why my numbers don't match theirs. It's because they changed theirs.

JUDGE CLARK: Okay.

MR. PIERCE: So we're starting with their numbers. So let's go to the gentleman that was added as our test case, as our example, Sergio Guzman, number three. They have indicated that he worked for 11 weeks.

BY MR. PIERCE:

Q Mr. Brajevich, I'm going to ask you to use my calculator here. So we've got 11 weeks for Mr. Guzman. The second column, hours per week is derived, as indicated in the heading, from Exhibit 46, which is another compilation of work hours, as reported through the time slips that we then averaged, to indicate that Mr. Guzman's average hours worked through those 11 weeks was 26.1 hours.

So if you would multiply 11 weeks by an average of 26.1 hours per week?

And then, I'm going to skip the third column for a minute, and go to the fourth column, average pay rate for each of the four metropolitan statistical areas, for his job code, if you were to look at what we have gathered as Exhibit 42, Mr. Guzman is listed as a driver, which is a code of 533032, and there are four of them for each of the metropolitan statistical areas.

You take the average pay rate for those four, it gets you to $19.29 as an average.

If you were to, Mr. Brajevich, multiply 11 weeks by 26.1 by a driver's pay rate of $19.29, what total does that get you to?

A $5,538.16.

Q Okay. Now coming back to the third column for the pay rate, we don't agree that the wage calculation should be based on the mean figure. We believe it was skill level one.

So if you go to that same source on Exhibit 42 for a driver, skill level one, and you take those wages for those four areas, that number is -- I didn't actually do this. But that number is about $13.00 or something like that.

It's going to lower that number by about 40 percent. It just -- Mr. Brajevich, if you were to multiply 11 weeks by 26.1 by 13 bucks an hour, what figure have you got?

A Times how much an hour?

Q Thirteen.

A $3,732.30.

Q Okay. And now, if we take the right hand half of Exhibit 47, their exhibit, and we agree, Mr. Guzman was paid $5,500.00.

The income tax is based on what is found in Exhibit 37, the housing per week, as reflected in our Exhibit 31, the relocation travel as Exhibit 34, the local convenience travel, which we also provided in Exhibit 36, and add those columns -- I'm not going to ask you to do this -- but those numbers come out to $8,433.00.

So this was our attempt to synthesize for Your Honor's benefit all the different credits that you've heard in our view of their case.

JUDGE CLARK: Thank you.

BY MR. PIERCE:

Q Mr. Brajevich, I just have a couple more things to ask you. If you would, flip now to Exhibit 76. And I'm going to direct your attention to page five.

The end of the first paragraph in the left column, you see the statement there about a five-year recreation policy is an unnecessary burden for mobile employers, do you see that?

A Yes.

Q And hold your finger there, and go to page 25.

A Okay.

Q Right in the middle of the left hand column, you see there's a discussion there where the Department agrees that requiring carnivals to keep records for five years is an unnecessary burden.

And they reduced the requirement from five years to three years?

A Yes.

Q Is that the sort of thing that you attempt to comply with and abide by?

A Yes.

Q And you have also indicated that some of these H-2B workers that are issue from the 2013 season are no longer with you?

A Correct.

Q And we heard from Mr. Shobaken about how your paper-heavy operations, keeping all our evidence together is difficult.

So my question first is do you have any other testimony about potential loss of documentary evidence that would be relevant to the case that we haven't otherwise covered from the passage of time?

A Well, from the passage of time, yeah. You know, when we made that move right there, you know, things are going to be misfiled and we can't find them.

We also, you know, when we're trying to talk to people about this, from 2013, some people, not just our employees, some of our management people are gone.

So we can't -- it's hard for us to try to get what happened all together again six years later.

Q And let's talk about loss of witnesses since 2013 and the passage of time. Who is Kurt Vomburg?

Q Kurt Vomburg was the unit manager in the Santa Barbara location where we had an on-site audit.

Q As the unit manager, how important was he to being able to present testimony regarding the operation?

A Well, extremely important.

Q Does Mr. Vomburg still work for the company?

A No. Mr. Vomburg has been gone from the company for at least three years. I think that we're into the fourth year right now.

Q Any idea where he wound up?

A I do not.

Q Who is -- and you are aware that Mr. Vomburg apparently gave an interview that was summarized in the witness statement that Ms. Aguilar cited?

A Yes.

Q Who is Bill Truax?

A Billie Truax was the head ride superintendent on that unit.

Q Where is Mr. Truax these days?

A Well, Mr. Truax has taken a similar-type job on the east coast. He's been gone for a number of years, too.

Q Okay. How important was Mr. Truax to being able to give a description about how things were operating on Butch's Unit?

A Well, he was extremely important. I wasn't there.

Q Okay. Who is a gentleman by the name of Paul Farnham?

A Paul Farnham, he was an assistant manager on that unit. And he's been gone -- this will be his third year that he's been gone.

Q And where is he these days?

A I -- I -- he got into the food business, and he operates in food, and I really don't know where.

Q Okay. The three of them, did they more-or-less represent the driving management for Butch's Unit in 2013?

A Yes.

MR. PIERCE: That's all, Your Honor.

JUDGE CLARK: Thank you, Mr. Pierce. Ms. Gorman, may we take a quick break? Do you need five minutes, or do you need 10 minutes?

MS. GORMAN: I can do 10.

JUDGE CLARK: Let's do a 10-minute break. We will start back at 11:45.

MS. GORMAN: Thank you.

JUDGE CLARK: We are off the record.

(Off the record.)

JUDGE CLARK: We are back on the record. All parties are present. The witness is back on the stand. Cross-Examination, Ms. Gorman. Go ahead.

MS. GORMAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MS. GORMAN:

Q Mr. Brajevich, do you remember the testimony about the size of the bunk houses?

A Yes.

Q I think you testified that there were two showers on the other side of the bunk houses. Do you remember that?

A There's a total of two in the bunk house, correct.

Q And do employees have to go outside in order to access the showers? Or, can you get to them through --

A No, they can not get to them. There is no interior hallway. Each room is separate from every other room. There is no hallway.

Q So you must go outside to use the showers?

A Correct.

Q Are there lavatories in the bunk houses, as well?

A Not in the bunk houses, but there's lavatories.

Q Those are Port-O-Potties that you use?

A Or, if we're at a place that has a permanent restroom facility in the RV area, yes.

Q Oh, like a camping site sort of thing?

A Correct.

Q I see, okay. Do employees have keys to their own bunk house rooms?

A Yes, they do.

Q Okay. If you can let me finish my question?

A I thought that was it. I'm sorry.

Q That's okay. I know sometimes I drag it out, and I apologize. But I think it's much easier

A Okay.

Q -- for the record. And can employees access their own bunk house room at any time throughout the day?

A Yes.

Q And they can lock their bunk house room?

A Yes.

Q And none of the keys are the same. A key for room number one won't open up room number two?

A No.

Q So that is correct?

A That is correct.

Q Other than -- oh. Are employees assigned the same bunk house at the beginning of the season, and they stay within that room? Or, do they change rooms throughout the season?

A They could change rooms. Usually they keep the same room. But like, remember when I was saying if we play a big spot and everybody's together and when we play a smaller spot, we break it into two?

Well, as we divide it into two, somebody might -- they might have to swap a bunk house.

But when they come back together, they go back to their original rooms.

Q But when they swap out, they need to -- they need to clear everything out --

A Right.

Q -- and take it with them?

A Oh, yeah.

Q Okay. And is there any lockable storage in the room, other than the front door to the room?

A Well, there's a dresser in there, but it does not have a lock on it.

Q Is there like any footlocker or storage locker, anything like that where an employee can keep their precious or private belongings?

A You mean besides the dresser?

Q Besides, yes.

A Well, there's not one that's in there. But the way the bunks are, they're like, you know, two and a half feet off the ground. And so there's space. They put like slidable things underneath the bed that pull out for more storage. So that's, you know, under the bed, just more storage space.

Q Does Butler Amusements provide that slidable thing?

A We do not.

Q But you're aware that some employees bring it in and have more storage under the bed?

A Well, as they bring in more stuff. If they -- if they acquire more stuff than what the dresser would hold, then they're going to put it somewhere, so yeah.

I mean, they don't have to. They can throw it under there. But I would guess that they would, you know, organize it a little bit.

Q And I'm sorry, you said the bunks were how far off the ground?

A Well, I was guessing. But they're off the ground like a -- like a normal bed, so two and a half. I just guessed two and a half feet. That's a guess.

Q And these are twin-size beds in the bunk house?

A Yes.

Q Do any rooms accommodate for -- or have any beds larger than a twin-size bed?

A Yes, some of the bunk house because they're on -- some of them are on a fifth-wheel trailer. So the front room is actually a bigger room. It has a queen bed. So every fifth-wheel room would have a queen bed in it.

Q And who determines who gets those?

A I really couldn't tell you.

Q You have three books in front of you. I know you have been here from the beginning, and you know this. But I'm going to refer you to Exhibit 26.

A Okay.

Q Oh, actually, before I do that, pardon me. Go to Respondent's Exhibit 31.

JUDGE CLARK: Thirty-one?

MS. GORMAN: Thirty-one, exactly.

THE WITNESS: Okay.

BY MS. GORMAN:

Q And please correct me if I'm not reading this right. But I read this as a summary of many things that Mr. Pierce went through with Mr. Nittler yesterday, that housing costs per employee were $134.39. Do you see that in the little box at the top left?

A So 134, yeah, it's very small, but yes.

Q Okay, great. I just wanted to make sure. And that's what the Respondents here are claiming were the weekly housing costs. Correct?

A Correct.

Q Okay. And then I'm going to refer you to Exhibit 35, please.

A Okay.

Q And again, the first page, that one is a lot larger. It's easier for me to read.

A Yes.

Q The Respondents here are claim what I understand to be incidental travel worth $50.25 a week. Right?

A Correct.

Q Okay. And so, would you agree with me -- I'm going to use round numbers here -- that 134 and $50.00 is a total of 184 a week?

A Yes.

Q And then now, I'm going to ask you to take a look at Exhibit 26.

A Okay.

Q And I'm on page 120.

A Okay.

Q And I'm using this base pay rate in the fourth column down. Do you see that?

A Yes.

Q Okay. And we've got varying amounts of weekly pay from a low -- I don't see anything lower than 300 -- to a high -- I don't see anything higher than 500. Do you see those two amounts on this?

A I see 300 and 500, yeah.

Q Right. And you don't see anything lower than 300 or anything higher than 500. Right?

A That's correct.

Q I just wanted to make sure that both you and I are agreed on the range for that. So for the employees making $300.00, the credit of $184.00 a week would leave an employee with $126.00 a week. Do you agree with that?

A No, because I'm not sure how you arrived at the figure. I'd need to do some subtraction there.

Q Sure.

A So we're saying -- so I'm clear, you're saying that if they back that out of their check, that's what they would have left?

Q Right.

A Correct.

Q Okay. So with the housing and the incidental travel expense that the Respondents are seeking here, if an employee making $300.00, if those exemptions or offsets are applied to an employee making $300.00, that employee would have for themselves for that week of work, $126.00. Right?

A Yes.

Q Are Respondents applying for the housing and incidental travel exemption for any employee, other than the nine for whom the Wage and Hour Division has calculated back wages?

A We have not calculated everybody's. We just did the nine.

Q Are you asking for the offset for any employee, other than the nine?

A No, not at this time.

Q Isn't that only because the Wage and Hour Division has calculated back wages for those nine workers?

A And we calculated how much we really paid.

Q Okay. But I still don't, I don't think you have answered my question. Weren't those nine selected because they are the only employees who the Wage and Hour Division calculated back wages for?

A That's correct.

Q There's no other reason. Correct?

A That's correct.

Q So you're not asking for this offset for any other H-2B employees?

A No, we have absorbed that cost.

Q You absorbed it for the nine, as well. You're just asking for it back for them. Right?

A We're asking for credit for it.

Q You're asking for credit, which is asking for it back. Right?

A Well, I'll say that we're asking for credit. I don't know about back. We're not taking the money -- oh, I guess we are, the way this works out.

Q Yes, you are.

A Yeah, that's what we're doing.

Q Thank you. You and Mr. Pierce were talking about an exhibit at -- a document at Exhibit 33, Defendant's, Respondent's Exhibit 33.

A Okay. It's here. Okay.

Q And I am on page eight.

A Eight, okay.

Q Do you see in the blue box in the bottom of the page, it looks like a handwritten box with the number of passengers handwritten in?

A I must be on the wrong page.

Q I'm on Exhibit 33 ==

A Right.

Q -- page eight.

A Okay, this is a -- okay. We're under passengers?

Q Yes, exactly, passengers, right, okay. And this is a copy of a credit card statement, a Butler Amusements credit card that it looks like was used to pay CEA Travel?

A Yes.

Q CEA Travel for about 300 employees, give or take. Correct?

A Yes.

Q And I think during your Direct Examination, you testified that one of the things that Butler Amusements does is that they send H-2B employees back to Mexico via air travel because it's safer than bus travel?

A That's correct.

Q And, that this reflects some of that air travel. Correct -- or, pardon me. Let me strike that. Let me rephrase that.

This document that we are looking at reflects Butler's payment to a travel agency for that air travel?

A Yes.

JUDGE CLARK: He said yes.

THE WITNESS: Oh, sorry. Yes.

MS. GORMAN: Oh, okay. Thank you. You can move the microphone closer, also. You don't have to move into it so much.

BY MS. GORMAN:

Q And does this date reflect the date of travel for employees?

A No.

Q This date would reflect the date that Butler Amusements paid for the air travel. Correct?

A Booked it, correct.

Q Booked it on the credit card?

A Yes.

Q Okay. And then if I can call your attention to Exhibit 34, please, the first page?

A Yes.

Q Do you recall your testimony that this document reflected the dates that employees were traveling back to Mexico?

A Well, this, it says the date of charge or departure date. Okay.

Q You have no reason to doubt the reliability of the date in the departure date column. Correct?

A Well, it doesn't look correct to me, but this isn't my group of people.

Q Well, were you responsible for the travel for your group of people? Or, was some other division within Butler?

A Yeah. Well, each individual unit gets their own people home. All these people on this list are from Butch's Unit.

Q And so, do you have any reason to believe that this document is not reliable?

A No, I have no reason to believe that it's not reliable.

Q Okay. So wouldn't you agree that this document reflects that at least 10-ish employees actually left Butler's employ and traveled back to Mexico at the end of August?

A August --

Q And we've got dates that we're looking at between August 27th and August 30th.

A Okay, yeah, I see that.

Q And does this document reflect that information?

A Well, it appears. Yeah, I've never seen this before. But yeah, I would -- I would assume, yeah.

Q Okay. But you testified about it earlier, though.

You testified about this document on Direct Examination.

A Okay.

Q You would agree with me that August -- that the end of August is before October 31st. Correct?

A Yes.

Q Are you aware that your TEC's to -- do you know what I mean when I say TEC?

A Well, I'm guessing it's one of the forms that we filled out that said our date of need and all that.

Q Right.

A Okay.

Q Right. And that form is sometimes referred to as TEC, and sometimes referred to as the 9142. In the book with the green on it, if you would go to Exhibit C, as in cat?

A Okay.

Q And if you would go to page C-1, page eight?

A C-1, page eight?

Q Right.

A I've got it.

Q I've got two page numbers on there. Do you see in box number five, it says beginning dates of the period of intended employment?

A Right.

Q And end date of period of intended employment, you see that?

A Right.

Q And that that period of time is February 1st, 2013 through October 31st, 2013?

A Right.

Q What is your understanding of what those dates mean?

A Well, it's the period of intended employment. That's the date they can start, and that's the last date they can work, or that they have to be out of the country. I'm not really sure which that date is.

Q Okay. So is it your understanding that Butler Amusements must employ these people up until the end date?

A No.

Q Or, they can let them go before that end date?

A Well, yeah, we can let them go when we're done, when our route is over. We don't have any -- we don't have any dates that go late.

I don't know where that date actually comes from. But most of these people are flying out after the Fresno fair, and that's in the middle of October.

Q Can I'm going to call your attention to Exhibit C-9, which is page 16 within that same exhibit.

A Okay.

Q There is a signature on that page. Do you recognize that?

A Yes, that's mine.

Q Okay. Calling your attention to Exhibit 39 of the Respondent's Exhibits --

A Okay.

Q -- this is the document that has all of the -- it is undated. And it has all of the employees' signatures on it, if you can just take a minute and look through it. It goes for 10 pages.

A Okay.

Q Were you present when the employees signed this document?

A I was not.

Q You don't know what was said to them when this document was signed. Right?

A I do not.

Q Do you know who presented this document to them?

A I do not.

Q Do you -- do you have reason to believe that it was a Butler manager?

A I have reason to believe that it was a Butler manager.

Q Do you have any reason to believe that it was somebody who worked for Mr. Judkins?

A I do not believe that it was anybody with Mr. Judkins.

Q Why do you believe that it was a Butler manager?

A Well, because who else would've? In my mind, I'm thinking who else would've done it. Jim Judkins wasn't around. So I'm sure it was one of our managers.

Q And you have no idea who?

A No.

Q Do you know if this document was created because somebody asked you to create it, and have the employees sign it?

A I don't -- I do not know this document.

Q Is this a document that Butler Amusements has ever produced before the 2013 season, and asked employees to sign?

A I'm not aware that we have.

Q So this was probably the first time that this document was created?

A Could be. Probably, yes.

Q And you, as CEO, you did not -- you did not have involvement in creating this document?

A No.

Q Is it consistent with Butler's business practices that some other Butler manager could have the authority to create this document, have over -- I don't remember the exact number of employees who signed it, but it's something like 50 or 70 -- 50 employees sign it, and you did not know about it?

A Oh, absolutely that could happen.

Q Do you think that's what happened here?

A I -- I'm not sure exactly sure what this is, actually is. I haven't read it. But I -- I do not know this document myself. So again, I don't know. I'm going to guess. I've never seen this before. So I'm going to say this is new. It's dated March.

Q When you contracted for the services of the H-2B program with Mr. Judkins, Mr. Brajevich, was one of the things that you contracted for, was it assistance from Mr. Judkins's office in any enforcement action regarding your request for H-2B employees?

A No.

Q That wasn't part of the contract with him, that, "Hey, if you're audited by the U.S. Department of Labor, we'll come in and assist you in some way."

A Well, I've never -- actually, we get invoiced, but I've never actually signed a contract with him. Maybe there is one in existence prior to me taking over, and we're just, you know, following the terms of that.

But, you know, Jim sends out an e-mail and says, "Hey, we need to start working on your petition for next year," you know, and he'll contact the booking thing, you know, and have them send him over the itinerary for the following year that's coming up.

And he'll say, "How many workers, or the same amount of workers," and we'll say yeah. And then he just says, "Okay, I'm going to get the ball rolling. I'll send you something, sign it and send it back," and that's what we do. We don't have a contract that I know of.

So I can't speak for what's included or not included. I don't know.

Q I'm going to go back to the Administrator's Exhibits, the green --

A Okay.

Q -- the green book. And Exhibit C at page C-13, or overall 20.

A C-13.

Q Yes.

A Okay.

Q You recognize this as the Respondent's or Butler Amusements' itinerary that accompanied the TEC or the 9142, the application for H-2B employees?

A I do.

Q Okay. And do you agree with me that the second line on the itinerary says Holtville, California?

A I do.

Q The next exhibit after C is D in the Administrator's book.

A Yes.

Q And I'm at D-2, page 31 overall. And actually --

A Okay, I've got it.

Q Yeah, let's go to D-1, and this is the -- do you recognize this document as the I-129 petition for a non immigrant worker?

A Not really.

Q Have you ever seen this document before today?

A You know, possibly. But, you know, possibly.

Q Okay. If I can refer you to D-5, please, of this document?

A Okay.

Q Do you recognize the signature?

A That's my signature.

Q Okay. Going to D-2, do you see that it says, "Information about this petition," up in the top, where it says Part Two?

A Yes.

Q And number two says, "Basis for classification," and it says, "New employment."

A Yes, I do.

Q And what is your understanding of what that means?

A Well, my understanding is that we're getting new workers starting for the next season, and they're starting new employment.

Q This 2013 TEC was the first TEC that you signed. Right, the document that we're looking at --

A Yes.

Q -- in Exhibit C?

A Yeah.

Q Okay. In 2012, who signed the TEC for Butler Amusements?

A Well, for the 2012, it would've been signed in 2011, and Butch signed in December. So he took care of all of this, so it would've been, I'm sure Butch Butler.

Q Did the office have copies of previous TEC's, previous -- the TEC forms in the office?

A I couldn't say.

Q You never looked for any. Right?

A I never looked for any.

Q Okay. And you never -- you never referenced any before?

A Well, we didn't have an office like --

Q I'm sorry, I need to finish my question.

A Sorry.

Q I'm asking whether you ever referenced any of the previous TEC's before filing and signing your own TEC.

A No. No.

Q And the answer was no.

A No.

JUDGE CLARK: Mr. Brajevich, you might be a little tired from being on the stand. But your voice is trailing off a little bit. So do your best to keep it up.

MS. GORMAN: Your Honor, I mean I've probably got more than a half an hour or so. We can certainly keep going. But also, as you just mentioned, the witness might be tired. I have no problem --

JUDGE CLARK: I think we're going to go a little longer.

MS. GORMAN: Okay, great. Thank you.

BY MS. GORMAN:

Q You testified on Direct to the 2008 rules. And Mr. Pierce was asking you whether there was anything in the 2008 rules that you were aware of that prohibited you from providing housing and taking it as a cost offset to your employees. Do you remember that testimony?

A Um-hum. Yes.

Q And do you remember the testimony when Mr. Pierce asked you were you ever aware of anything in the 2008 rules that prohibited Butler Amusements from taking a credit for in and out of country travel?

A I remember that.

Q Do you remember your testimony where Mr. Pierce asked you whether you were aware of anything in the 2008 reg's that prohibited Butler from charging employees for local convenience travel?

A Can you restate that?

Q Sure. I can repeat it, probably. Do you remember your testimony with Mr. Pierce, where he asked you whether you were aware of anything in the 2008 regulations that prohibited Butler Amusements from charging employees for local convenience travel?

A Yes, I remember.

Q Okay. And do you remember your testimony where Mr. Pierce asked you whether you were aware of any 2008 regulations that required Butler to define the recreation and amusement attendant's job duties?

A I remember.

Q Have you ever read the 2008 regulations, sir?

A No.

Q Have you ever referenced the 2008 regulations?

A No.

Q When you gave that testimony, did you have any basis for concluding what the 2008 regulations prohibited?

A Yes, I did, because --

Q Let me finish my sentence -- question, please.

A Sorry.

Q Did you have any basis for your conclusion as to what the 2008 regulations prohibit, preclude or permit?

A What I'm basing it off of is conversations I've had since all of this has started.

But prior to this, no. Prior to this court case, this whole thing starting, prior to that, no.

Q You have never -- you've never looked at the 2008 reg's.

A No.

Q You were relying on, perhaps, advice.

A Well, Jim Judkins probably would be the most that I relied on.

Q I need to be able to finish my question, sir.

JUDGE CLARK: You are. You are stepping in a little too soon. Just let her ask the full question so that the record is clear.

THE WITNESS: I'm sorry.

BY MS. GORMAN:

Q Your testimony about the 2008 reg's was relied on the advice of either counsel, and/or other professionals with whom you contracted for the 2013 TEC. Correct?

A Correct.

Q You have -- there was no independent basis that you have for indicating what the 2008 regulations permit, preclude, or prohibit?

A Correct.

Q Would you agree that your business depends on workers being available in remote sites?

A I'm not really sure. Can you define remote?

Q Well, you're the -- you travel. You're the one that travels to these locations. Right? And the locations that your carnival operates in, some of them are not in urban areas. Correct?

A Well, that's not really true, because we go where the customers live. So either we're at a fairgrounds, which is right in the town, too.

Or, if we're doing a smaller event, you know, at a church or a school, we're right there where people live.

We do not set up out of town, and have people try and drive to us. That does not work, if that's what you're implying. I'm not really sure what you're getting at.

Q Okay. I -- I -- I understand. Some of your amusement services are provided in places that are not in the middle of the cities. Correct?

A Yes.

Q I believe that on your testimony, you used the word remote. I think that you had said out in the middle of nowhere. Either you or Mr. Shobaken used that term.

A That would've been Tom Shobaken.

Q Fair enough.

A Yeah.

Q Do you know what he means when he says out in the middle of nowhere?

A Well, no. But Tom Shobaken hasn't been on a carnival since the seventies. So, you know, I can't -- can only guess what he was thinking.

Q Through the 2013 season, did Butler Amusements ever operate a carnival in a location that you would consider to be remote?

A Again, if you can define remote for me? If we're talking about a small town, as opposed to a big town, then that would be remote.

But if you're saying do we set up where there's no conveniences and no services and no people there, no, we do not. We set up where the people are.

Q Do you ever set up in locations that do not have hotels within walking distance of the location you set up?

A Within walking distance?

Q Yes.

A Correct, there are some that are out from walking distance.

Q So wouldn't you agree then, that it is to Butler's benefit to have employees that are available when they have no other alternative, for places to stay?

A Well again, no, I don't. You know what? I feel like this is all for them. And again, when you say walking distance, I'm thinking about me. But we're talking about most of the guys are people that are in their twenties and thirties. That's pretty much -- maybe some in their forties.

So I'm thinking walking distance, I'm thinking, you know, I'm going a mile, I'm getting in a car. Somebody else might think three miles is a reasonable figure to walk. I don't know.

Q So you don't think that it benefits your business by having employees on site and available to -- to -- to -- to work the rides and amusements and take care of the machinery.

A Well, they need to be there when you're assigned.

Q I need to be able to finish my answer (sic), sir.

JUDGE CLARK: Ms. Gorman, I appreciate that. Don't quarrel with the witness. If you've got something you need me to do, direct it to me. Okay?

Mr. Brajevich, you are stepping on her. You're cutting in too soon. Let her ask the question. And she'll let you give your answer. Okay?

THE WITNESS: Sorry again.

JUDGE CLARK: Go ahead, Ms. Gorman.

MS. GORMAN: May I ask the court reporter to read it back? Is that possible? Fair enough.

JUDGE CLARK: Would you care to reask it?

BY MS. GORMAN:

Q I want to make sure that I understand your testimony, Mr. Brajevich. And that is your testimony is that Butler Amusements gains no benefit by having employees that are on site and available to work at the locations where you are performing amusement services.

A No, I'm not saying that there are no benefits. But I thought you were asking me who had the best benefit, who had the most benefit.

Q I did not ask that.

A I'm sorry. Then I misunderstood. Is there a benefit? Yes, there is a benefit to us.

Q And I want to make sure that I understand your testimony with Mr. Pierce. Looking back at the TEC, which is Exhibit C in the green book --

A Okay.

Q -- and as you see on page C on Exhibit C-1, page eight, on number three of the Temporary Need Information, it says SOC, parenthesis, ONET/OES, parenthesis, occupation title, with an asterisk. Do you see that?

A I see that.

Q And written in there, per your TEC, it says amusement and recreation attendants. Right?

A Correct.

Q And I want to make sure that I understand your testimony, that you used that job title because all of the employees that worked for Butler Amusements performed carnival work. Right?

A That's correct.

Q And you don't differentiate between the different types of carnival work. Correct?

A Well, maybe a little bit more -- you could ask it a little bit differently. But the way we look at it, the way we do it, we need X amount of workers. We need the workers, and we just put them wherever we can get them to be efficient.

Q And if you need them to be commercial drivers for tractor/trailers to haul these large rides and the bunk houses and the different things, you consider all of that to be part of the carnival world. Right?

A It is.

Q Okay. And if you have workers that are just working in the shop maintaining equipment, and oiling and greasing and fixing and making sure everything runs properly, but that's all they're doing, that is also part of carnival work?

A Yes.

Q And if you have employees that are supervising other employees, and they're not associated with taking tickets at a ride or helping passengers onto a ride, all they're doing is telling other employees, "Go over here, do this thing for an hour, we'll relieve you," those people are also performing carnival work?

A Correct.

Q Going back to the TEC, C-3, page 10 --

A Okay.

Q -- do you see in box (f), the job offer information, do you see that box, kind of towards the bottom of the page?

A Yes, I do.

Q And it says number of hours of work per week, and it says 40 in there. Right?

A Correct.

Q And for the hourly work schedule, what you're stating is that employees are working from one a.m. to 10 p.m. Correct?

A No. I'm reading this, and it says a.m. one o'clock, then p.m., could go as late as 10:00. But the carnival is not open until like around 11 or 12. People are sleeping. I don't understand.

Q But that's what it says here.

A It does say that, yes.

Q It's one a.m. to 10 p.m. Correct?

A Yeah.

Q And that when Butler filed this TEC, that you were indicating that a job offer was being made to each H-2B employee to employ them for 40 hours a week. Right?

A Well, we were estimating that there could be 40 hours a week, yeah.

Q Can you tell me where you see the word, estimate on this document?

A Well, I'm going by -- I'm using the same reasoning when I read work schedule from one a.m. until 10, which means possibly they could work in those hours, possibly. Possibly, 40 hours. That's what I'm -- I didn't fill this out. I may have signed it. I don't see that, either. But I don't know what the person was thinking when they wrote it.

I'm just using the same logic that I use when I read one a.m. to 10 p.m. That's 21 hours a day. So I don't know where that came from.

Q Okay. If you could go to page C-8, please, of this same exhibit?

A Yes.

Q And do you see in part (b), where it says Employer Declarations?

A Yes.

Q And I'm not going to read all of them. But they go on to the next page, page C-9, and there are 14 of them. Do you see them?

A I do.

Q And your signature appears below them?

A It does.

Q And can you read the language for me, please, right above the box that has your signature that starts out, "I declare?"

A "I declare under penalty of perjury that I have read and reviewed this application, and that to the best of my knowledge, the information contained here within is true and correct. I understand that to knowingly furnish false information in the preparation of this form or any supplement thereto, to aid or abet or counsel others to do so is a felony punishable by $250,000.00 or five years in the federal penitentiary or both, 18 USC 1001."

Q And for number 13, in the Department of Labor, we call these the Employer attestations, and I think you heard testimony that related to the attestations yesterday. And so these are the attestations we were referring to.

A Okay. I lost the page. Can you tell -- oh, I found it, 16. Number 13?

Q Yes. 13. This is the attestation that's at issue in this case.

A Okay.

Q And if you could read number 13 into the record, please?

A "The dates of temporary need, reasons for temporary need, and the number of worker positions being requested for certification have been truly and accurately stated in this application."

Q It doesn't say anything about an estimate, does it?

A No, it does not.

Q Okay. You testified earlier that there were -- that of the nine employees for whom the Department of Labor has calculated back wages, not all of them are working for you anymore?

A That's correct.

Q Okay. Are they not working for you because of this case?

A No.

Q They're not. Is it that they are not working for you because the Department of Labor has calculated back wages for them?

A Absolutely not.

Q There are other reasons?

A Well, I don't know why they're not here. But what we're doing here has not bearing on them. They probably don't even know we're in this case. We don't talk to them about this.

I'm sure they don't even know that this is going on, that I'm even here. These people are running the other units. I didn't even tell them that I'm coming to this thing. This is just something I'm trying to take care of for our company. But we're not out there talking about it.

Q Are you aware that one of the remedies that the U.S. Department of Labor has asked for in this case is a statement of non retaliation against the employees who provided the government with any information?

A Well, I'm not aware of that, but that seems reasonable.

Q Okay. And I said that at the beginning in the opening yesterday morning.

A Okay.

Q That was one of the things that I mentioned. And you don't have a problem agreeing to that. Correct?

A Absolutely not.

JUDGE CLARK: Ms. Gorman, this might be a good time to stop now, if you still have more. If you have a little bit more, we can stay. If you have a lot more, we can take our lunch.

MS. GORMAN: I have a little bit more.

JUDGE CLARK: Let's stay.

MS. GORMAN: Thank you. You know what? Actually, well, I do have a little bit more. But I need to get, perhaps, more organized, but that's okay. I can get there.

JUDGE CLARK: Okay. So I'm thinking. I don't know. Do you have a lot more, Mr. Pierce, at this point?

MR. PIERCE: Right now, I have four questions.

JUDGE CLARK: Okay. So maybe we'll finish and then we'll go to lunch because we're done with the case, is what I'm thinking. So if we need a break or a stretch break, we can go off the record, so you can organize, Ms. Gorman.

MS. GORMAN: No, I'm moving forward, sir. Thank you.

BY MS. GORMAN:

Q If I understood your testimony, Mr. Brajevich, on Direct Examination, you stated that you don't plan on changing any of your business practices as a result of this case. Did I get that right?

A No. What I said was that we were doing everything that we thought was in compliance at that time. We do have different compliance issues that we're dealing with now. And we're doing those things.

Maybe I didn't -- got the question wrong. What I was answering was at the time, I wouldn't have done anything different, because I didn't think at the time we were doing anything wrong.

Q Are your business practices today different?

A Yes, they are.

Q Because of this case?

A Yes.

Q What is different?

JUDGE CLARK: Mr. Brajevich, remember, let her ask the question.

THE WITNESS: I'm sorry.

BY MS. GORMAN:

Q What's different?

A Well, I can't speak to everything that I wasn't prepared to have an answer to. I know that we're following this case, and following other cases and seeing what we can.

You know, if I could say it, the problem that we have on our side is they have rules, but the rules aren't printed anywhere. And we don't know what to do.

And then, he brought up yesterday -- I'm sorry. May I speak?

JUDGE CLARK: It's non responsive.

THE WITNESS: All right.

JUDGE CLARK: Ms. Gorman, ask another question.

BY MS. GORMAN:

Q Did you apply for H-2B workers for the 2019 season?

A 2019, yes.

Q And you made that application in 2018. Correct?

A I did.

Q Okay. And did you file more than one TEC?

A I did what we -- what we normally do. If we did more than one before, then we did more than one. If we did one, we did one.

Q If you did one in 2013, did you do one in 2018?

A I'm going to guess that I did, yeah.

Q Okay.

A I can't think that we did anything different as far as filing the TEC.

Q So you filed the same TEC in 2018 that you did for 2013. I just want to make sure we're clear on that.

A Well, I believe we did.

Q You don't recall signing more than one TEC?

A I do not.

Q Do you recall signing one TEC?

A I remember -- well, you guys call it a TEC, so that's not a word that's in our vocabulary. So to make sure, I -- I filled out an application, if that's a TEC. I filled out an application for workers, and it was approved and we got them.

Q Sure. And if you go to Exhibit C-1?

A Yeah.

Q And up at the very top, it says Application for Temporary Employment Certification. Do you see that?

A Yes.

Q That's why I call it a TEC, is the Temporary Employment Certification part.

A Oh, I see. Right, right.

Q But I can call it anything that -- that -- that makes it easier for you to understand what I'm working with. I don't need to, but I use government speak.

A Yeah. I only know what -- how Jim Judkins refers to the paperwork. And I'm looking at this. Maybe he says 9142. I don't know.

Q If I refer to it as the 9142, is that better?

A No, I think we're fine. I don't think either one is going to -- you know, I think I've got a basic idea of what we're talking about with both now.

Q And you, just so we're clear, you don't recall signing more than one 9142?

A That's correct, I don't recall doing that.

Q For the 2019 season, that was filed in 2018?

A Correct.

Q And do you know whether the occupation title of the 2018 9142 that you submitted was for amusement and recreation attendants?

A I do not know that, but I'm -- I do not know that.

Q Do you recall what it was?

A Well, that's what I'm saying. I don't know, you know. I'm going to guess it's the same because everything looked the same. But I wasn't looking for anything different. Or, I wasn't aware that he had done anything different. I just don't know.

Q But your practices haven't changed from the 2018 9142 that you submitted, from the 9142 that you submitted for the 2013 season?

A I'm not really sure.

Q Okay. Are you aware that one of the factors in what Ms. Aguilar cited as the mitigating factors for the civil monetary penalties is the Employer's assurance of future compliance?

A Well, I'm kind of waiting for the outcome on this to see what I can and can not do, because I feel like there was -- I didn't feel like we didn't do anything wrong, because I didn't see any rules that said we were doing something wrong.

So depending on how the judge rules, then I'll know how to go forward. But I can tell you 100 percent I'm going to follow the regulations as they're spelled out.

Q Calling your attention to Exhibit 19 of the Administrator's Exhibits -- oh, I'm sorry -- of the Respondent's Exhibits, because it's a number, not a letter.

A Okay.

Q And you see that this is a letter from the U.S. Department of Labor directed to you dated February 6, 2018?

A Yes.

Q Do you recall seeing this letter?

A Yeah, I think so. Yes.

Q Do you see in the second paragraph towards the end of the paragraph, the letter states in part -- well, actually that whole paragraph says, "An investigation conducted by this office of Butler Amusements, Inc. covering the period from February 1, 2013 to April 24, 2013 disclosed that Butler Amusements committed the following violations." And then it goes on. Do you see that?

A I see that.

Q Okay. And is it your testimony today that you were waiting for a court order that that determination by the U.S. Department of Labor did not alter any of your business practices?

A Okay. I'm reading this right here. And I guess what I'm trying to say is that if -- if this was right, why are we here? I thought we were here to determine who's right, or how to interpret all this.

So I'm waiting to find the ruling on the interpretation of this rule, non rules, or whatever these violations. I'm trying to get to the bottom of it so I can make a decision on how we're going to run our business. It doesn't seem unreasonable to me.

Q So it's correct then, what I said.

A And what did you say again, please.

Q I said isn't it true that your business practices haven't changed, notwithstanding a determination by the U.S. Department of Labor that your company is in violation.

A Well, I'm not going to say we're in violation because I don't believe that. But I would say that we're waiting, yeah. My answer is we are waiting for the judge's ruling.

Q And your business practices haven't changed.

Right?

A I'm not really prepared to say that because I'm not really sure what we've done, what changes we've made, and what this actual -- what this thing is accusing us of.

Q But there has been no change in your business practices since you received this letter. Correct?

A I can't -- oh, since I received this letter?

Q Right.

A February 6th, 2018? No, I would say that we have not made a change since then.

Q Calling your attention to the Respondent's Exhibit Number 76?

A Okay.

Q And I'm on page 46.

A Okay.

Q And you were going over this on your Direct Testimony, Mr. Brajevich. You were in the third column, and these are the -- I referred to this before, and I got off track. These are the mitigating factors that you heard testimony about yesterday for the assessment of the civil monetary penalties?

A Correct.

Q Okay. And over in the far right hand column, there are seven different paragraphs. Right?

A Okay.

Q Mr. Pierce stopped at number five. And so I want to actually pick it up there, because I think that's important. One of the factors that the U.S. Department of Labor considers when assessing, both recommending, determining and assessing the civil monetary penalties is the Employer's explanation of the violation or violations. Do you see that?

A I do.

Q Okay. And if I understand your testimony correctly, that you believe that Butler Amusements is not in violation here, that you're waiting for a judge to tell you that you were in violation, but you don't accept any violations as we sit here right now today. Correct?

A Well, I have not seen any rule that said I'm in violation. I've heard that I'm accused of it. But I can't find it in a book.

Q So it's correct then, that I'm understanding --

A Yes, you're correct.

Q -- your testimony correctly.

A You're correct.

Q That you do not admit to any violations?

A At this -- yeah, I don't admit that we did anything.

Q Okay. Number six is the Employer's commitment to future compliance. Do you see that?

A Yes.

Q And would you agree with me that if you are not changing your practices, you are not changing anything as a result?

A No, I'm not going to agree to that, because this says the Employer's commitment to future compliance, and I will comply.

JUDGE CLARK: Mr. Brajevich, I appreciate that. But you didn't let her give the full answer -- I mean full question.

THE WITNESS: Oh, I'm sorry.

MS. GORMAN: I have not asked my question, sir.

THE WITNESS: I'm sorry.

BY MS. GORMAN:

Q Would you agree with me that I understand your testimony to be that you are not changing any of your business practices as a result of the case that brought us here today?

A No, that's not what I'm testifying. I'm testifying that I - unless the judge tells me that I did something wrong, I can't find I did anything wrong anywhere.

Q And you're not changing anything, right, until the judge tells you you're wrong? Correct? Your business isn't changing in any way?

A Well, I would say that I'm waiting for the judge's ruling, yes.

Q And so no change is being made until you get the judge's ruling. Right?

A That's right.

Q Okay. Number seven is the extent to which the Employer achieved a financial gain, due to the violation, or the potential financial loss of the Employer's workers. Do you see that?

A Yes, I do.

Q Okay. And I believe you testified on Direct Examination that the H-2B program is, quote, crucial, end quote, to the operation of Butler's business. Right?

A That's right.

Q Thank you. During your Direct Testimony, Mr. Brajevich, you testified that you -- that Mr. Judkins is the most knowledgeable in the H-2B system?

A That I'm aware of, yes.

Q That you're aware of. He is the best source of information about the H-2B program that you're aware of?

A For me, correct.

Q For you, absolutely. And that he is recognized for his expertise, do you remember that?

A I do.

Q Okay. Would it surprise you to know that Mr. Judkins has expressed hostility to the way that the U.S.

Department of Labor enforces the H-2B program?

A Would I be surprised?

Q Yes.

A Well, I would be surprised.

MS. GORMAN: Thank you. Your Honor, if I may approach with a rebuttal document?

JUDGE CLARK: Will you show it to Mr. Pierce first? But yes, you may. Thank you. Are you going to ask to have this marked?

MS. GORMAN: I am.

JUDGE CLARK: I will mark this as your next in order, which is R, Administrator's Exhibit R. You've already marked it, thank you.

(Administrator's Exhibit No. R was marked for identification.)

MS. GORMAN: And Mr. Brajevich, I've handed you a document.

MR. PIERCE: Your Honor, can I have a moment? This is a 29-page affidavit, and it has not been part of the case until 20 seconds ago. Can I look at this?

JUDGE CLARK: Yes. We will go off the record briefly while you have a chance to review it.

(Off the record.)

JUDGE CLARK: Back on the record. Ms. Gorman.

BY MS. GORMAN:

Q Mr. Brajevich, I have handed you a document. That is an in-court statement in the form of a declaration made by Mr. Judkins in a completely unrelated case in 2011.

A Okay.

Q But the statement was made in federal court.

A Okay.

Q There are rules that lawyers follow about evidence that is made either in court and out of court. And this is an in-court statement, so just in case you're not familiar with those rules.

I'd like to call your attention to page 22 of this document. And on paragraph (a) which is kind of in the top-ish middle of the page --

A I see it.

Q -- right, the end -- the end of number (a) says, quote, "It was obvious that the DOL had blinders on, was acting on a political agenda, and had abdicated its responsibility to effectively manage the H-2B program, as mandated by Congress, to balance employers' needs, and protection of U.S. workers who are similarly employed. DOL had become a rogue agency steam rolling over the business community the rule of law, and the intent of Congress," end quote. Do you see that?

A I do.

Q Did you ever discuss that with Mr. Judkins?

A No.

Q Did you ever discuss his animosity towards the U.S. Department of Labor in enforcement actions of the H-2B program?

A No.

MR. PIERCE: Objection to the characterization.

JUDGE CLARK: Overruled. And his answer was no.

MS. GORMAN: Thank you. I have nothing further.

JUDGE CLARK: Mr. Pierce.

MR. PIERCE: Yes, thank you.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR. PIERCE:

Q Mr. Brajevich, the views expressed on page 22 of Exhibit R, are you aware that they were shared by quite a few people at that point in the regulatory history of the H-2B program?

A Is this the one we were just on?

Q Yes.

A Is this the quote we just read?

Q Yes.

A Am I aware of what?

Q Are you aware that many people shared the views that are expressed in the quote on page 22 of Exhibit R?

A I know that there are people that are frustrated with the rule makers.

Q Let's go back and pick up the workers. Is it true that some of your H-2B workers are entrepreneurial? They come here, they work, they buy things. They take them home and resale them, and actually make money?

A Absolutely.

Q Is it true that, in the old days, before bunk houses started being used, housing was handled pretty differently, wasn't it?

A Yes, it was.

MS. GORMAN: Objection. Vague as to old days.

JUDGE CLARK: Clarify that for me, please, if you would, Mr. Pierce.

BY MS. GORMAN:

Q Was there a period when bunk houses started becoming common practice?

A Bunk house really came in when the H-2B system was introduced to the outdoor amusement industry. We started buying bunk houses.

Q Meaning 20 years ago?

A Roughly, yeah, 20 years ago would be a good time.

Q Before bunk houses came, how was housing handled before bunk houses became a much more common practice?

A Right. Back before we got into the bunk housing, it was really just people had a back pack and a sleeping bag. And if somebody had a car, they might sleep in a car. But most people slept in a sleeping bag.

Either, if they worked in a game, they would sleep in the game, and then roll it up. Then they didn't have access to that the rest of the day.

Or, they might set up a tent, or they might sleep underneath a ride. But once the ride is open and operating, that's when you can't go near the ride in that capacity. So the people sleep wherever they could.

As an example, for myself, I started driving a truck right away because it gave me a place to stay. That was the best thing I did, is I had a place to stay.

Q And now, in Exhibit 34, you were asked a series of questions about the calculation for the relocation costs. And my question for you is do you really know what Steve Nittler was trying to capture in Exhibit 34?

A Well, I'm not there. But do I know what his intent was?

Q Yeah. Do you know the specific type -- you were asked questions about departure dates, and did these guys quit two months early. Do you even know what he was trying to capture there?

A No, not really -- oh, on the credit card receipt thing? No, I do not.

Q And you were also asked questions about whether or not you benefitted from having workers around in the area.

Have you ever once had the need to have an emergency call, and have workers come work at 3:00 in the morning?

A No.

Q Would you even have a way? You said earlier that once they go off the shift and they disappear in the crowd, you can't find them.

Would you even have a way to put them on call, and bring them back at the drop of a hat?

A No. We do not. We do not collect cellphone numbers, and they do not carry radios. When they leave their job, they leave when they're off.

But just, when they walk off the ride, they're just part of the crowd. I don't know what they're doing. Then they just show up to work the next shift, the next hour, the next two hours, whatever.

Q And that's the way the whole industry is?

A Absolutely true.

JUDGE CLARK: Ms. Gorman, anything further?

MS. GORMAN: Sure, just super quickly.

RECROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MS. GORMAN:

Q You don't keep in touch with your workers after they -- after they work for you for a season. Correct?

A No.

Q So you don't really know if they are entrepreneurial when they return home. Right?

A Well, I here stories because you know what some of them did. For example, this has been a few years now. But they could find in Washington state where I'm at, they could buy used vehicles up there. And then they would want to buy them, return them, and then sell them for taxi cabs and stuff back in Mexico. They were doing that, and they were doing pretty good.

But what happened on that -- and I haven't heard that lately. But I do know that once some people in Mexico found out that these guys were coming back into the country at this time of the year, they were -- you know, it was a big problem. They were being robbed. They'd steal the car, too. You know, so that kind of squashed that part of it. But no, they acquire things throughout the year.

Q You don't have any first hand knowledge of that, though. You just hear stories from other folks. Right?

A Well, from them, too. But I haven't seen them actually make the purchase. But I've seen the car, you know, that type of thing.

MS. GORMAN: Nothing further.

JUDGE CLARK: No further questions. You're done. Thank you so much for your time. You're free to step down.

(Witness excused.)

JUDGE CLARK: Anything further on behalf of the Respondents?

MR. PIERCE: We want to clarify something.

JUDGE CLARK: Okay.

MR. PIERCE: I want to fill in what I regard as a gap in the rules of procedure. It doesn't specifically talk about motions for judgment, for example.

But the federal rules do, and they are sort of incorporated. I just want to verify that the closing brief will be regarded effectively as a motion for judgment, that I'm not losing anything by not making a motion for judgment.

JUDGE CLARK: Correct. And if you characterize it that way, that's correct. I will consider everything in your brief when I consider all the facts of the case, and address all your arguments.

So if you make all your argument, such as Latches, for instance, which I think you had reserved at some point, and think you might want to make again, I will consider all those arguments in your brief.

MR. PIERCE: I just wanted to make sure I wasn't waiving anything. But otherwise, I'll regard it that we have rested.

JUDGE CLARK: Anything further on behalf of the Administrator?

MS. GORMAN: Yes, Your Honor. We move to admit Exhibit R-1.

JUDGE CLARK: Any objection to R-1? Did you say no?

MR. PIERCE: I said, "Eh."

JUDGE CLARK: "Eh," I see. So you want the whole exhibit, and not just page 22?

MS. GORMAN: I would be fine with the first page and 22. But I wanted to give -- I may want to refer to context. That's a possibility.

And I think that the -- the statements for which I am offering it are benefitted by the context of the declaration that he has given here.

JUDGE CLARK: The whole declaration, not page one and page 22.

MS. GORMAN: Correct, correct.

JUDGE CLARK: Mr. Pierce?

MR. PIERCE: Your Honor, I don't think this is worth fighting about. This is my case. And when I asked if there were a lot of us that shared these views, there were a lot of us who shared these views. But if she wants it admitted, I'm not going to object.

JUDGE CLARK: Then Exhibit R is admitted into the record for rebuttal purposes.

(Administrator's Exhibit No. R was received in evidence.)

MS. GORMAN: Thank you.

JUDGE CLARK: Anything else on behalf of the Administrator?

MS. GORMAN: I have another copy that I did not include in my exhibits. Those are in here.

JUDGE CLARK: I have it.

MS. GORMAN: You have it, excellent, thank you. No, nothing further, thank you.

JUDGE CLARK: Okay. Then we have come to the conclusion of the evidentiary portion of the case. I'm sorry, Mr. Pierce?

MR. PIERCE: I just wanted to ask if you're going to cover it now or in a subsequent order, the briefing schedule.

JUDGE CLARK: We are going to go off the record and we're talk about our closing procedures. Then we'll go back on the record.

So we have reached the conclusion of the case. We are going to go off the record, and discuss with counsel just the closing procedures and briefing schedules. Then we'll go back on the record, and conclude. So we're off the record.

(Off the record.)

JUDGE CLARK: We are back on the record. I have talked with the counsel about closing procedures. We have agreed to submit written closing briefs postmarked no later than July 9th, 2019.

Don't fax it to this office.

There is a 30-page page limit on the briefs. Don't feel the need to use the full 30 pages. That's caption, two signature lines, standard legal writing, standard legal type.

They are simultaneous briefs, just postmarked, and I'll receive them in due course. And I'll make them a part of the record, and consider them.

No reply briefs at this point.

Then we did briefly talk about the regulation at 29 CFR 503.50(a), which talks a decision within 60 days of completing the hearing, or closing the record. And because we're going beyond 60 days, we're already waiving that requirement. Any objection to that, Mr. Pierce?

MR. PIERCE: No.

JUDGE CLARK: And Ms. Gorman?

MS. GORMAN: No.

JUDGE CLARK: And I think -- let's see, the FOIA exemption, I'll be issuing an order regarding Exhibit 20 and 21. And Mr. Pierce had indicated that he is seeking to seal the testimony of Mr. Nittler regarding those two exhibits. Correct, Mr. Nittler? I'm sorry. Correct, Mr. Pierce?

MR. PIERCE: That is correct.

JUDGE CLARK: Okay. And any objection, Ms. Gorman?

MS. GORMAN: No.

JUDGE CLARK: Then I will process that order, as well, as part of the FOIA order for the sealing of those two exhibits.

Bathroom keys accounted for? They are.

And I think that takes care of it. Anything further for the record today, Ms. Gorman?

MS. GORMAN: No, Your Honor.

JUDGE CLARK: And Mr. Pierce?

MR. PIERCE: No.

JUDGE CLARK: Thank you all for your time. And we are off the record.

(Whereupon, the proceedings concluded at 1:03 o'clock p.m.)

1. Enter the following classification symbol to indicate the type of visa supported by this application: "H-2B".

Section B
Temporary Need Information

1. Enter the title of the job opportunity for which the application for temporary employment certification is being sought by the employer.

2. Enter the six or eight-digit Standard Occupational Classification (SOC)/Occupational Network (O*NET) code for the occupation, which most clearly describes the work to be performed. For example, the six-digit SOC code for a fruit or vegetable harvester or orchard worker is 45-2092.02 (Farmworkers and Laborers, Crop).

3. Enter the occupational title associated with the SOC/O*NET (OES) code. For example, the occupational title associated with SOC/O*NET code 45-2092.02 is "Farmworkers and Laborers, Crop".

4. Enter whether this position is full-time by indicating "Yes" or "No". Although there is no regulatory definition for full-time employment, the Department generally considers 35 hours per week as the distinction point between full-time and part-time.

5. Enter the beginning date for the worker's period of employment. Use a month/day/full year (MM/DD/YYYY) format.

6. Enter the end date for the worker's period of employment. Use a month/day/full year (MM/DD/YYYY) format.

7. The collection of this item contains two parts. First, enter the number of workers being requested for certification. Second, use collection items (a) through (f) to enter the number of workers in each applicable category based on the answer to the first part of this item. Every box MUST be filled. If the employer has no workers in a particular category, please indicate "0 (zero)."

8. Mark the appropriate box to indicate the nature of the employer's temporary need for the services or labor to be performed. Only one standard of temporary need may be selected. The following definitions generally apply to temporary agricultural and non-agricultural work:

Butler's Exh. 6, p. 001

AR - 1475

Seasonal Need: The employer must establish that the services or labor is traditionally tied to a season of the year by an event or pattern and is of a recurring nature. The employer shall specify the period(s) of time during each year in which it does not need the services or labor. The employment is not seasonal if the period during which the services or labor is not needed is unpredictable or subject to change or is considered a vacation period for the employer's permanent employees.

Peakload Need: The employer must establish that (1) it regularly employs permanent workers to perform the services or labor at the place of employment and that it needs to supplement its permanent staff at the place of employment on a temporary basis due to a seasonal or short-term demand, and (2) the temporary additions to staff will not become a part of the employer's regular operation.

One-Time Occurrence: The employer must establish that either (1) it has not employed workers to perform the services or labor in the past and that it will not need workers to perform the services or labor in the future, or (2) it has an employment situation that is otherwise permanent, but a temporary event of short duration has created the need for a temporary worker(s).

Intermittent or Other Temporary Need: The employer must establish that it has not employed permanent or full-time workers to perform the services or labor, but occasionally or intermittently needs temporary workers to perform services or labor for short periods.

9. Provide a statement clearly describing the employer's temporary need for the services or labor to be performed. The employer's statement must explain (a) the nature of the employer's business or operations, (b) why the job opportunity and number of workers being requested for certification reflect a temporary need, and (c) how the employer's request for the services or labor to be performed meets the chosen standard under Question 8 of a seasonal, peakload, one-time occurrence, or an intermittent basis.

B. Employer Declaration

By virtue of my signature below, I HEREBY CERTIFY the following conditions of employment:

1. The job opportunity is a bona fide, full-time temporary position, the qualifications for which are consistent with the normal and accepted qualifications required by non-H-2B employers in the same or comparable occupations.
2. The job opportunity is not vacant because the former occupant(s) is (are) on strike or locked out in the course of a labor dispute involving a work stoppage.
3. The job opportunity is open to any qualified U.S. worker regardless of race, color, national origin, age, sex, religion, handicap, or citizenship, and the employer has conducted the required recruitment in accordance with regulations, and has been unsuccessful in locating sufficient numbers of qualified U.S. applicants for the job opportunity for which certification is sought. Any U.S. workers who applied or apply for the job were or will be rejected only for lawful, job-related reasons, and the employer must retain records of all rejections.
4. The offered terms and working conditions of the job opportunity are normal to workers similarly employed in the area(s) of intended employment and are not less favorable than those offered to the foreign worker(s) and are not less than the minimum terms and conditions required by Federal regulation at 20 CFR 655, Subpart A.
5. The offered wage equals or exceeds the highest of the most recent prevailing wage that is or will be issued by the Department to the employer for the time period the work is performed, or the applicable Federal, State, or local minimum wage, and the employer will pay the offered wage.

7. During the period of employment that is the subject of the labor certification application, the employer will comply with applicable Federal, State and local employment-related laws and regulations, including employment-related health and safety laws;
8. The employer has not laid off and will not lay off any similarly employed U.S. worker in the occupation that is the subject of the Application for Temporary Employment Certification in the area of intended employment within the period beginning 120 days before the date of need, except where the employer also attests that it offered the job opportunity that is the subject of the application to those laid-off U.S. worker(s) and the U.S. worker(s) either refused the job opportunity or was rejected for the job opportunity for lawful, job-related reasons.

9. The employer and its agents and/or attorneys have not sought or received payment of any kind from the employee for any activity related to obtaining labor certification, including payment of the employer's attorneys' fees, application fees, or recruitment costs. For purposes of this paragraph, payment includes, but is not limited to, monetary payments, wage concessions (including deductions from wages, salary, or benefits), kickbacks, bribes, tributes, in kind payments, and free labor.

10. Unless the H-2B worker is being sponsored by another subsequent employer, the employer will inform H-2B workers of the requirement that they leave the U.S. at the end of the period certified by the Department or separation from the employer, whichever is earlier, as required under § 655.35, and that if dismissed by the employer prior to the end of the period, the employer is liable for return transportation.

11. Upon the separation from employment of any foreign worker(s) employed under the labor certification application, if such separation occurs prior to the end date of the employment specified in the application, the employer will notify the Department and DHS in writing or any other method specified of the separation from employment not later than forty-eight (48) hours after such separation is discovered by the employer.

12. The employer will not place any H-2B workers employed pursuant to this application outside the area of intended employment listed on the Application for Temporary Employment Certification unless the employer has obtained a new temporary labor certification from the Department.

13. The dates of temporary need, reason(s) for temporary need, and number of worker positions being requested for certification have been truly and accurately stated on the application.

14. If the application is being filed as a job contractor, the employer will not place any H-2B workers employed pursuant to the labor certification application with any other employer or at another employer's worksite unless:

    (i) The employer applicant first makes a bona fide inquiry as to whether the other employer has displaced or intends to displace a similarly employed U.S. worker within the area of intended employment within the period beginning 120 days before and throughout the entire placement of the H-2B worker, the other employer provides written confirmation that it has not so displaced and does not intend to displace such U.S. workers; and
    (ii) All worksites are listed on the certified Application for Temporary Employment Certification

ADDENDUM TO ETA 9142

Section F.a.2. Number of Hours Per Week

This Mobile Entertainment Employer is a FLSA (13)(a)(3) exempt employer not subject to an hourly wage, overtime or recordkeeping requirements. The weekly wage has been calculated based upon a standard 40-hour week using the methodology detailed in Section G.1.

If state or local law requires overtime it will be calculated and paid as per applicable federal, state or local regulations. However for purposes of the Federal H-2B Program which respects the employers FLSA 13(a)(3) exemption, employer is not offering an overtime rate of pay nor overtime.

Section F.a.3. Hourly Work Schedule

The work schedule varies widely due to weather conditions, local event organizers, local customs, attendance at the event, day of the week, time of the year and a myriad of other factors. The employer will pay the weekly salary for each week that the worker is employed. Both the SWA and DOL in electronic filings require a set start time and set end time to be posted. The times being posted for recruitment and filing are to provide potential applicants and the agency with a general idea of the afternoon and evening schedules that are typical. Hours on week days will probably be reduced, hours on weekends will probably be increased, and all of the above named conditions can affect the hours actually worked. The employer is not representing to either the applicants or the agencies that these hours are fixed and predictable.

Section F.b.5. Post-Employment Drug and Background Checks

The background checks when conducted do not favor either US or H-2B workers, they are conducted on an equal basis for all employees. Employees come into contact with children at our entertainment events and our company policy, local sponsor policy and common industry practice means that the applicants must be able to pass post-employment background checks in regards to Megan's Law, Felonies and Convictions that would require the employee to register as a sexual offender or predator. Various states, counties, cities and venues require that mobile entertainment operators submit all employees to background checks prior to issuance of operating permits and/or credentials for the workers. These background checks, when conducted, are POST-EMPLOYMENT and are conducted by state/local permitting authorities and/or the venue and apply across the board to all workers, including owners and managers.

The background check is included as a term and condition of employment because employees come into contact with children at our entertainment events and our company policy, local sponsor policy and common industry practice means that the applicants must be able to pass post-employment background checks in regards to Megan's Law, Felonies and Convictions that would require the employee to register as a sexual offender or predator. Not only would we be considered negligent, we could be subject to litigation or criminal prosecution if employees were not subject to background checks. Many fairs (venues) mandate the background checks, so if they were not conducted we would not be able to operate.

We believe that the terms and conditions of employment are normal to similarly employed US workers in this industry. The OABA (Outdoor Amusement Business Association) in conjunction with the IAFE (International Association of Fairs and Expositions) published their "Best Practices" recommendations for Mobile

Entertainment Operators and the Venues, and in those recommendations in 2006, best practices in regards to hiring:

- "Methods and procedures for obtaining background checks on new employees should be shared by the parties."
- "Fairs and Mobile amusement operators should access web sites that provide a register of sex offenders, especially in states that enforce Megan's Law..."
- "The hiring practices of both parties should be examined and, whenever possible, steps should be taken to create better employee recruitment and training programs."

All of the mobile entertainment employers are subject to the same venue & regulatory requirements, so similarly employed workers (US and Foreign) would all be subject to the same terms and conditions.

Various states, localities and venues require either that either the employer conducts drug/background checks or they themselves conduct the drug/background checks prior to issuing operating permits/credentials for the event. As an example of guidelines applicable for industry: http://www.state.il.us/agency/idol/faq/faqcarn.htm These Illinois regulations require background check for all carnival employees and bar employment for convictions for various violent and sexual offences, require drug screening and are similar to local / venue regulations / requirements

These terms and conditions are not less favorable than those offered to H-2B workers because all of the mobile entertainment employers are subject to the same venue & regulatory requirements, so similarly employed workers (US and H-2B) would all be subject to the same terms and conditions.

Our terms and conditions of employment are not less than the minimum terms and conditions required by the regulation.

Further and without question, these tests will be administered equally between all US and H2B workers.

It is highly unlikely that any H-2B worker, who passed the background check conducted by the Department of State prior to visa issuance and the Department of Homeland Security CBP prior to visa issuance, would fail the background check, but if the background check indicated something serious (ie: Megan's Law Violation, Conviction for a Sexual Offence, Felony) then we would have to terminate the US or H-2B worker and follow all applicable regulations in providing transportation home, etc.

Section G.1. Basic Rate of Pay Offered

Mobile Entertainment Employer will pay the variable prevailing wage ($323.60 to $368.40, Average $347.88) as per 9141 Prevailing Wage Determination [P-400-12279-745190] attached. If there are changes in work locations, employer will obtain applicable prevailing wage for work location and pay such wage.

Section G.1.a. Overtime Rate of Pay

This Mobile Entertainment Employer is a FLSA (13)(a)(3) exempt employer not subject to an hourly wage, overtime or recordkeeping requirements. If state or local law requires overtime it will be calculated and paid as per applicable Federal, state or local regulations. However for purposes of the Federal H-2B Program which respects the employers FLSA 13(a)(3) exemption, employer is not offering an overtime rate of pay nor overtime.

Section G.3. Additional Wage Information:

On the date that the recruitment commenced the Department of Labor's H-2B Wage Methodology was subject to litigation. It is unknown if the Department will further postpone the effective date, or will be legally barred from implementing, the Wage Methodology for the Temporary Non-Agricultural Employment H-2B Program Final Rule, 76 FR 3452 (Jan 19, 2011).

Accordingly, the employer will pay the Variable Prevailing Wage Determination that is valid at the time of employment. Merit increases and/or bonuses may be awarded at employer discretion.

As per prevailing practices of the mobile entertainment industry for both similarly employed US and foreign workers:

- Employer makes available mobile housing valued at $125.00 per week.
- Employer makes available transportation from venue to venue and scheduled transportation to laundry, shopping valued at $25.00 per week.
- Employer is an Equal Opportunity, FLSA Section 13(a)(3) Exempt Employer. Depending upon applicable wage laws, wage to be paid as either weekly or hourly salary, no overtime expected.

If the wage to be paid is higher that the Variable Prevailing Wage Determination, the employer reserves the right to charge a fee for housing and transportation, but the effective rate of pay will not be lower than the Variable Prevailing Wage Determination.

I declare under penalty of perjury that I have read and reviewed this application and that to the best of my knowledge the information contained therein is true and accurate. I understand that to knowingly furnish false information in the preparation of this form and any supplement thereto or to aid, abet, or counsel another to do so is a felony punishable by a $250,000 fine or 5 years in the Federal penitentiary or both (18 U.S.C. 1001).

several dates there are multiple locations listed. Due to the nature of the business, there are some events that are large enough to support the entire carnival. At other points in time the show must spend some equipment (and workers) to additional locations. When our tour schedule requires our show to handle simultaneous locations or overlapping locations, employer will send workers to locations depending upon the venue and how many rides we will have operating at one venue in comparison to the number of rides operating at the other venues. Our unit continues with the other listed venues and we repeat the process when we encounter simultaneous or overlapping locations again.

Re: STATEMENT OF TEMPORARY NEED - Employer: Butler Amusements, Inc.
9142 and 9142 Appendix B.1, Application for Temporary Employment Certification

Dear Sir/Madam:

Our family has been in the Carnival Business all of our lives, providing rides, games and concessions to fairs and festivals on a seasonal basis. This company was founded in 1969 and incorporated in 1984.

We have a seasonal need for these workers, recurring on an annual basis. This is because we are open for a specific season each year and we are a traveling business, the work is evenings and weekends, and it is very difficult to find workers willing to travel from State to State. Even with the economic downturn people do not want to leave their homes and families to travel from event to event. We are unable to find available workers in the US to fill the positions to travel with the show.

This is a need that is seasonal and expected to be recurrent annually from February through October each year. The business has been seasonal since we began, completely shutting down for the months of November through end of January each year, and our need for seasonal workers (US Workers and Foreign) has grown as our business has grown.

We engage in extensive recruiting in hopes of fulfilling our seasonal needs. This recruiting process includes newspaper ads, using the DOL Job Search Protocol and help wanted signs at all of our locations. We have a chronic need for employees that is not filled.

We have applied for labor certification in the past and the number of workers being requested is statistically consistent with previous applications.

Sincerely,

Michael Brajevich
CEO

ETA Case Number: H-400-12313-874905

Period of Certification: 02/01/2013 - 10/31/2013

RE: BUTLER AMUSEMENTS, INC

Dear Sir/Madam:

Your application seeking temporary labor certification under the H-2B temporary nonagricultural program has been reviewed and certified. The Department of Labor (Department) has made a final determination on your Application for Temporary Employment Certification in accordance with Departmental regulations at 20 Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) sec. 655, Subpart A. Based on the documentation and attestations provided by the employer, the Department hereby certifies that a sufficient number of able, willing and qualified U.S. workers have not been identified as being available at the time and place needed to fill the job opportunities for which certification is sought, and the employment of the H-2B temporary workers in such labor or services will not adversely affect the wages and working conditions of U.S. workers.

The Application for Temporary Employment Certification, ETA Form 9142, has been certified and is enclosed.

Upon receipt of this notification, you will need to submit Form I-129 and all required documentation, including the original, certified H-2B Application for Temporary Employment Certification to the appropriate U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Service (USCIS) office. The USCIS application form and additional information can be obtained at http://www.uscis.gov.

Important Note

With respect to the offered wage guarantee, this certification assumes that the employer will pay the certified weekly wage for 40 hours of work per week, as indicated in Section G of the employer's ETA Form 9142. Please remember that consistent with the Department's regulations at 20 C.F.R. sec. 655.22(e) the employer is required to pay the H-2B workers and U.S. workers recruited in connection with an H-2B application, the certified offered wage during the entire period of the approved H-2B labor certification. The offered wage must equal or exceed the highest of the most recent prevailing wage that is or will be issued by the Department to the employer for the time period the work is performed, or the applicable Federal, State, or local minimum wage. If that prevailing wage was issued by the Department as an hourly wage (indicating that similarly-employed U.S. workers earn that wage for each hour of work), then the employer is required to pay H-2B or U.S. workers recruited in connection with an H-2B application at least that hourly wage for all hours worked, including those hours in excess of 40 hours of work per week. This requirement of the H-2B program is independent of any applicable exemption from the provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act. Please remember that the H-2B regulations also require compliance with applicable State and local employment laws, which may require a higher rate of pay for overtime hours.

Important Reminders

In accordance with Departmental regulations at 20 CFR sec. 655.24(a), the Department has the authority to conduct audits of H-2B temporary labor certification applications. Employers with certified applications selected for audit will receive an official letter from our office requesting documentation in support of the application. Failure to comply with the audit process may result in the employer being placed on supervised recruitment in accordance with Departmental regulations at 20 CFR sec. 655.30, or debarment in accordance with Departmental regulations at 20 CFR sec. 655.31.

In accordance with Departmental regulations at 20 CFR sec. 655.22(f), upon separation from employment of H-2B worker(s) employed under the labor certification application, if such separation occurs prior to the end date of the employment specified in the application, the employer will notify the Department and DHS in writing of the separation from employment not later than 2 work days after such separation is discovered by the employer. An abandonment or abscondment shall be deemed to begin after a worker fails to report for work at the regularly scheduled time for 5 consecutive working days without the consent of the employer. Employees may be terminated for cause.

Terminations and job abandonment notifications sent to the Department, must be sent to the email address at H2B.Abandonment&Termination.Chicago@dol.gov. Employers without Internet access may also send written notification by facsimile to (312) 886-1688 (ATTN: H-2B Abandonment and Termination).

For all future applications or requests for extension, the employer must submit the most current:

- ETA Form 9142: www.foreignlaborcert.doleta.gov/pdf/ETA_Form_9142.pdf
- ETA Form 9142, Appendix B.1: http://www.foreignlaborcert.doleta.gov/pdf/ETA_Form_9142_APPENDIX_B1.pdf.

B. Employer Declaration

By virtue of my signature below, I HEREBY CERTIFY the following conditions of employment:

1. The job opportunity is a bona fide, full-time temporary position, the qualifications for which are consistent with the normal and accepted qualifications required by non-H-2B employers in the same or comparable occupations.
2. The job opportunity is not vacant because the former occupant(s) is (are) on strike or locked out in the course of a labor dispute involving a work stoppage.
3. The job opportunity is open to any qualified U.S. worker regardless of race, color, national origin, age, sex, religion, handicap, or citizenship, and the employer has conducted the required recruitment, in accordance with regulations, and has been unsuccessful in locating sufficient numbers of qualified U.S. applicants for the job opportunity for which certification is sought. Any U.S. workers who applied or apply for the job were or will be rejected only for lawful, job-related reasons, and the employer must retain records of all rejections.
4. The offered terms and working conditions of the job opportunity are normal to workers similarly employed in the area(s) of intended employment and are not less favorable than those offered to the foreign worker(s) and are not less than the minimum terms and conditions required by Federal regulation at 20 CFR 655, Subpart A.
5. The offered wage equals or exceeds the highest of the most recent prevailing wage that is or will be issued by the Department to the employer for the time period the work is performed, or the applicable Federal, State, or local minimum wage, and the employer will pay the offered wage.
6. The offered wage is not based on commissions, bonuses or other incentives, unless the employer guarantees a wage paid on a weekly, bi-weekly, or monthly basis that equals or exceeds the prevailing wage, or the legal Federal or State minimum wage, whichever is highest.
7. During the period of employment that is the subject of the labor certification application, the employer will comply with applicable Federal, State and local employment-related laws and regulations, including employment-related health and safety laws;
8. The employer has not laid off and will not lay off any similarly employed U.S. worker in the occupation that is the subject of the Application for Temporary Employment Certification in the area of intended employment within the period beginning 120 days before the date of need, except where the employer also attests that it offered the job opportunity that is the subject of the application to those laid-off U.S. worker(s) and the U.S. worker(s) either refused the job opportunity or was rejected for the job opportunity for lawful, job-related reasons.

9. The employer and its agents and/or attorneys have not sought or received payment of any kind from the employee for any activity related to obtaining labor certification, including payment of the employer's attorneys' fees, application fees, or recruitment costs. For purposes of this paragraph, payment includes, but is not limited to, monetary payments, wage concessions (including deductions from wages, salary, or benefits), kickbacks, bribes, tributes, in kind payments, and free labor.

10. Unless the H-2B worker is being sponsored by another subsequent employer, the employer will inform H-2B workers of the requirement that they leave the U.S. at the end of the period certified by the Department or separation from the employer, whichever is earlier, as required under § 655.35, and that if dismissed by the employer prior to the end of the period, the employer is liable for return transportation.

11. Upon the separation from employment of any foreign worker(s) employed under the labor certification application, if such separation occurs prior to the end date of the employment specified in the application, the employer will notify the Department and DHS in writing or any other method specified of the separation from employment not later than forty-eight (48) hours after such separation is discovered by the employer.

12. The employer will not place any H-2B workers employed pursuant to this application outside the area of intended employment listed on the Application for Temporary Employment Certification unless the employer has obtained a new temporary labor certification from the Department.

13. The dates of temporary need, reason(s) for temporary need, and number of worker positions being requested for certification have been truly and accurately stated on the application.

14. If the application is being filed as a job contractor, the employer will not place any H-2B workers employed pursuant to the labor certification application with any other employer or at another employer's worksite unless:

    (i) The employer applicant first makes a bona fide inquiry as to whether the other employer has displaced or intends to displace a similarly employed U.S. worker within the area of intended employment within the period beginning 120 days before and throughout the entire placement of the H-2B worker, the other employer provides written confirmation that it has not so displaced and does not intend to displace such U.S. workers; and

Form I-129 consists of the:

1. Basic petition;
2. Individual supplements relating to specific classifications; and
3. H-1B Data Collection and Filing Fee Exemption Supplement (required for H-1B classifications only).

These instructions are divided into two parts:

PART 1: Classifications that always require a petition:

E-2 CNMI, treaty investor exclusively in the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands (CNMI).

E-2, treaty investor (not including E-2 CNMI treaty investors).

E-3, Free Trade Agreement professionals from Australia.

Free Trade Nonimmigrants, H-1B1 aliens from Chile or Singapore and TN aliens from Canada or Mexico.

NOTE: A petition must always be filed for an E-2 CNMI investor classification.

Who May File This Form I-129?

General. A U.S. employer may file this form and applicable supplements to classify an alien in any nonimmigrant classification listed in Part 1 and Part 2 of these instructions. A foreign employer may file for certain classifications as indicated in the specific instructions.

Agents. A U.S. individual or company in business as an agent may file for types of workers who are traditionally self-employed or who traditionally use an agent to arrange short-term employment with numerous employers. A petition filed by an agent must include a complete itinerary of services or engagements, including dates, names, and addresses of the actual employers, and the locations where the services will be performed. A petition filed by a U.S. agent must guarantee the wages and other terms and conditions of employment by contractual agreement with the beneficiary or beneficiaries of the petition. The agent/employer must also provide an itinerary of definite employment and information on any other services planned for the period of time requested.

Including more than one alien in a petition. Multiple aliens who will seek admission in H-1C, H-2A, H-2B, H-3, P-1, P-2, P-3, O-2, or Q-1 classification may be included on the same petition provided:

1. They will all be employed for the same period of time; and
2. They will all perform the same services, receive the same training, or participate in the same international cultural exchange program.

Exception: H-2A and H-2B petitions for workers from countries not listed on the respective "Eligible Countries List" should be filed separately. See www.uscis.gov for the list of H-2A and H-2B participating countries.

Multiple locations. A petition for alien(s) to perform services or labor or receive training in more than one location must include an itinerary with the dates and locations where the services or training will take place.

Naming beneficiaries. All beneficiaries in a petition must be named except for an H-2A agricultural worker or an H-2B temporary nonagricultural worker. Exceptions: You must provide the name, date of birth, country of birth, and country of nationality of all H-2A and H-2B workers when: (1) the petition is filed for a worker who is a national of a country not designated by the Secretary of Homeland Security as eligible to participate in the H-2A or H-2B program, or (2) the beneficiary is in the United States. In addition, USCIS may require the petitioner to name H-2B beneficiaries where the name is needed to establish eligibility for H-2B nonimmigrant status.

Where some or all of the beneficiaries are not named, specify the total number of unnamed beneficiaries and total number of beneficiaries in the petition.

General Filing Instructions

1. Complete the basic form and any relating supplement.
2. Type or print legibly in blue or black ink.
3. If extra space is needed to complete any item, go to Part 9, Explanation Page, indicate the item number, and date and sign the sheet.
4. Answer all questions fully and accurately. State that an item is not applicable with "N/A." If the answer is none, write "none."
5. Submit a duplicate copy of the petition and all supporting documentation.

Basis for Classification

The following is an explanation of the choices listed on Page 2, Part 2, Item 2 of the Form I-129.

a. New employment. Check this box if the beneficiary:

(1) Is outside the U.S. and holds no classification;

(2) Is to begin employment for new U.S. employer in a different nonimmigrant classification than the alien currently holds; or

(3) Will work for the same employer but in a different nonimmigrant classification.

b. Continuation of previously approved employment without change with the same employer. Check this box if applying to continue employment of the beneficiary in the same nonimmigrant classification the beneficiary currently holds and there has been no change to the employment.

c. Change in previously approved employment. Check this box if applying to notify USCIS of a non-material change to the previously approved employment such as a change in job title without a material change in job duties.

d. New concurrent employment. Check this box if applying for a beneficiary to begin new employment with an additional employer in the same nonimmigrant classification the beneficiary currently holds while the beneficiary will continue working for his or her current employer in the same classification.

e. Change of employer. Check this box if applying for a beneficiary to begin employment working for a new employer in the same nonimmigrant classification that the beneficiary currently holds.

f. Amended Petition. Check this box if applying to notify USCIS of a material change in the terms or conditions of employment or training or the beneficiary's eligibility as specified in the original approved petition. Additionally, petitioners requesting H-2A or H-2B substitutions should check this box.

Requested Action

The following is an explanation of the types of action a petitioner/employer may choose for Page 2, Part 2, Item 4 of Form I-129. Choose only one action.

a. Notify the office in Part 4 so the person(s) can obtain a visa or be admitted. Check this box if the beneficiary is currently outside of the United States, or, if the beneficiary is in the United States, he or she will leave the United States to obtain a visa/admission abroad.

b. Change the person(s) status and extend their stay since the person(s) are all now in the United States in another status. Check this box if the beneficiary is currently in the United States in a different nonimmigrant classification and is applying to change to a new, nonimmigrant status.

c. Extend the stay of the person(s) since they now hold this status. Check this box if the beneficiary is currently in the United States in a nonimmigrant classification and is requesting an extension of his or her stay in the same nonimmigrant classification.

d. Amend the stay of the person(s) since they now hold this status. Check this box if the beneficiary is currently in the United States in the same nonimmigrant classification and filing the petition to notify USCIS of any material changes in the terms and conditions of employment, training or the beneficiary's eligibility as specified in the original approved petition.

e. Extend the status of a nonimmigrant classification based on a Free Trade Agreement. Check this box if the beneficiary is currently in the United States based on a Free Trade Agreement (H-1B1 Chile/Singapore or TN classification) and is requesting an extension of his or her stay in that same classification.

f. Change status to a nonimmigrant classification based on a Free Trade Agreement. Check this box if the beneficiary is currently in the United States in a different nonimmigrant classification based on a Free Trade Agreement (H-1B1 Chile/Singapore or TN classification).

Certification Pertaining to the Release of Controlled Technology or Technical Data to Foreign Persons in the United States

U.S. Export Controls on Release of Controlled Technology or Technical Data to Foreign Persons. The Export Administration Regulations (EAR) (15 CFR Parts 770-774) and the International Traffic in Arms Regulations (ITAR) (22 CFR Parts 120-130) require U.S. persons to seek and receive authorization from the U.S. Government before releasing to foreign persons in the United States controlled technology or technical data. Under both the EAR and the ITAR, release of controlled technology or technical data to foreign persons in the United States--even by an employer--is deemed to be an export to that person's country or countries of nationality. One implication of this rule is that a U.S. company must seek and receive a license from the U.S. Government before it releases controlled technology or technical data to its nonimmigrant workers employed as H-1B, L-1 or O-1A beneficiaries.

Requirement to Certify Compliance with U.S. Export Control Regulations. The U.S. Government requires each company or other entity to certify that it has reviewed the EAR and ITAR and determined whether it will require a U.S. Government export license to release controlled technology or technical data to the beneficiary. If an export license is required, then the company or other entity must further certify that it will not release or otherwise provide access to controlled technology or technical data to the beneficiary until it has received from the U.S. Government the required authorization to do so. The petitioner must indicate whether or not a license is required on Page 5, Part 6 of Form I-129.

Controlled Technology and Technical Data. The licensing requirements described above will affect only a small percentage of petitioners because most types of technology are not controlled for export or release to foreign persons. The technology and technical data that are, however, controlled for release to foreign persons are identified on the EAR's Commerce Control List (CCL) and the ITAR's U.S. Munitions List (USML). The CCL is found at 15 CFF Part 774, Supp. 1. See http://www.access.gpo.gov/bis/ear/ear_data.html#ccl. The USML is at 22 CFR 121.1. See http://www.pmddtc.state.gov/regulations_laws/itar.html. The EAR-controlled technology on the CCL generally pertains to that which is for the production, development, or use of what are generally known as "dual-use" items. The ITAR-controlled technical data on the USML generally pertains to that which is directly related to defense articles.

The U.S. Department of Commerce's Bureau of Industry and Security administers the CCL and is responsible for issuing licenses for the release to foreign persons of technology controlled under the EAR. The U.S. Department of State's Directorate of Defense Trade Controls (DDTC) administers the USML and is responsible for issuing licenses for the release to foreign persons of technical data controlled under the ITAR. Information about the EAR and how to apply for a license from BIS are at www.bis.doc.gov. Specific information about EAR's requirements pertaining to the release of controlled technology to foreign persons is at www.bis.doc.gov/deemedexports. Information about the ITAR and how to apply for a license from DDTC are at www.pmdtc.gov. Specific information about the ITAR's requirements pertaining to the release of controlled technical data is at http://www.pmddtc.state.gov/faqs/license_foreignpersons.html.

Classification - Initial Evidence

For all classifications, if a beneficiary is seeking a change of status or extension of stay, evidence of maintenance of status must be included with the new petition. If the beneficiary is employed in the United States, the petitioner may submit copies of the last 2 pay stubs and, when available, Form W-2, as well as a copy of the Form I-94 or I-797, Approval Notice.

The beneficiary's dependent family members (generally, spouses and children under 21) should use Form I-539, Application to Change/Extend Nonimmigrant Status, to apply for a change of status or extension of stay.

A nonimmigrant, who must have a passport to be admitted, must keep that passport valid during his or her entire stay. If a required passport is not valid, include a full explanation with the petition.

The following nonimmigrants are not eligible to change status:

1. An alien admitted under a visa waiver program;
2. An alien is transit (C) or in transit without a visa (TWOV);
3. A crewman (D);
4. A fiancé(e) (K-1) or his or her dependent (K-2);
5. A spouse of a U.S. citizen (K-3) or his or her dependent (K-4);
6. A J-1 exchange visitor whose status was for the purpose of receiving graduate medical training (unless a waiver has been granted under section 214(l) of the Immigration and Nationality Act);
7. A J-1 exchange visitor subject to the foreign residence requirement who has not received a waiver of that requirement; and
8. An M-1 student to an H classification, if training received as an M-1 helped him or her qualify for H classification.

Part 1: Petition Always Required

The following classifications always require a petition.

The initial evidence listed below and the initial evidence listed under the instructions for a change of status or extension of stay must be included with a petition for a new or concurrent employment or for an extension where there is a change in previously approved employment.

However, a petition for extension based on unchanged, previously approved employment should only be filed with the initial evidence required in the extension of stay instructions.

Is fully qualified and eligible under the laws governing the place of intended employment to practice as a registered nurse immediately upon admission to the United States (including such temporary or interim licensing requirements that authorize employment), and is authorized under such laws to be employed by the employer. For purposes of this paragraph, the temporary or interim licensing may be obtained immediately after the alien enters the United States; and

An H-2A is an alien coming temporarily to perform agricultural labor or services of a temporary or seasonal nature.

Write H-2A in the classification block on the petition.

The petition must be filed by a U.S. employer or its U.S. agent or an association of U.S. agricultural producers named as a joint employer on the temporary labor certification. 1. A single, valid temporary labor certification;* and
2. Copies of evidence showing that each named beneficiary meets the minimum job requirements stated in the certification at the time the labor certification application was filed.

NOTE: Under certain emergent circumstances, as determined by USCIS, petitions requesting a continuation of employment with the same employer for 2 weeks or less are exempt from the temporary labor certification requirement. See 8 CFR 214.2(h)(5)(x).

H-2B

An H-2B is an alien coming temporarily to engage in temporary nonagricultural services or labor that is based on the employer's seasonal, intermittent, peakload, or one-time need.

Write H-2B in the classification block on the petition.

1. A temporary labor certification* from the U.S. Department of Labor, or the Governor of Guam (if the proposed employment is solely in Guam); and

2. If applicable, copies of evidence showing that each named beneficiary meets the minimum job requirements stated on the temporary labor certification (such as employment letters and training certificates, etc.).

NOTE: Petitions filed on behalf of Canadian musicians who will be performing for 1 month or less within 50 miles of the U.S.-Canadian border do not require a temporary labor certification.

H-3 (Two types)

An H-3 is an alien coming temporarily to participate in a special education exchange visitor program in the education of children with physical, mental, or emotional disabilities.

Write H-3 in the classification block on the petition.

Any custodial care of the children must be incidental to the training program. The petition must be filed by the U.S. employer, which must be a facility which has professionally trained staff and a structured program for providing education to children with disabilities and for providing training and hands-on experience to participants in the special education exchange visitor program. The petition must contain:

1. A description of the training, staff, and facilities; evidence that the program meets the above conditions; and details of the beneficiary's participation in the program; and

2. Evidence showing that the beneficiary is nearing completion of a baccalaureate degree in special education, or already holds such a degree, or has extensive prior training and experience in teaching children with physical, mental, or emotional disabilities.

An H-3 is also an alien who is coming temporarily to receive training from an employer in any field other than graduate medical education or training.

3. An explanation stating why the training is required, whether similar training is available in the beneficiary's country, how the training will benefit the beneficiary in pursuing a career abroad, the source of any remuneration the trainee will receive and any benefit the petitioner will obtain by providing the training.

L-1 (2 Types)

An L-1A is an alien coming temporarily to perform services in a managerial or executive capacity for the same employer (or for the parent, branch, subsidiary, or affiliate of the employer) that employed the alien abroad in a capacity that was managerial or executive in nature, or one that required specialized knowledge, for at least 1 continuous year within the last 3 years.

Write L-1A in the classification requested block on the petition.

A U.S. employer or foreign employer may file the petition, but the foreign employer must have a legal business entity in the United States.

An L-1B is an alien coming temporarily to perform services that require specialized knowledge for the same employer (or for the parent, branch, subsidiary, or affiliate of the employer) that employed the alien abroad (in a managerial, executive or specialize knowledge capacity) for at least 1 continuous year within the last 3 years. Specialized knowledge is special knowledge of the petitioning employer's product, service, research, equipment, techniques, management, or other interests and its application in international markets or an advanced level of knowledge or expertise in the employing organization's processes or procedures.

Write L-1B in the classification requested block on the petition.

General L Classification Requirements

Either the U.S. or foreign employer may file the petition. The petition must be submitted with:

1. Evidence establishing the existence of the qualifying relationship between the U.S. and foreign employer based on ownership and control, such as: an annual report, articles of incorporation, financial statements, or copies of stock certificates; NOTE: Whether such evidence will be sufficient to meet the petitioner's burden of establishing such a qualifying relationship will depend on the quality and probative value of the evidence submitted.

2. A letter from the beneficiary's foreign qualifying employer detailing his or her dates of employment, job duties, qualifications, and salary, along with supporting documentary evidence; and

3. A description of the proposed job duties and qualifications, and evidence showing that the proposed employment is in an executive, managerial, or specialized knowledge capacity.

Evidence for a New Office

If the beneficiary is coming to the United States to open a new office, additional evidence must be submitted to show that the employer:

1. Already has sufficient premises to house the new office;

2. Has or will have the required qualifying relationship to the foreign employer;

3. Has the financial ability to remunerate the beneficiary and to begin doing business in the United States including evidence which shows:

   A. Size of the U.S. investment;

   B. The organizational structure of both firms; and

   C. The financial size and condition of the foreign employer.

If the petition is requesting L-1A classification, evidence to establish the intended U.S. operation will be capable of supporting the executive or managerial position within 1 year.

NOTE: There are additional fees associated with certain L-1A and L-1B petitions. Please see the "What is the Filing Fee?" section of these form instructions for further information about these fees.

L Blanket Petitions

An L Blanket petition simplifies the petitioning process for employers that seek L-1 workers on a continual basis by obtaining advance approval from USCIS that the requisite intracompany relationship exists. In obtaining an L Blanket petition, a qualified employer may file for any number of L-1A aliens and L-1B specialized knowledge professionals.

Write LZ in the classification requested block. Do not include an individual employee on the petition.

Submit evidence to establish that the employer (including its parent, branches, subsidiaries, and/or affiliates):

1. Is engaged in commercial trade or services;

2. Has an office in the United States that has been doing business for 1 year or more;

3. Has three or more domestic and foreign branches, subsidiaries, or affiliates; and

4. (A) Has obtained approved petitions for at least 10 L-1A managers or executives or L-1B specialized knowledge professional workers in the past 12 months; (B) has U.S. subsidiaries or affiliates with combined annual sales of at least $25 million; or (C) has a U.S. workforce of at least 1,000 employees.

After approval of a blanket petition, the employer may file for individual employees to enter as either L-1A workers or L-1B specialized knowledge professionals under the L Blanket petition. If the beneficiary is outside the United States, file a Form I-129S, Nonimmigrant Petition Based on Blanket L Petition. If the beneficiary is already lawfully in the United States and otherwise eligible for a change of nonimmigrant status to L-1A or L-1B, file Form I-129 to request a change of status based on the blanket petition with the following:

1. A copy of the USCIS approval notice for the blanket petition;

2. A letter from the beneficiary's foreign qualifying employer detailing his or her dates of employment, job duties and qualifications and salary for the previous 3 years, or in the case of a beneficiary who is currently lawfully employed by a qualifying organization in the United States a letter detailing the above with respect to the 3-year period prior to the beneficiary's lawful admission to the United States and establishing that the beneficiary has been continuously employed lawfully by a qualifying organization since the time of lawful admission to the United States;

3. Evidence that the beneficiary has been lawfully employed by the petitioning organization since arriving in the United States; and

4. If the beneficiary is a specialized knowledge professional, evidence of that he or she has earned U.S. degree or foreign degree equivalent to a U.S. degree.

O-1A

An O-1A is an alien coming temporarily who has extraordinary ability in the sciences, education, business, or athletics (not including the arts, motion picture, or television industry). The extraordinary ability must be demonstrated by sustained national or international acclaim.

Write O-1A in the classification block on the petition. The petition must be submitted with:

1. A written consultation from a peer group or labor management organization with expertise in the field.

4. Evidence the beneficiary continues to meet the licensing requirements for the profession or occupation, if applicable;

5. If requesting an extension of H-1B status (including H-1B1 Chile/Singapore), evidence that a labor condition application for the specialty occupation valid for the period of time requested has been certified by the Department of Labor;

6. If requesting H-2A status, submit a temporary labor certification valid for the dates of the extension, unless it is based on a continuation of previously approved employment due to exigent circumstances and the extension will last no longer than 2 weeks;

7. If requesting H-2B status, submit a U.S. Department of Labor approved temporary labor certification valid for the dates of extension.

Special Considerations for Beneficiaries Residing in CNMI

An alien who was admitted to the CNMI prior to November 28, 2009 may not currently hold a Federal nonimmigrant classification that permits a change of status. However, in certain situations, a petitioner may request that the beneficiary be granted initial status in the CNMI. This will allow certain beneficiaries who were present in the CNMI prior to the transition date and are currently lawfully present in the CNMI with a valid unexpired CNMI status to be granted an initial status without having to depart the CNMI. Additionally, an alien who is currently in parole status in the CNMI may also be granted an initial status in the CNMI.

The E-2 CNMI investor regulations permit a petitioner to request that the alien be granted an initial E-2 CNMI investor status in the CNMI. In addition to the classification requirements, the petitioner must submit documentation that the beneficiary is currently lawfully present in the CNMI.

The regulation at 8 CFR 212.4(k) indicates that if the beneficiary is lawfully present in the CNMI as described, the beneficiary may apply for a change of status with this form without having to seek consular processing. In addition to the classification requirements, the petitioner must submit documentation that the beneficiary is currently lawfully present in the CNMI.

A petition for a grant of initial status for a beneficiary currently in the CNMI with a CNMI issued permit must be filed on or before November 27, 2011.

General Evidence

Written consultation. Noted classifications require a written consultation with a recognized peer group, union, and/or management organization regarding the nature of the work to be done and the beneficiary's qualifications before the petition may be approved.

To obtain timely adjudication of a petition, you should obtain a written advisory opinion from an appropriate peer group, union, and/or management organization and submit it with the petition.

If you file a petition without the advisory opinion, you should send a copy of the petition and all supporting documents to the appropriate organization when you file the petition with USCIS, and name that organization in the petition.

Explain to the organization that USCIS will contact them for an advisory opinion. If an accepted organization does not issue an advisory opinion within a given time period, a decision will be made based upon the evidence of record.

If you do not know the name of an appropriate organization with which to consult, indicate that on the petition. However, a petition filed without the actual advisory opinion will require substantially longer processing time.

Translations. Any foreign language document must be accompanied by a full English translation that the translator has certified as complete and correct, and by the translator's certification that he or she is competent to translate the foreign language into English.

Copies. Unless specifically required that an original document be filed with an application or petition, an ordinary legible photocopy (standard 8 1/2 x 11 letter size) may be submitted. Original documents submitted when not required will remain a part of the record.

Liability for Return Transportation

The Immigration and Nationality Act makes a petitioner liable for the reasonable cost of return transportation for an H-1B, H-2B, O, and P beneficiary who is dismissed before the end of the period of authorized employment.

When to File?

Generally, a Form I-129 petition may not be filed more than 6 months prior to the date employment is scheduled to begin. Petitioners should review the appropriate regulatory provisions in 8 CFR that relate to the nonimmigrant classification sought.

File the petition as soon as possible before the proposed employment begins or before an extension of stay will be required. If the petition is not submitted at least 45 days before the employment begins, petition processing and subsequent visa issuance may not be completed before the alien's services are required or previous employment authorization ends.

Where to File?

Regular Processing

Generally, except for the classifications listed below, the Form I-129 is filed at the California Service Center or Vermont Service Center, depending on the location of the temporary employment or training. When the temporary employment or training will be multiple locations, the State where your company or organization is located will determine which Service Center you should send your petition to.

Prior to submitting your form(s), note the different addresses (see "Mailing Addresses" section on page 20).

Exceptions: Regardless of work locations, the following types of petitions should always be sent to the California Service Center.

1. H-2A
2. R-1
3. H-1B petitions where the employer is statutorily exempt from the cap
4. E-1 and E-2, petitions for extension of stay or change of status only

Regardless of work locations, the following types of petitions should always be sent to the Vermont Service Center.

1. H-1C
2. E-3, Petitions for extension of stay or change of status only
3. Free Trade Nonimmigrants (H-1B1 aliens from Chile/ Singapore and TN aliens from Canada or Mexico), petitions for extension of stay or change of status only
4. P-1, Major League Sports Organizations

Failure to follow these instructions may result in the rejection, delay, or denial of your petition.

RE: I-129 246 H2B UNNAMED BENEFICIARIES
RE: I-907 Premium Processing Request Filed Concurrently

I have attached a copy of the Department of Labor Certification that we were issued for this season. This DOL ETA-9142 Final Determination has been certified for 246 Amusement Attendants.

As per current DHS procedures, we are requesting 246 unnamed beneficiaries.

We have a seasonal need for these workers, recurring on an annual basis. This is because we are open for a specific season each year and we are a traveling business, the work is evenings and weekends, and it is very difficult to find workers willing to travel from Location to Location. Even with the economic downturn people do not want to leave their homes and families to travel from event to event. We are unable to find available workers in the US to fill the positions to travel with the show. This is a need that is seasonal and expected to be recurrent annually from January through October each year.

Our family has been in the Carnival Business all of our lives, providing rides, games and concessions to fairs and festivals on a seasonal basis. This company was founded in 1969 and incorporated in 1984. Our season is from February through October, and we close down for the months of November through end of January, to perform simple maintenance and office work.

We engage in extensive recruiting in hopes of fulfilling our seasonal needs. This recruiting process includes newspaper ads and help wanted signs at all of our venues. We have a chronic need for employees that is not filled by US Workers willing to travel and to work evenings and weekends on a regular basis.

I hope that after reviewing this application you will be able to grant these visas to fill our need. I appreciate your assistance in this matter.

Sincerely,

Michael Brajevich, CEO

2. Temporary need is: (Check one)

- [ ] a. Unpredictable
- [ ] b. Periodic
- [x] c. Recurrent annually

3. Explain your temporary need for the beneficiary or beneficiaries' services (Attach a separate sheet if additional space is needed.)

Our family has been in the Carnival Business all of our lives,providing entertainment, rides, games and concessions on a seasonal basis. This company was founded in 1969.

We have a seasonal need for these workers, recurring on an annual basis. This is because we are open for a specific season each year and we are a traveling business, the work is evenings and weekends, and it is very difficult to find workers willing to travel from State to State. Even with the economic downturn people do not want to leave their homes and families to travel from event to event. We are unable to find available workers in the US to fill the positions to travel with the show.

This is a need that is seasonal and expected to be recurrent annually from February through October each year. The business has been seasonal since we began, completely shutting down for the months of November through end of January each year, and the need for seasonal workers has been constant.

We engage in extensive recruiting in hopes of fulfilling our seasonal needs. This recruiting process includes newspaper ads, using the DOL Job Search Protocol and help wanted signs at all of our locations. Our chronic need for employees is not filled.

While our need for temporary workers is recurrent annually, predictable and seasonal, the nature of the outdoor amusement business is that our events have longer hours and higher attendance when school is not in session, requiring an increase in staff when school vacation starts. We request permission for staggered entry for a limited number of workers when our temporary need increases based upon this business need.

FLSA exemption 13(a)(3) applies to this employer in State and Local venues that respect the FLSA exemption 13(a)(3). California Industrial Welfare Commission Order 10-2001 applies to this employer while working in the State of California. Employer follows prevailing practices for the Traveling Amusement Industry in regards to housing, transportation and weekly salary for workers.

Employer is traveling amusement operation. Above is a complete listing of booked and anticipated (pending) locations for the time period covered by this Job Order, listing city, county, state and prevailing wage listing from ONET/OES Site. It should be noted that for several dates there are multiple locations listed. Due to the nature of the business, there are some events that are large enough to support the entire carnival. At other points in time the show must spend some equipment (and workers) to additional locations. When our tour schedule requires our show to handle simultaneous locations or overlapping locations, employer will send workers to locations depending upon the venue and how many rides we will have operating at one venue in comparison to the number of rides operating at the other venues. Our unit continues with the other listed venues and we repeat the process when we encounter simultaneous or overlapping locations again.

The above petition has been approved, and notification has been sent to the listed consulate. You may also send the tear-off bottom part of this notice to the worker(s) to show the approval. Please contact the consulate with any questions about visa issuance. THIS FORM IS NOT A VISA AND MAY NOT BE USED IN PLACE OF A VISA.

I have now attached what I believe constitutes our final calculation for exemption from the FLSA for each calendar year 2009-2012. The only change here is that I have now completed the calculation for 2009.

I have asked about your request that an original source document or a knowledgeable person be available for the audit on Wednesday.

Attached is a template that I have developed for establishing that a carnival operation is FLSA exempt. I have filled in the monthly gross revenues. You will see that we can only meet the ratio test for calendar years 2010, 2011, and 2012.

Now, you had also asked for 2009. You will recall that I have expressed my doubts that the statute of limitations for FLSA-exempt operations will reach back to cover 2010, and I fully expect that those numbers will corroborate what you have now received. Nevertheless, I will now go back to my contact to see about getting 2009 gross revenue figures.

I also have what I believe are the various documents for the H-2B paperwork for the current season. I just need to go through them and send them to you. I believe I may have the payroll and time she records delivered on Thursday.

I am still planning on your on-site visit next Wednesday, April 10, and I still think it is likely that you will have the documents before that date.

Sincerely,

Subject: Re: Backwage Compliance and Payment Agreement

I am following up on the status of the audit. You have identified 10 employees that you believe should have been paid according to the following job codes:

Position	Job code	Wage
1. Drivers	53-3032	$19.37
2. 1st line supervisors	39-1021	$18.98
3. Office support personnel	43-9199	$17.82
4. Maintenance workers	49-9071	$18.67

According to your back wage calculations, these 10 employees are owed back wages for the period February 2 through April 27, 2013, as follows:
1. Saul Estadillo Herrera – $3022.80 (driver)
2. Gustavo Gamero – $3022.80 (driver)
3. Sergio Guzman – $3022.80 (driver)
4. Jaime Hernandez – $2989.80
5. Omar Lopez – $2576.20
6. Antonio Mendez – $156.20
7. Jose Ortego – $3022.80 (driver)
8. Fernando Preza – $3022.80 (driver)
9. Felipe Villegas Quijano – $3869.80
10. Marilu Zepeda – $1240.80 (office administrative functions)
During our discussion on November 22, you did not identify which of these 5 individuals were drivers, but I assume they are the 5 for which you calculated the same amount of back wages. I understand that the individual performing office administrative functions was apparently a female, which I assume is Marilu Zepeda. I have not currently identified which 2 individuals were performing the "machine shop mechanics" jobs or the 2 individuals functioning as "ride supervisors."

I had requested 2 additional weeks within which to evaluate and respond on the following issues:
1. Whether, and the extent to which – these 10 individuals were working outside of their approved job code?
2. If any of these individuals were working outside of their job code, what was the appropriate job code and wage rate? We believe that we may be able to identify job codes in early 2013.
3. Do the math to calculate any back wages.

At this moment, we were not able to investigate this to a conclusion. I have asked my assistant to confirm that the 4 job codes that you have identified were the appropriate ones, or whether an alternative job code is more appropriate. Based on her work schedule, and the holidays, it might not be until the 1st full week in January before she can complete her review.

Nevertheless, let me venture a few observations. Most importantly, as I read the regulations, I do not see any basis for imposing back wages in the event that a worker is working outside of an approved job code.

20 C.F.R. § 655.65 (i) (if "an employer has not paid wages at the wage level specified under the application and required by § 655.22 (e), the Administrator may require the employer to provide for payment of such amounts as may be required to comply with the requirements of § 655.22 (e).") The only responsibility is to pay the "offered wage" that "equals or exceeds the highest of the prevailing wage, the applicable Federal minimum wage, the State minimum wage, and local minimum wage and the employer will pay the offered wage during the entire period of the approved H-2B labor certification." 20 C.F.R. § 655.22 (e). This is very similar to the rule governing civil money penalties for "willful" failure to pay wages, in which event civil money penalties "are equal to the difference between the amount that should have been paid and the amount that actually was paid to such nonimmigrant(s)." 20 C.F.R. § 655.65 (a). In fact, we did pay the offered wage, and that was the only amount that should have been paid "to such nonimmigrants," and I can find no other legal authority for imposing back wages under these circumstances. Further, I can think of no reason why any employer would want to pay back wages under these circumstances, only to have the same allegation leveled as a civil money penalty at some point in the future.

As to the 5 drivers, I will confirm who they are. If I understood our conversation correctly, you credited each of them for 40 hours per week. The problem with this position is that:
1. Assuming for the moment that any of these workers can be paid back wages for working outside of their job code, they only served in the capacity as drivers for a few hours each week. I will try to determine with greater precision what that figure might be.
2. Their actual hours during the audit time period were substantially less than 40 hours per week. I will verify how many hours these individuals worked.

As to the 2 ride supervisors, I am attempting to determine how much of their work time was as a supervisor, rather than the approved ride operator. We are also verifying that their actual hours were less than the 40 hours per week that you calculated.

As to the 2 machine shop mechanics, I am attempting to verify how much of their work time was in this job code, rather than the approved ride operator. The approved job code, 39-3091.00, includes "recording details of ... repair activities," "cleaning" equipment, "inspect equipment to detect wear and damage and perform minor repairs, adjustments or maintenance tasks such as oiling parts," and "maintain inventories of equipment, storing and retrieving items and assembling and disassembling equipment as necessary." Further, we are also verifying that their actual hours were less than 40 hours per week that you calculated.

As to the 1 office worker, I am attempting to verify how much of their work time was in this job code, rather than the approve ride operator. The approved job code, 39-3091.00, specifically contemplates the sort of paperwork that you referenced. For example, this job code includes "record details of attendance, sales, receipts, reservations, or repair activities." Further, we are also verifying that their actual hours were less than the 40 hours per week that you calculated.

February 6, 2018

Michael Brajevich, CEO
Butler Amusements, Inc.
8035 SW CIRRUS DRIVE, SUITE # 21-E
Beaverton, OR 97008

Subject: Administrator's Determination Pursuant to Section 214(c)(14) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) and Applicable Regulations Pertaining to Violations Involving H-2B Nonimmigrant Workers

Reference #: 1689932

Dear Mr. Brajevich:

On January 29, 2018 you were served with a determination letter with certified mail number 1ZW8Y8320292571353. This letter was sent in error. This letter dated February 6, 2018 rescinds and replaces the January 29, 2018 letter.

An investigation conducted by this office of Butler Amusements, Inc. (herein Butler Amusements) under the H-2B provisions of the INA, as amended, 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(H)(ii)(b) et seq., 1184(c)(14), and 20 CFR Part 655, subpart A (2008) and applicable procedural regulations in 29 CFR Part 503 (2015), covering the period from February 1, 2013 to April 24, 2013, disclosed that Butler Amusements committed the following violations regarding the USCIS Form I-129, Petition for a Nonimmigrant Worker (I-129 Petition) and the Application for Temporary Employment Certification (ETA Form 9142 with Appendix B) (9142 Application) filed under the 2008 regulations: substantial failure to comply with the proper job classification requirement. Any I-129 Petition or 9142 Application included in this investigation is listed or enclosed.

The enclosed Summary of Violations and Remedies indicates the specific violation regarding the I-129 Petition and 9142 Application, which we discussed in the final conference, and the remedy imposed for the violation.

As a consequence of this H-2B violation, $24,987.20 in unpaid wages is owed to 9 H-2B nonimmigrant workers. The same violation also resulted in the assessment of civil money penalties in the total amount of $10,000.00. These amounts are explained in detail in the enclosed Summary of Violation and Remedy. Please note that where Butler Amusements violated both an I-129 requirement and the corresponding 9142 Application requirement, the associated back wages and civil money penalties are both listed under the citation on the enclosed Summary of Violation and Remedy. However, the back wages and civil money penalties for such violations will be collected under only one citation.

Butler Amusements is liable for any ongoing violations. Butler Amusements must pay these back wages and civil money penalties no later than 30 calendar days after the date of this determination unless Butler Amusements requests an appeal as described below. The civil money penalties must be paid by submitting a certified check or money order payable to "Wage and Hour Division - Labor" to the Wage and Hour Division, U.S. Department of Labor, 620 SW Main Street, Room 423, Portland, OR 97205.

Butler Amusements must pay back wages in the amounts listed on the Summary of Unpaid Wages, Form WH-56, which was previously provided to Butler Amusements. Butler Amusements is responsible for withholding the legally required deductions (e.g., Federal and State income tax and FICA) and paying these amounts and Butler Amusements' contributions to the appropriate entities. A certified check or money order in the net amount of back wages should be made payable to the names of the individuals owed back wages or "Wage and Hour Division - Labor" to the Wage and Hour Division, U.S. Department of Labor, 620 SW Main Street, Room 423, Portland, OR 97205-3028.

This debt is subject to the assessment of interest, administrative cost charges and penalties in accordance with the Debt Collection Improvement Act of 1996 and U.S. Department of Labor policies. Interest will be assessed at the Treasury Tax and Loan Account rate on any principal that becomes delinquent. The rate is currently 1%. Administrative cost charges will be assessed to help defray the Government's cost of collecting this debt. A penalty at the rate of 6% will be assessed on any portion of the debt remaining delinquent for more than 90 days. In order to avoid these charges, Butler Amusements must forward payment of the civil money penalties to the Wage and Hour Division, U.S. Department of Labor, 620 SW Main Street, Room 423, Portland, OR 97205 by the indicated due date. Please note that any pending bankruptcy action may affect the foregoing remedies. Where appropriate, the Department of Homeland Security and the Department of Labor's Office of Foreign Labor Certification (OFLC) will be notified about H-2B violations.

Additionally, pursuant to 20 CFR 655.31(d)(4) (2008), if Butler Amusements fails to pay the back wages and/or civil money penalties by the indicated due date, OFLC may seek to debar Butler Amusements from receiving future labor certifications for a prescribed period of time.

Butler Amusements has the right to request a hearing on this determination. Such a request must be dated, be typewritten or legibly written, specify the issues stated in this notice of determination on which a hearing is requested, state the specific reasons why the requestor believes this determination to be in error, be signed by the requestor or by an authorized representative, and include the address at which the requestor or the authorized representative desires to receive further communications relating to the hearing request.

The request must be made to and received by the Chief Administrative Law Judge (OALJ) at the following address no later than 30 calendar days after the date of this determination:

Chief Administrative Law Judge
U.S. Department of Labor
800 K Street NW, Room 400 North
Washington, DC 20001-8002

If Butler Amusements does not make a timely request for a hearing, this determination will become a final order of the Secretary of Labor and may no longer be appealed.

The procedure for filing a request for a hearing is provided in 29 C.F.R. 503.43. Please note that 29 CFR 503.43(f) requires that a copy of any such request for a hearing must also be sent to me and to those parties listed below. Due to the delayed delivery of mail in certain areas, you may wish to transmit your request to the OALJ via facsimile at 202-693-7365 to ensure timely receipt.

The fact that the above sanctions/remedies are being imposed for the H-2B violations found at this time does not preclude the taking of other enforcement action as is deemed appropriate by the Department of Labor or the assessment of back wages or civil money penalties for additional violations of the H-2B provisions found at some future time.

RESPONDENTS' DISCLOSURES FOR HYBRID FACT/EXPERT WITNESSES

Pursuant to the Scheduling Order and 29 C.F.R. § 18.50 (c) (2) (iii) Respondents provide the following disclosures:

1. Identification. Plaintiff identifies the following individuals as hybrid fact/expert witnesses who may present expert opinion evidence and whose duties do not regularly involve giving expert opinion testimony:

Mr. Michael Brajevich

Mr. Steve Nittler

2. Subject matter. Mssrs. Brajevich and Nittler may address the following subject matters pursuant to expert opinion testimony:

- Industry custom and practice in the mobile amusement industry.
- Respondents' conformance to industry custom and practice.
- Determination of back wages based upon hours worked in various job codes and areas of intended employment.
- Determination of credits to which Respondents are entitled by virtue of providing housing, relocation travel, local convenience travel, and income tax payments.
- Prejudice to Respondents from late filing.
- Rebuttal of the Administrator's evidence once those theories are identified and elaborated.

3. Opinions and facts. A summary of the facts and opinions to which Mssrs. Brajevich and Nittler are expected to testify include:

Respondents conformed to industry custom and practice in 2013 when providing bunkhouses, relocation travel, and local convenience travel, as well as using a prepayment plan.

Respondents' pay practices conformed to industry custom and practice in 2013.

It is common and customary in the mobile amusement industry in 2013 to provide bunkhouses, relocation travel, and local convenience travel for a wage credit.

It is customary in the mobile amusement industry that the employer is entitled to rely upon his agent to discuss and recommend appropriate job codes.

Respondents are entitled to the credit for

- Bunkhouses reflected in Respondents' Exh. 31 and 47.
- Relocation travel reflected in Respondents' Exh. 34 and 47.
- Local convenience travel reflected in Respondents' Exh. 36 and 47.
- Income tax payments reflected in Respondents' Exh. 37 and 47.
- Overpayment for hours worked reflected in Respondents' Exh. 45, 46, and 47.

Back wages, if any, are calculated and reflected in Respondents' Exh. 47.

Respondents' exemption from the FLSA is determined and reflected in Respondents' Exh. 21.

Respondents were prejudiced by the unnecessary delay in filing the determination letter because of the loss of documentation, witnesses, and memories.

The grounds for these opinions are the discovery conducted in this case; the anticipated trial testimony of the witnesses; Mssrs. Brajevich and Nittler's knowledge regarding industry custom and practice; their factual involvement with Respondents' employment practices and documentation; and his investigations related to the case.

4. Reservation. These disclosures are not intended to be exhaustive or complete in every detail. Respondents reserve the right to amend or supplement these disclosures in light of further discovery, as well as any information provided by the Administrator.

RESPONDENTS' DISCLOSURES FOR HYBRID FACT/EXPERT WITNESSES

Pursuant to the Scheduling Order and 29 C.F.R. § 18.50 (c) (2) (iii) Respondents provide the following disclosures:

1. Identification. Plaintiff identifies the following individuals as hybrid fact/expert witnesses who may present expert opinion evidence and whose duties do not regularly involve giving expert opinion testimony:

Mr. Michael Brajevich

Mr. Steve Nittler

2. Subject matter. Mssrs. Brajevich and Nittler may address the following subject matters pursuant to expert opinion testimony:

- Industry custom and practice in the mobile amusement industry.
- Respondents' conformance to industry custom and practice.
- Determination of back wages based upon hours worked in various job codes and areas of intended employment.
- Determination of credits to which Respondents are entitled by virtue of providing housing, relocation travel, local convenience travel, and income tax payments.
- Prejudice to Respondents from late filing.
- Rebuttal of the Administrator's evidence once those theories are identified and elaborated.

3. Opinions and facts. A summary of the facts and opinions to which Mssrs. Brajevich and Nittler are expected to testify include:

Respondents conformed to industry custom and practice in 2013 when providing bunkhouses, relocation travel, and local convenience travel, as well as using a prepayment plan.

Respondents' pay practices conformed to industry custom and practice in 2013.

It is common and customary in the mobile amusement industry in 2013 to provide bunkhouses, relocation travel, and local convenience travel for a wage credit.

It is customary in the mobile amusement industry that the employer is entitled to rely upon his agent to discuss and recommend appropriate job codes.

Respondents are entitled to the credit for

- Bunkhouses reflected in Respondents' Exh. 31 and 47.
- Relocation travel reflected in Respondents' Exh. 34 and 47.
- Local convenience travel reflected in Respondents' Exh. 36 and 47.
- Income tax payments reflected in Respondents' Exh. 37 and 47.
- Overpayment for hours worked reflected in Respondents' Exh. 45, 46, and 47.

Back wages, if any, are calculated and reflected in Respondents' Exh. 47.

Respondents' exemption from the FLSA is determined and reflected in Respondents' Exh. 21.

Respondents were prejudiced by the unnecessary delay in filing the determination letter because of the loss of documentation, witnesses, and memories.

The grounds for these opinions are the discovery conducted in this case; the anticipated trial testimony of the witnesses; Mssrs. Brajevich and Nittler's knowledge regarding industry custom and practice; their factual involvement with Respondents' employment practices and documentation; and his investigations related to the case.

4. Reservation. These disclosures are not intended to be exhaustive or complete in every detail. Respondents reserve the right to amend or supplement these disclosures in light of further discovery, as well as any information provided by the Administrator.

TSA Travel Information

The TSA has determined that liquids, aerosols and gels, in limited quantities, are safe to bring aboard an aircraft. When packing, please follow these guidelines:

>All liquids, gels and aerosols must be in 3.4 ounce (100ml) or smaller bottles.
>All containers must fit in one quart-sized, clear, plastic, zip-top bag.
>Each passenger is allowed only one bag.
>Each bag must be placed in its own screening bin and X-rayed separately.
>If you are carrying on larger amounts of prescriptions liquid medications, baby formula, and/or diabetic glucose treatments, you must declare these at the security checkpoint.

Arrive at the airport early. Enhanced security measures may mean longer lines at security checkpoints. This new security policy applies to all domestic and international flights departing from U.S. airports. We always recommend checking the TSA Web site (www.tsa.gov) for the most up-to-date information about security procedures. If you are departing from a non-U.S. airport, be sure to check that airport's security policies and pack accordingly.
