

OFCCP

Protecting Workers. Promoting Diversity. Enforcing the Law. Since 1965.

Companies doing business with the Federal Government strengthen America's middle class by hiring

A DIVERSE WORKFORCE

Companies doing business with the Federal Government must treat workers

FAIRLY & WITHOUT DISCRIMINATION

OPENING DOORS OF OPPORTUNITY
FOR ALL WORKERS

Companies doing business with the Federal Government must

PAY ALL WORKERS FAIRLY

OFFICE OF FEDERAL CONTRACT COMPLIANCE PROGRAMS
UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

If you believe that you have experienced discrimination contact OFCCP

1-800-397-6251 | TTY 877-889-5627 | www.dol.gov/ofccp

The Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs is a civil rights agency responsible for enforcing the requirements that companies doing business with the Federal Government take affirmative action to employ women, minorities, people with disabilities, and protected veterans and that they not discriminate.