ORDER GRANTING FEE PETITION

Before: ALEC J. KOROMILAS, Chief Judge PATRICIA H. FITZGERALD, Deputy Chief Judge JAMES D. McGINLEY, Alternate Judge

Counsel for appellant has filed a fee petition in the amount of 2,692.00.¹ The Board notes that all petitions for approval of fees for representative's services are considered under the Board's statutory authority found at section 8127 of the Federal Employees' Compensation Act,² (FECA) and under its Rules of Procedure found at 20 C.F.R. § 501.9(e).³

² 5 U.S.C. § 8127.

³ 20 C.F.R. § 501.9(e).

¹ FECA (5 U.S.C. § 8127(b)) and its implementing regulations (20 C.F.R. § 501.9) clearly require the Board to review each fee petition on its own merits and with regard to the unique facts and issues of each appeal. The recognition that each appeal to the Board has unique aspects is reflected in the Board's orders granting or denying fee petitions.

Pursuant to its regulation, the Board must consider the fee petition under the following criteria:

- (1) The usefulness of the Representative's services;⁴
- (2) The nature and complexity of the appeal;⁵
- (3) The capacity in which the Representative has appeared; 6
- (4) The actual time spent in connection with the Board appeal;⁷ and
- (5) Customary local charges for similar services.⁸

As required by the Board's regulations, appellant has been afforded written notice of the fee requested and provided an opportunity to comment on the fee petition.⁹

The requested fees pertain to services performed before the Board in the above-referenced appeal. The underlying issue was whether the Office of Workers Compensation Programs (OWCP) properly determined that appellant's requests for reconsideration were insufficient to warrant merit review of the claim pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 8128(a). On appeal, counsel submitted an eight-page brief arguing that appellant had submitted new legal argument and relevant evidence sufficient to warrant a merit review.

In a July 21, 2017 decision, the Board found that OWCP properly found that appellant' requests for reconsideration did not meet the requirements for a merit review of the claim and affirmed OWCP's November 18 and August 12, 2016 decisions.

On July 30, 2017 counsel provided a fee petition requesting approval of fees totaling $2,692.00. The fee petition requests approval of time from November 29, 2016 through July 24, 2017, and documents 5.1 hours spent in connection with this appeal at $475.00 per hour for

⁴ The Board's consideration of "usefulness" includes, but is not limited to, the frequency and quality of communication by the representative with the client, the factual evidence and legal argument offered and written pleadings filed in the case. The Board will also consider the usefulness of a representative's work as it aided the Board in its consideration and decision of the issue appealed.

⁵ The Board's evaluation of the "nature and complexity" of an appeal includes, but is not limited to, whether the issue appealed is novel or required extensive or unusual factual evidence or legal argument. The Board recognizes that not all complex issues are cases of first impression. However, the representative must establish the complex or unusual nature of the appeal.

⁷ The Board's evaluation of an itemized statement of work and charges includes, but is not limited to, whether the statement is clear, detailed, and describes those aspects of the appeal which merit the fee claimed and whether the representative has personally affirmed the correctness of the fee. No stipulated or contingent fee will be approved by the Board. 20 C.F.R. § 501.9(e).

⁸ The Board's consideration of customary, local fees recognizes that representatives often have clients in several states and that local custom must be balanced against national practice in the FECA appeals.

⁹ 20 C.F.R. § 501.9(e). The Board notes that included with the representative's fee petition was a signed statement from appellant indicating that she agreed with the requested fee for services rendered.

Daniel S. Goodwin, Esquire, 0.1 hours of services by Steven E. Brown, Esquire, at $550.00 per hour, and 1.1 hours for paralegal Jessica Duncan at $195.00 per hour.

The Board has reviewed the fee petition and finds that it satisfies the requirements of section 501.9(e) of the Board's implementing regulations. The Board concludes that the fee requested is reasonable.

The Board notes that under 20 C.F.R. § 501.9(e) "[n]o claim for a fee for legal or other service performed on appeal before the Board is valid unless approved by the Board." Under 18 U.S.C. § 292, collecting a fee without the approval of the Board may constitute a misdemeanor, subject to fine or imprisonment for up to a year or both."

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT the fee petition is granted in the amount of $2,692.00.
