Notice of Plan Status

Participants, Beneficiaries, Participating Unions, and Contributing Employers:

The US Congress enacted the Pension Protection Act (PPA or Act) of 2006, in part, to improve the financial condition of pension plans by ensuring that pension plans have the assets necessary to fund pension benefits when participants retire. The Act implemented several safeguards aimed at improving plan funding levels as well as notification requirements to share more information about a plan's "financial health" with participants and others related to the plan.

Many of the Act's safeguard provisions relate to funding, which, in simplest terms, is how much a plan has coming in, going out, and what is in reserve (or "in the bank") to pay pension benefits in the future. These safeguards are intended to create more discipline in determining the funding strategy for pension benefits to prevent avoidable funding problems.

The Act requires that pension plans be tested annually to determine how well they are funded. The Act established formal benchmarks for measuring a plan's funding. Plans that are in the yellow ("endangered") or red ("critical") zones must notify all plan participants, unions, and contributing employers of the plan's status, as well as take corrective action to restore the plan's financial health.

Plan's Status – Yellow Zone

For the Plan year beginning November 1, 2009, the Pension Plan is less than 80% funded. The Pension Fund's actuary provided this certification based on the Act's funding measures. As a result, the Pension Plan was categorized as being in the yellow "endangered" zone.

Funding Improvement Plan

Yellow zone status is like an early warning to focus on correcting problems to prevent more serious funding trouble. To comply with the Act, a Funding Improvement Plan, designed to improve the Plan's funded position, will be adopted before September 26, 2010. Once the Funding Improvement Plan is adopted, employers and unions will be notified of the items that will need to be covered in new or renewed collective bargaining agreements.

What's Next

While no changes are being made at this time, once the Funding Improvement Plan is adopted, any necessary changes will be communicated to all affected individuals and/or parties. However please note that since the Plan's financial condition generally changes with changes in the economy, the Act requires that the Plan's funding status be reviewed and certified annually, which means that you will receive a notice like this each year until the Pension Plan is no longer in the yellow zone.

We understand that legally required notices like this one can create concern about the Pension Plan's future. While the "endangered" label is required to be used by law, the fact is that we have been working with our actuaries and consultants for some time now to address these issues. The Funding Improvement Plan will be shared with you once it has been finalized. Please be aware that improving the Plan's funded status is a top priority and we are committed to taking any actions necessary to ensure your benefits will be there when you retire.
