INTRODUCTION

The majority of the U.S. population receives their health insurance coverage through their employer. In 2009, employer-sponsored health insurance covered 56 percent of the U.S. population.<sup>1</sup> There are a variety of ways in which plan sponsors (usually employers) may fund the health insurance coverage they offer their workers.<sup>2</sup>

What Is a Self-Insured Group Health Plan?

Sponsors may purchase a group insurance policy from a state-licensed insurance carrier or similar organization and pay premiums directly to the insurer. Plans may set aside assets in a dedicated trust to fund the health plan, an arrangement known as a “funded” arrangement for Form 5500 reporting purposes. Alternatively plan sponsors may pay the plan’s benefits directly out of their general assets, an arrangement known as “unfunded” for Form 5500 reporting purposes. In addition, these funding arrangements – insured, funded, and unfunded – may be combined in multiple ways. For example, a group insurance policy may cover a subset of the plan’s health benefits but the plan’s remaining health benefits may be paid out of the plan sponsor’s general assets. Plans may use assets held in a dedicated trust to pay insurance premiums or to pay plan benefits directly. Whether a plan is considered to be self-insured, fully-insured, or a mixture of both is a function of how the benefits are provided under the plan.

Fully-insured – A fully-insured plan provides health benefits by purchasing a group health insurance policy or contract from a state-licensed insurance carrier or similar organization, such as Blue Cross Blue Shield. The insurance carrier then assumes financial responsibility for the covered health benefit claims of the plan’s participants and associated administrative costs.<sup>3</sup> An employer with a fully-insured health plan chooses how to transfer insurance premiums<sup>4</sup> to the insurance carrier: The plan either establishes a trust for the express purpose of receiving contributions for the payment of insurance premiums or pays the premiums directly from the plan sponsor’s general assets.

Self-insured – In the case of a self-insured health plan, the sponsor generally assumes the financial risks associated with covering the health benefit expenses of the plan’s participants. Benefits in a self-insured plan may be paid as needed directly from the general assets of the sponsoring employer or paid from a trust<sup>5</sup> to which employer and/or employee contributions have been made. While some self-insured plans are self-administered, employers usually enter into a contract with a third party administrator (TPA) or use another outside entity to handle enrollment, pay claims, collect premiums, provide customer service, and perform other administrative duties.

The financial risk for self-insured benefit claims may be borne partially or entirely by the employer offering the self-insured plan. To protect against unexpectedly large claims, self-insured plans or employers sponsoring such plans may obtain stop-loss insurance coverage. Stop-loss coverage limits the liability (stops the loss) the plan or employer bears for each covered person's health care costs (in the case of policies with individual or specific attachment points) or for the total expenses of the plan (aggregate attachment points), as the stop-loss carrier will reimburse the plan or employer for losses above the policies attachment points.<sup>6</sup>

Form 5500 Health Plan Filing Requirements

The Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA") and the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended ("Code"), establish certain reporting and filing obligations for private-sector employee benefit plans. Plans generally are required to file an annual return/report concerning, among other things, the financial condition and operations of the plan.

<sup>6</sup> An employer may also purchase a "minimum premium" arrangement in which the employer pays a fraction of the fully-insured premium to cover non-claim expenses, such as administration and claims processing, and pays claims up to an agreed-upon limit, after which the insurance carrier is responsible. Under a minimum premium arrangement, the insurance carrier usually is also responsible for processing claims and administrative services. See e.g., U.S. Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics, Definitions of Health Insurance Terms, at <http://www.bls.gov/ncs/ebs/sp/healthterms.pdf>. Last viewed February 24, 2011.

In 1975, the Department of Labor (the "Department"), the Internal Revenue Service, and the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation (collectively, the "Agencies") jointly developed the Form 5500 Series to allow employers who sponsor an employee benefit plan for their employees to satisfy the annual reporting requirements under Title I and Title IV of ERISA and under the Code. The Agencies have changed the Form 5500 over time. Today, filing the Form 5500 together with any required Schedules and Attachments (the "Form 5500") generally satisfies these annual reporting requirements.<sup>7</sup>

The Form 5500 is an important source of information on ERISA-covered, private sector employer-sponsored benefit plans and their operation, funding, assets, and investments. The majority of Form 5500 reports are filed for employee pension benefit plans. Welfare benefit plans (which includes plans providing benefits such as medical, dental, life insurance, severance pay, disability, etc.) are required to file a Form 5500, with certain exceptions tied to plans' size, funding arrangement, and sector. These exceptions are listed below:<sup>8</sup>

- Welfare plans with fewer than 100 participants as of the beginning of the plan year ("small" plans) that are unfunded, fully-insured, or a combination of insured and unfunded<sup>9</sup>;

<sup>7</sup> See ERISA Section 101 et seq., 29 U.S.C. 1021 et seq. and accompanying regulations. The data used for this report were taken from the Form 5500 data for plan years 2008 and earlier. For plan years beginning on or after January 1, 2009, certain eligible small plans are able to file the Form 5500-SF "Short Form Annual Return/Report of Small Employee Benefit Plan." Small plans using the Form 5500-SF include information about total fees and commissions paid with respect to the purchase of insurance.

<sup>9</sup> An unfunded welfare benefit plan has its benefits paid as needed directly from the general assets of the employer or employee organization that sponsors the plan. A combination unfunded/insured welfare benefit plan has

- Welfare plans maintained outside the U. S. that serve mostly nonresident aliens;
- Governmental plans;
- Unfunded or insured welfare plans maintained for a select group of management or highly compensated employees only;
- Plans maintained only to comply with workers' compensation, unemployment compensation, or disability insurance laws;
- Welfare benefit plans that participate in a group insurance arrangement that files a Form 5500 on behalf of the participating plans;
- Apprenticeship or training plans meeting certain conditions;
- Certain unfunded welfare benefit plans financed by dues;
- Church plans;
- Welfare benefit plans maintained solely for only the owner and/or spouse who wholly own a trade or business or the partners and/or spouses of partners in a partnership.

A small plan that receives employee (or former employee) contributions during the plan year and does not use the contributions to pay insurance premiums or uses a trust or separately maintained fund to hold plan assets or act as a conduit for the transfer of plan assets during the year is required to file; except that a small plan with employee contributions that are used to pay benefits instead of insurance premiums which is associated with a cafeteria plan under its benefits partially as an unfunded plan and partially as a fully-insured plan. An example of such a plan is a welfare benefit plan that provides unfunded medical benefits and life insurance benefits.

Internal Revenue Code section 125 may be treated for annual reporting purposes as an unfunded welfare plan if it meets certain Department requirements.

For purposes of this report, Form 5500 health plans are categorized as being self-insured, fully-insured, or a mix of both self-insured and fully-insured ("mixed-insured"). The Department used information from the 2008 Form 5500 on plans' funding arrangements, together with information from Schedule A "Insurance Information," Schedule H "Financial Information," and Schedule I "Financial Information - Small Plan" to categorize the plans as follows:

- (1) Self-insured. The plan does not include information on a health insurance policy or contract in any Schedule A filed as part of the Form 5500 and the filing either:
  - (a) indicates the plan is funded through a trust or general assets of the sponsor, or
  - (b) the filing includes a Schedule H or Schedule I.
- (2) Mixed-insured. The plan does not meet the requirements in (1) and
  - (a) the number of individuals covered under insurance contracts as reported on the Schedule A is less than half of the total number of participants as of the end of the plan year, or
  - (b) the filing's Schedule H indicates that benefits were paid directly to participants or
  - (c) the plan attaches a Schedule I.
- (3) Fully-insured. The plan does not meet the criteria in (1) or (2).

For purposes of this report, private sector employer-sponsored health plans were also divided into six distinct categories based on the Form 5500 filing requirements:

- Small plans that fully-insure their health plan;

- Small plans (covering fewer than 100 participants as of the beginning of the year) that self-insure but do not have a trust;
- Small plans that self-insure their health plan, and use a trust to hold the plan assets;
- Large plans (covering 100 or more participants as of the beginning of the year) that fully-insure health plans;
- Large plans that self-insure and use a trust to hold the plan assets; and
- Large plans that self-insure but do not operate a trust.

Generally, small group health plans that fully-insure benefits or self-insure benefits but do not have a trust are not required to file a Form 5500.<sup>10</sup> All large welfare plans that fully-insure or self-insure benefits without a trust must file, but are only required to file the main Form 5500 and the Schedule A to report information about insurance contracts.

The following tables summarize Form 5500 data for health plans that file. In many cases, the reported data reflect adjustments made to correct inaccuracies within the data. For 2008 and prior plan year filings, some plans filed paper copies of the Form 5500 and these filings were scanned in order to compile data. During the scanning process, information from the forms was not always accurately captured. Therefore, the data presented in the following tables have been edited to accurately reflect the original information provided. In addition to inaccuracies introduced by scanning, some filings are received with logical inconsistencies. For instance, some plans which are categorized as fully-insured due to the presence of a Schedule A for health insurance do not report being funded by insurance. Many of these inconsistencies have been corrected by imputing Form 5500 information based on other information reported. It should be noted here, however, that information from Schedule A is always reported as filed, i.e., no Schedule A information has been edited or imputed.

<sup>10</sup> Large plans that use a trust to hold the plan assets to self-insure health benefits are required to file a comprehensive Form 5500, including a Schedule H to report financial information about the plan's operations. Those small plans that use a trust to self-insure their health benefits are required to file a simplified Form 5500 that includes more abbreviated financial information about the plan's operation.

HIGHLIGHTS FROM THE 2008 FORM 5500 REPORTS

The universe of group health insurance plans filing a Form 5500 is a diverse and complicated one. Varying benefit structures, funding arrangements, and relationships to insurance all lend to this complexity. Of the nearly 42,000 group health insurance plans that filed a Form 5500 in 2008, 81 percent offered benefits in addition to health benefits. These additional benefits included dental, vision, life, disability, etc. One-fourth of the filing plans that offer health and one or more other benefits self-insure their health benefits, 14 percent can be described as having self-insured and fully-insured characteristics (mixed-insurance) for their health benefits, and 61 percent have fully-insured their health benefits. Additionally, 59 percent of all single employer plans that filed a Form 5500 provide fully-insured health benefits. Multiemployer plans are much less likely to provide fully-insured health benefits; only 25 percent of those plans did so in 2008.

Other findings from health plans filing Form 5500 series welfare reports for plan year 2008 are summarized below.

- In 2008, more than 12,000, or 29 percent, of the approximately 42,000 group health plans that filed a Form 5500 can be categorized as self-insured. This is down from 13,000 in 2007. Of the remaining 30,000 group health plans that filed, approximately 6,000 can be categorized as mixed-insured, and 24,000 can be categorized as fully-insured.
- Approximately 11,000 of the plans categorized as self-insured are single employer plans; the remaining 1,000 are multiemployer plans. Of the 6,000 plans categorized as mixed-insured, 5,000 are single employer, and 1,000 are multiemployer. Approximately 23,000 plans categorized as fully-insured are single employer; the remaining 1,000 plans are multiemployer.
- Almost 9,000 filing plans categorized as self-insured covered 100 or more participants and did not operate a trust. Fewer than 3,000 mixed-insured plans covered 100 or more participants and did not operate a trust, and 23,000 fully-insured plans covered more than 100 participants and did not operate a trust.
- Approximately 34,000 health plans that filed a Form 5500 offered an additional welfare benefit: approximately 69 percent of the self-insured health plans, 89 percent of the mixed-insured health plans, and 86 percent of the fully-insured health plans offered a benefit in addition to health insurance.
- Of the almost 24,000 fully-insured health plans filing a Form 5500, approximately 23,000 plans, 98 percent, are single employer plans. Most, 86 percent, of mixed-insured health plans are single employer.
- In total, health plans that filed a Form 5500 held about $125 billion in assets as of the end of 2008. Self-insured plans held almost $35 billion; mixed-insured plans held almost $84 billion; and the remaining $7 billion was held by fully-insured plans.
- Self-insured group health plans covering 100 or more participants held approximately 33 percent of their assets in cash and U.S. Government Securities, 18 percent in direct filing entities, 17 percent in mutual fund companies (registered investment companies), 10 percent in debt instruments, and 8 percent in stock. Mixed-insured group health plans covering 100 or more participants held approximately 17 percent of their assets in cash and U.S. Government Securities, 35 percent in direct filing entities, 10 percent in mutual fund companies (registered investment companies), 7 percent in debt instruments, and 12 percent in stock. Fully-insured group health plans covering 100 or more participants held approximately 22 percent of their assets in cash and U.S. Government Securities, 25 percent in direct filing entities, 10 percent in mutual fund companies (registered investment companies), 8 percent in debt instruments, and 10 percent in stock.

- Form 5500 health plan filers reported almost $21 billion in liabilities as of the end of 2008: almost $7 billion was reported by self-insured plans, $13 billion by mixed-insured plans, and $900 million by fully-insured plans.
- Of the over 65 million participants in filing health plans, approximately 34 percent, or 22 million, were covered under self-insured plans.<sup>12</sup>
- Of the 42,000 group health plans that filed, approximately 16,000 indicated a funding arrangement of insurance only, fewer than 3,000 indicated a funding arrangement of a trust only, and fewer than 15,000 indicated a funding arrangement of general assets of the sponsor and insurance. The remaining 8,000 filers indicated some other combination of funding arrangements or did not report any arrangement.
- Overall, filing health plans reported on their 2008 Form 5500 receiving approximately $137 billion in contributions in 2008, almost $111 billion contributed by the employer and $24 billion contributed by the plan participants.

Approximately $136 billion of these contributions were contributed to large plans that used a trust.

- In 2008, health plans filing a Form 5500 that used trusts posted investment income losses of over $24 billion of which almost $3 billion was lost by self-insured health plans, $20 billion by mixed-insured health plans, and $1 billion by fully-insured health plans.
- Self-insured health plans that filed made benefit payments of about $26 billion directly to participants and almost $4 billion to insurance carriers for the provision of other insured benefits. Mixed-insured health plans made benefit payments to participants totaling about $66 billion and made payments to insurance carriers of $25 billion. Fully-insured health plans made benefit payments to participants of approximately $23 million and made payments to insurance carriers of $8 billion.
- In total, filing health plans reported approximately $8 billion in administrative expenses. Self-insured plans reported over $2 billion; mixed-insured plans reported over $5 billion; and fully-insured plans reported under $450 million.

<sup>12</sup> However, this is a data restriction that results from the filing exemption provided to welfare benefit plans covering fewer than 100 participants (small plans) which are unfunded, fully-insured, or a combination of insured and unfunded.

Note: Excludes plans (a) covering only one participant, (b) which are not required to file, or (c) indicate they are terminating.

Note: The panel for plans with 100 or more participants and no trusts was not reported as these plans are not required to file a Schedule H; thus, these plans have no financial information to report.

1/ Includes single employer plans, plans of controlled groups of corporations and multiple-employer noncollectively bargained plans.

2/ Includes multiemployer plans and multiple-employer collectively bargained plans.

3/ For Schedule I filers, Other Benefit Payments is equal to Benefits Paid reported on Schedule I.

4/ For 2008 and earlier, Schedule I filers report administrative expenses as other expenses. Therefore, administrative expenses for Schedule I filers are not reported here. For 2009 and later, Schedule I filers will report administrative expenses separately.

5/ Includes only plans with fewer than 100 participants as of the end of the plan year.

**/ Fewer than $500,000.

Note: Excludes plans (a) covering only one participant, (b) which are not required to file, or (c) indicate they are terminating.

Note: Values in this table are representative of the indication of funding arrangement (Form 5500 line item 9(a)) and benefit arrangement (Form 5500 line item 9(b)) as originally reported by the plans. Plans were categorized into the three subpanels of (1) plans with 100 or more Participants & Trusts, (2) Plans with 100 or more Participants & No Trust, and (3) Plans with fewer than 100 Participants & Trusts based on the response to either the funding arrangement indicator, benefit arrangement indicator, or the inclusion of a financial schedule. Thus, this table shows a positive number of plans on the rows for Insurance only in the panels for Plans with Trusts.

1/ Includes single employer plans, plans of controlled groups of corporations and multiple-employer noncollectively bargained plans.

2/ Includes multiemployer plans and multiple-employer collectively bargained plans.

3/ Funding arrangements were adjusted to match the categorization of the plans as self-insured, partially insured, or insured.

4/ Includes only plans with fewer than 100 participants as of the end of the plan year.

1/ Type of Insurance Contracts represents information reported on Schedule A. This information is reported as filed on Schedule A with the following exception. For fully-insured and mixed-insured plans that do not attach a Schedule A for health insurance contracts, Schedule A is assumed to indicate one health insurance contract. The result is that insured and partially insured plans that would be listed under the categories of (a) No Insurance, (b) Stop-Loss, (c) Other, or (d) Stop-Loss and Other instead are listed under the categories of (e) Health, (f) Health and Stop-Loss, and (g) Health, Stop-Loss, and Other.

2/ Includes active, retired, and separated participants either receiving benefits or entitled to future benefits.

3/ Other Insurance Contracts include dental, vision, life, temporary disability, long-term disability, supplemental unemployment, and prescription drug.

4/ Includes only plans with fewer than 100 participants as of the end of the plan year.
