The proposal to annuitize 401K and IRA plans is unacceptable. It seems to be a socialist plan to increase mediocrity in the general population – something we need no more of. Considering the government has done such a terrible job of handling tax money – it would be ludicrous to give them any more.