General Comment

Contraception is part preventive care for women, and access to wide-ranging contraceptive care is in the best interest of women's health, children, and our communities.

It is essential to support cost-sharing for preventive care services like contraception.

People should not have to accept anymore unnecessary and unreasonable delays in access to contraceptive care as preventative health services.