Dear commettee panel

Im sorry to write you regarding the email i sent you just yesterday stating that i was grateful because i was getting medication through medicaid helping me out with my substance abuse, but no anymore. I been denied with no notice so my not getting any HELP and im now desperate cuz im doing well but forced to quit my suboxone program and Im very SCARED i dont even kno whare to get help. Dont understand how i can get cutoff without any explanation or recourse. It almost seems like they rather i go back on drugs. I guess medicais thinks if i got use again then maybe i would die then they wouldnt have to help me out. They really make it hard if you are and addict trying to donright. Maybe you know where I can go for help? THANK YOU AGAIN FOR YOUR TIME AND YOUR CONSIDERATION Irene M. Rosales
