

PROCLAMATION

BY

MAYOR STEPHANIE RAWLINGS-BLAKE

DESIGNATING MARCH 4, 2013

AS

“UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF LABOR DAY”

IN BALTIMORE

IN RECOGNITION OF THEIR 100TH ANNIVERSARY

WHEREAS, for the past 100 years, the United States Department of Labor has fostered, promoted, and developed the welfare of wage earners, job seekers, and retirees of this country; and

WHEREAS, the United States Department of Labor has continually sought to make the American workplace safer, healthier, and fairer for everyone; and

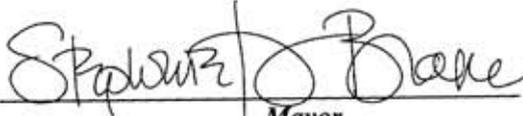

WHEREAS, the United States Department of Labor has evolved to meet the changing needs of a changing workforce by partnering with employers, community organizations, and institutes of higher learning to improve job training, lifelong learning opportunities, and advance efforts for profitable employment; and

WHEREAS, working families in the City of Baltimore, across the country, and across the world have benefitted from the United States Department of Labor's efforts to assure work-related benefits and rights, including the right to be paid fairly and for every hour; and

WHEREAS, the City of Baltimore wishes the United States Department of Labor a happy and successful centennial celebration! Congratulations!

THEREFORE, I, STEPHANIE RAWLINGS-BLAKE, MAYOR OF THE CITY OF BALTIMORE, do hereby proclaim March 4, 2013, as “UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF LABOR DAY” IN BALTIMORE, and do urge all citizens to join in this celebration.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set the Great Seal of the City of Baltimore to be affixed this fourth of March, two thousand thirteen.

Mayor
