February 28, 2013

Greetings,

On behalf of the citizens of Maine, I would like to recognize March 4, 2013 as the Centennial celebration of the U.S. Department of Labor.

For 100 years the United States Department of Labor has fostered, promoted, and developed the welfare of wage earners, job seekers, and retirees of this great country. Working families in Maine have benefitted from the U.S. Department of Labor and Maine Department of Labor's efforts to meet the changing needs of a changing workforce. They have done this by partnering with employers, community organizations and institutions of higher learning to assess the skills and resources that will be needed to help workers earn rewarding careers.

I, Paul R. LePage, Governor of the State of Maine, would like to recognize the Centennial celebration of the U.S. Department of Labor and wish them continued success.

Sincerely,

Paul R. LePage
Governor of Maine
