

CITY OF SAN JOSE
Commendation

WHEREAS, For the past 100 years, the United States Department of Labor has fostered, promoted, and developed the welfare of wage earners, job seekers, and retirees of this country; and continually sought to make the American workplace safer, healthier and fairer for everyone; allowing for working families to benefit from the United States Department of Labor's efforts to assure work-related benefits and rights, including the right to be paid fairly for every hour labored; and

WHEREAS, The United States Department of Labor has evolved to meet the changing needs of a changing workforce by partnering with employers, community organizations and institutions of higher learning to improve job training, provide lifelong learning opportunities and advance efforts for profitable employment; training veterans and young people for the careers of a lifetime; and guaranteeing the pensions of retired workers; and

WHEREAS, The inestimable value of the services provided by the United States Department of Labor will remain of paramount importance to the well-being of all Americans and that it will address tomorrow's conditions, and meet the needs of future workers with the same insight, foresight and passion it has shown for the past century;

NOW, THEREFORE I, Mayor Chuck Reed, along with Councilmember Sam Liccardo and the rest of our colleagues on the San José City Council, on this 4th day of March 2013, do hereby recognize the

on it's Centennial Anniversary of meeting the needs of workers with insight, foresight and passion.
