PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the demand for skilled workers continues to increase in Wyoming, Apprenticeship is an industry-led proven training model, designed to meet this demand, as well as retrain workers needed to diversify Wyoming’s economy for generations to come; and

WHEREAS, Apprenticeship is a unique, flexible, training system that combines industry-directed technical instruction with structured, paid, on-the-job learning experiences, which contributes to increased hiring and retention rates; and

WHEREAS, Apprenticeship training models prepare Wyoming workers to compete in a diverse economy while keeping pace with technological advancements and occupation-based innovations; and

WHEREAS, today in Laramie, CyberWyoming has taken the step to develop a Department of Labor registered Apprenticeship program to train CyberSecurity Technicians in Wyoming; and

WHEREAS, Wyoming employers have developed and led Apprenticeship training programs since the late 1930's, resulting in rewarding technical careers, offering livable wages, most often without college debt; and

WHEREAS, Apprenticeship is a pathway for technical training, higher education, industry licensing, portable and stackable credentialing, required by industry in Laramie and Wyoming.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Andi Summerville, acting as Mayor and President of the governing body of the City of Laramie, Wyoming, do hereby proclaim the week of November 12-16, 2018 as

LARAMIE APPRENTICESHIP WEEK:

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Executive Seal of the City of Laramie to be affixed this 7th day of November 2018.

Andi Summerville
Mayor

Attest:

Nancy Bartholomew
City Clerk