PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS. The trained professionals who help the State of Nevada move toward economic prosperity, often form the skills of their trade through apprenticeships that help train an innovative workforce that possesses proficiencies and experiences necessary for a positive future; and

WHEREAS. Registered Apprenticeship programs are an outstanding method for on-the-job learning to create highly skilled and diverse workforce that continues to drive Nevada’s success; and

WHEREAS. Apprenticeship programs offer paid positions to Nevada’s workers while they gain expertise and professional development from master craftspeople in more than 1,000 occupations registered with the United States Department of Labor; and

WHEREAS. Nevada’s Registered Apprenticeship programs provide opportunities in fields as diverse as construction, health care, manufacturing, tourism, government, and technology; and

WHEREAS. In Nevada, the State Apprenticeship Council regulates apprenticeships and provides oversight to more than 80 registered programs with over 3,000 registered apprentices; and

WHEREAS. The annual National Apprenticeship Week gives community leaders an opportunity to demonstrate support for apprenticeship programs and commend the many hardworking apprentices throughout Nevada; and

WHEREAS. During the National Apprenticeship Week, celebrations are organized to include apprenticeship signing ceremonies, and graduations across Nevada and the United States of America; now, therefore, be it PROCLAIMED. That the members of Nevada’s Registered Apprenticeship programs are recognized for the contributions they make to the vitality of our state; and be it further PROCLAIMED. That November 12 through 18, 2018, is recognized as the fourth annual National Apprenticeship Week in the State of Nevada.

DATED this 12th day of November, 2018.

Kelvin D. Atkinson
Nevada State Senator

Jason Frierson
Nevada State Assemblyman