SHERIDAN APPRENTICESHIP WEEK PROCLAMATION
November 12th-16th 2018

WHEREAS, the demand for skilled workers continues to increase in Sheridan, Apprenticeship is an industry-led proven training model, designed to meet this demand, as well as retrain workers needed to diversify Wyoming’s economy for generations to come; and

WHEREAS, Apprenticeship is a unique, flexible, training system that combines industry-directed technical instruction with structured, paid, on-the-job learning experiences, which contributes to increased hiring and retention rates; and

WHEREAS, Apprenticeship training models prepare Sheridan workers to compete in a diverse economy while keeping pace with technological advancements and occupation-based innovations; and

WHEREAS, today in Sheridan, eleven (11) businesses have taken the steps to develop a Department of Labor registered Apprenticeship program to train their technical workforce; and

WHEREAS, Sheridan employers have developed and led Apprenticeship training programs since the late 1930’s, resulting in rewarding technical careers, offering livable wages, most often without college debt; and

WHEREAS, Apprenticeship is a pathway for technical training, higher education, industry licensing, portable and stackable credentialing, required by industry in Sheridan and Wyoming.

Now, Therefore, I, Roger Miller, Mayor of the City of Sheridan, do hereby proclaim the week of November 12th – 16th 2018 to be SHERIDAN APPRENTICESHIP WEEK in Sheridan, Wyoming.

Dated this 5th day of November 2018.

Roger Miller, Mayor
City of Sheridan
