

Proclamation

Be it known that

Whereas,

President Barack Obama proclaimed the week of November 2, 2015, as the first Annual National Apprenticeship Week; and

Whereas,

NAW offers Registered Apprenticeship Sponsors the opportunity to showcase their programs, facilities, and apprentices, and gives employers, educators, industry associations, labor organizations, elected officials and other critical partners the opportunity to highlight how Registered Apprenticeship meets their needs for a skilled workforce; and

Whereas,

Last year's Inaugural National Apprenticeship Week was highly successful, spurring over 300 events in 47 States across the Country. President Obama kicked off the week with a Presidential Proclamation which started a movement that generated 57 additional State and Local proclamations. This year, the second annual National Apprenticeship Week will take place November 14-20, 2016;

Now, Therefore,

I, Steve Adler, Mayor of the City of Austin, Texas, do hereby proclaim

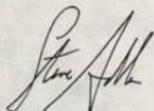

November 14-20, 2016

as

National Apprenticeship Week

in Austin.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the City of Austin to be affixed this 14th Day of November in the Year Two Thousand Sixteen

Steve Adler, Mayor, City of Austin
