

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, National Apprenticeship Week offers leaders in business, labor, education, workforce and other critical partners the opportunity to express their support for Registered Apprenticeship and provides stakeholders with quality apprenticeships a chance to showcase their programs, facilities, and apprentices; and

WHEREAS, National Apprenticeship Week offers initiatives as an important resource in our shared efforts to meet the national challenge to double the number of apprentices by 2019; and

WHEREAS, National Apprenticeship Week will ensure that Registered Apprenticeship plays an important role in building a workforce that meets the needs of employers across all industries; and

WHEREAS, National Apprenticeship Week helps people upgrade their skills and keep pace with the demands of the 21st century and across America, employers, educators, labor leaders, and elected officials are joining together to encourage and support apprenticeships; and

WHEREAS, During National Apprenticeship Week, let us support and encourage apprenticeship programs that will help rebuild our middle class, and let us rededicate ourselves to educate more of our people, retraining our workforce, and renewing our Nation's promise to put the American dream within the reach of the determined; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mary M. Dennis, Mayor of the City of Live Oak, proclaim and in recognition thereof, do hereby proclaim November 14 through November 20, 2016, to be:

National Apprenticeship Week 2016

In the City of Live Oak, Texas.

In witness hereof, I hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Live Oak to be affixed this the 16th day of November 2016.

Mary M. Dennis

Mary M. Dennis, Mayor
City of Live Oak, Texas