

Metropolitan Community College, Omaha Nebraska
Proclamation
Registered Apprenticeship Awareness Week

- Whereas, Metropolitan Community College, recognizes the economic demand for Nebraskans with postsecondary education and training credential and the ability to respond immediately to changing economic and business needs; and
- Whereas; Registered Apprenticeship is a vital component of talent development in many high demand and high growth sectors and is recognized as critical training and employment option; and
- Whereas; Registered Apprenticeship Programs strengthen the economy by providing highly qualified workers with versatile skills and credentials that are recognized nationally and globally; and
- Whereas; Metropolitan Community College recognizes the strength and leadership resulting from the partnership of Community College, federal and state, agencies and the sponsors of Registered Apprenticeship Programs; and
- Whereas; Those in Registered Apprenticeship Programs can “earn while they learn” and often receive academic credit as they advance; and
- Whereas; Sponsors of Registered Apprenticeship Programs offer educational opportunities through on-the-job learning while attending Metropolitan Community College which enhance the economic vitality of the Apprentice, Employer, City, State and Country.
- Now, therefore, I, Randy Schmailzl, President of Metropolitan Community College in Omaha, Nebraska, do hereby proclaim November 14 through 20, 2016 as “Registered Apprenticeship Awareness Week” and urge all citizens to learn more about the value of these programs.
