Dear Kathleen Sebelius, Secretary of Health & Human Services,

I cannot thank you enough for your recent decision to cover the full cost of contraception, with no co-pay, beginning in August 2012.

Amidst what sometimes feels like a chronic degrading of women's health in federal policy, this decision places a much-needed priority on family health. Birth control is a critical part of preventive care, and making contraception available to all women, regardless of their insurance or ability to pay for it, will significantly reduce long-term health care costs associated with unplanned pregnancies.

Thank you for prioritizing women's basic health care needs.

Sincerely,

Catherine Epstein
