To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing today to ask that you rescind the requirement that insurance companies cover contraceptives (including those that induce abortions) and sterilization procedures. I do not believe that those who are morally opposed to these drugs/procedures should be forced by our government to provide them. I personally am opposed to abortion but not to sterilization. However, that is not my reason for objecting to this law. Even though I do not believe sterilization is immoral, I understand other people's objection and would never force them to provide it. The liberals in this country often say that conservatives try to impose their morality on other people. How about the liberals respecting conservatives' moral beliefs for a change?

Sincerely,
Larry Hau
