

LETTER OF ARRANGEMENT BETWEEN THE OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH ADMINISTRATION OF THE
UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND
THE MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS AND HUMAN MOBILITY OF ECUADOR
CONCERNING OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH LAWS AND REGULATIONS
APPLICABLE TO ECUADORIAN WORKERS IN THE UNITED STATES

The Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) of the Department of Labor, and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Human Mobility of Ecuador, hereinafter "the Participants";

CONSIDERING their desire to protect the well-being of Ecuadorian workers in the United States;

CONSIDERING their desire to establish programs of cooperation to educate and inform Ecuadorian workers and their employers in the United States as to occupational safety and health laws and regulations including workplace rights and responsibilities, to encourage them to exercise their rights under occupational safety and health laws, and to educate them about the proper channels to do so;

CONSIDERING the importance of promoting and encouraging training programs for Ecuadorian workers to prevent and reduce injuries and illnesses in the workplace; and

CONSIDERING the intention of the Participants, through the Joint Declaration between the United States Department of Labor and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Human Mobility of Ecuador, signed at Washington, D.C., on August 26, 2016 to work together to inform Ecuadorian workers in the United States about their labor rights,

Intend to collaborate as follows:

SECTION 1 Objective

The objective of this Letter of Arrangement is to promote the understanding of occupational safety and health laws and regulations, including workplace rights of Ecuadorian workers in the United States through joint efforts between the Participants and with other relevant governmental agencies and private organizations in the United States, as appropriate and as mutually consented to by the Participants.

SECTION 2 Areas of Collaboration

In furtherance of this objective, the Participants intend to pursue the following initiatives to the extent funds are available:

1. Improve awareness of Ecuadorian workers in the United States of workplace laws and regulations about occupational safety and health, including efforts to:
 - a. heighten awareness of availability of information regarding workplace inspection findings, corrective actions ordered, fines, and other enforcement and compliance efforts;
 - b. develop, translate, and disseminate informational materials utilizing print and electronic media, addressing occupational safety and health concerns of Ecuadorian workers in the United States, including:
 - public service announcements to publicize occupational safety and health issues and who to contact for help in the United States;
 - videos and posters to illustrate worker safety and health hazards to reach populations that may not be literate, and
 - video to help workers understand how to file an OSHA complaint;
 - c. distribute and publicize the availability (where applicable) of Spanish language brochures, pamphlets, and other informational materials for Ecuadorian workers regarding their occupational safety and health rights in the workplace;
 - d. publicize the OSHA toll-free telephone number for confidential consultations and resources available on OSHA's Web site including the OSHA en Español

Web page that provides information in Spanish about worker rights and responsibilities related to workplace safety and health; and

e. develop a process for Ecuadorian Embassy and consulate officials to share feedback with OSHA regarding concerns received from Ecuadorian workers employed in the United States.

2. Jointly develop, promote and conduct training programs, including:

a. development and implementation of joint training programs in the United States targeting industry sectors and workplaces with a high concentration of Ecuadorian workers in an effort to help workers understand and protect themselves from common workplace safety and health hazards;

b. formation of a bilateral working group of OSHA representatives to include national, regional and state officials, as appropriate, and Ecuadorian consular representatives to develop and conduct cross-cultural training sessions. The training would aim to help increase awareness by OSHA's federal, regional, and state inspectors, compliance assistance specialists, consultants and trainers of the cultural sensitivities of Ecuadorian workers and to enhance the ability of OSHA's staff to conduct inspections, consultative visits, and education and outreach efforts in workplaces with a high concentration of Ecuadorian workers;

c. development of a Construction Hazard Awareness Training Program to introduce Ecuadorian workers employed in the United States to their occupational safety and health rights and responsibilities and to common hazards and controls on construction worksites; and

d. heighten awareness of OSHA's federal, regional, and state field staffs' compliance assistance efforts, the OSHA Training Institute's Education Centers, Susan B. Harwood Grants, State Plans, and State Consultation programs.

SECTION 3

Process of Consultation

The Participants intend to collaborate through joint efforts at the national level between OSHA and the Embassy of Ecuador in Washington, D.C. and at the regional level between OSHA regional and area offices and the Ecuadorian Consulates in the United States. The Participants intend to identify points of contact for formal communication at the national and regional levels that would be responsible for developing joint efforts within the areas of cooperation as may be decided. Representatives of the Participants intend to meet on a periodic basis to assure that these functions are carried out.

Expenses and Costs

This Letter of Arrangement is not a legally binding document and does not give rise to rights or obligations under international law. Nothing in this Letter of Arrangement obligates the Participants to commit resources or funding. Each Participant intends to finance its own participation in any areas of cooperation undertaken pursuant to this Letter of Arrangement and subject to the availability of funds in the Participant's respective budget.

SECTION 5

Final Provisions

This Letter of Arrangement is not an international agreement and does not create any international legal rights or obligations. This Letter of Arrangement becomes operative on the date of signing and is intended to cease after a period of three years. This Arrangement may be modified by written consent of the Participants. This Arrangement may be continued by written consent of the Participants. Either Participant should endeavor to provide three months written notification of its intent to discontinue this Arrangement to the other Participant.

Signed at Washington, D.C. on AUG 26 2016 in English and Spanish.
