

TECHNICAL COOPERATION PROJECT SUMMARY

PROJECT TITLE	MOVING TOWARDS A CHILD LABOR-FREE JORDAN
REGION/COUNTRY	MIDDLE EAST/Jordan
PROJECT DURATION	December 31, 2010 – August 31, 2016
FISCAL YEAR &amp; FUNDING LEVEL	FY 2010: USD 4,040,000
PROBLEM TO BE ADDRESSED	In Jordan, children, mostly boys, engage in a variety of dangerous occupations that have been classified by the Government of Jordan as hazardous child labor. These occupations include work in auto maintenance and repair, vocational trades (such as blacksmiths, electricians, battery technicians, plumbers), agriculture, fishing, mining, manufacturing, electricity, gas, and water sectors, construction (carpenters, painters), hotels and restaurants, transport and storage, street work, and begging. Some children also work as street peddlers in the tourism industries of Petra and the Dead Sea regions.
TARGETS	This project will undertake direct policy interventions with the Government of Jordan. Child laborers, children at risk of becoming child laborers and their families are indirect target beneficiaries under this project.
PROJECT OBJECTIVES	Equip the government and other stakeholders with tools needed to eliminate all worst forms of child labor in Jordan.  Intermediate objectives include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Conduct a nationwide Child Labour Survey (NCLS)</li><li>• Advise relevant UN and NGO actors on the issue of child protection within the Syrian refugee population</li><li>• Develop a mechanism for coordinating action to combat child labor at national and district levels and link child laborers and their families to improved educational provision and social protection services;</li><li>• Analyze child labor trends, including specific aspects of child labor in Jordan, to inform policy and guide direct government action;</li><li>• Increase ILO constituents' capacity to implement the National Framework on Child Labor;</li><li>• Mainstream the elimination of child labor and the promotion of youth employment into the national development policy frameworks.</li></ul>
SUMMARY OF ACTIVITIES	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Expand and link the National Child Labor</li></ul>
