The Association of University Centers on Disabilities (AUCD) is a membership organization that brings together university-based interdisciplinary programs and community resources nationwide to achieve meaningful change for people with disabilities.

The Alliance

The U.S. Department of Labor, Office of Disability Employment Policy (ODEP), and the Association of University Centers on Disabilities (AUCD) recognize the value of establishing a collaborative relationship to promote the employment of individuals with disabilities. Alliance Implementation

An implementation team made up of representatives of the Alliance organizations will meet to develop a plan of action, determine working procedures, and identify the roles and responsibilities of the participants. In addition, they will meet at least three times per year to track and share information on activities and results in achieving the goals and objectives of the Alliance. Team members will include representatives of ODEP's divisions and any other appropriate representatives. The points of contact for the respective parties are as follows: ODEP: Richard Davis, Policy Advisor, Workforce Systems Team. AUCD: Michael Gamel-McCormick, Associate Executive Director for Research and Policy.
