

Location Preference

- This should be discussed during the interview.
- The candidate does not fill in this field in the database.
- The system automatically populates the field with the School and Home States.
- These states can be de-selected if necessary.
- The candidate can select up to five states.
- The Location Notes field is available for additional notes such as “international locations”.