Complaint Involving Employment Discrimination by a Federal Government Contractor or Subcontractor

Instruction Sheet

Use this complaint form to file an employment discrimination or retaliation complaint under any of the three laws enforced by the Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs (OFCCP):

- Executive Order 11246, as amended;
- Section 503 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended; and

These laws make it illegal for companies doing business with the Federal Government to discriminate against applicants and employees based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability status or status as a protected veteran. This includes discrimination with regard to rates of pay or other forms of compensation. Executive Order 11246 also prohibits federal contractors from discriminating against applicants and employees for inquiring about, discussing, or disclosing compensation.

In addition, it is illegal for companies doing business with the Federal Government to retaliate against applicants and employees by taking adverse actions against applicants and employees for:

- Filing a complaint; or
- Engaging in other protected activities, for example, providing information during a compliance evaluation.

General Instructions:
Print or type the information when filling in the form. Tell us what happened to you that you believe is discrimination or retaliation, and who did it to you. Also, tell us where and when these things happened, who saw it, and who may have information about what happened to you.

When describing what happened on page two of the form, tell us how it changed your work. For example, let us know if it caused you not to be hired for a job; caused you to be fired, laid-off, demoted, lose a promotion, lose seniority, or have your job assignment changed; or were you paid less than others doing the same or similar work. We also want to know if what happened involved training, pregnancy leave, harassment, accommodation for a disability or for religious observances, segregation of facilities, or recall back to work.

You can use a separate piece of paper to continue telling us what happened to you if you need more space. Remember to attach the extra piece of paper to the complaint form when you are done.

If you are filing a complaint of discrimination because of your veteran status, remember to attach your Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty (also known as DD Form 214). If one is not provided, we will ask you to provide one later.
Where to file the complaint?
You should send the completed form to the OFCCP regional office that covers the state where the alleged discrimination happened. Send OFCCP your form by U.S. mail, fax, or email. A list of regional offices and the states that each office covers can be found at: http://www.dol.gov/ofccp/contacts/regkeyp.htm.

When to file a complaint?
Complaints based on your race, color, religion, sex/gender, or national origin, must be filed within 180 days after the last act taken by your employer that you think was either discrimination or retaliation.

Complaints based on your disability or status as a protected veteran must be filed within 300 days from the last act taken by your employer that you think was either discrimination or retaliation.

Only the director of OFCCP can extend these deadlines.

Non-Retaliation
OFCCP regulations, Title VII and the ADA require employers to take all necessary steps to ensure that there is no retaliation against any person who files a complaint or assists in its investigation or assists in a compliance evaluation. This includes any intimidation, threat, coercion or discrimination.

The information collected may be: 1) verified with others who may have knowledge relevant to the complaint; 2) used in settlement negotiations with the employer or in the course of presenting evidence at a hearing; or 3) disclosed to other agencies with jurisdiction over the complaint.
