ARTICLE III – EMPLOYMENT CONDITIONS

3.1 CATEGORIES OF EMPLOYMENT

PROBATIONARY EMPLOYEES

- A. New educational support employees shall be regarded as probationary employees. This initial probationary period shall extend for one (1) year beginning with the first day of employment. Any absence during the probationary year in excess of twenty (20) days will extend probation by a corresponding number of days. If a probationary employee works beyond a six (6) month period, feedback about performance will be given by the immediate supervisor.

- B. Probationary employees are at-will employees, and may be terminated during the one (1) year probationary period, and still be entitled to the administrative appeal process.
- C. Any action taken by the superintendent or designee with respect to such employees during the probationary period shall be final. The discipline policy does not impair or limit the superintendent's authority under this article.
- D. Probationary employees shall not be eligible to belong to the sick leave bank.
- E. Probationary employees will receive a copy of their job description.

Educational support employees will be assigned by the department of human resources in cooperation with the respective director, supervisor, or manager and in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.

- C. A regular part-time assignment is a position less than full-time. If a support employee works 50% or more of the normal work week of a person in their particular position, such educational support employee is eligible for all benefits offered to full-time educational support employees.
- D. An assignment letter shall be issued to each educational support employee on an annual basis. Also, an assignment letter shall be issued any time a change of employment status occurs.
- E. The assignment letter shall include the following: employee's location, hourly rate of pay, yearly salary, grade and step on pay scale, and total hours worked per year.

TEMPORARY EMPLOYEES

Temporary assignments are created on an as needed basis and are expected to be of brief duration. Educational support employees hired to fill these positions are at will employees and may be terminated at any time without cause and are not entitled to leave benefits, retirement membership, or insurance coverage which are provided for regular educational support employees.

3.2 EVALUATION

Support employees shall be evaluated by the appropriate first-line supervisor:

- A. Purpose - The parties agree that the primary purposes of the evaluation process are to identify and improve employee performance by utilizing assessment procedures coupled with recommendations for improvement.
- B. Educational support employees shall be evaluated at least annually prior to the end of the employee's school year. Evaluations may be deferred when an employee has worked less than half of the school year. The evaluation process will be communicated to employees upon being hired. Supervisory personnel will be trained concerning the evaluation process.
- C. The evaluation form must be signed by the educational support employee (to indicate receipt), and by the evaluator. The educational support employee shall be given a copy of the completed evaluation form. The educational support employee may request a conference to discuss the evaluation prior to placement of the evaluation in the personnel file.
- D. Comments - The employee shall have the right to attach any comments he/she wants to attach to the evaluation materials and if the employee declines to sign acknowledging that he/she has read the evaluation, it will be placed in the file with a statement to that effect.

3.3 GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

Employees subject to discipline of suspension without pay or discharge shall be notified in writing of the action being taken against them and the reason for such action. The employee may appeal such action with union representation pursuant to section 4-205(c) of the Education Article of the Annotated Code of Maryland.

GRIEVANCE - A complaint by an employee, or, in the event of an action affecting Association rights, the Association, concerning the interpretation, application, or alleged violation of an expressed provision of this Agreement.

PURPOSE

The purpose of this procedure is to secure, at the lowest possible level, equitable solution to the problems which may, from time to time, arise affecting educational support employees. Both parties agree that these proceedings will be kept as informal and confidential as may be appropriate at any level of the procedure.

- A. An educational support employee, including a probationary employee, who elects to grieve or file a complaint alleging violation of the Agreement shall proceed under this section.
- B. Grievance forms shall be developed jointly by the superintendent and FASSE.

- C. The employee shall have the assistance of a member of FASSE as a representative in steps 2, 3, and 4 if the employee chooses. The member may use Association and/or personal leave to serve as the employee's representative. The employee may have the assistance of affiliate's legal counsel as a representative in step 4.
- D. Witnesses required by the school system to testify at a grievance hearing conducted during the employee's normal working hours will be given time off without loss of pay.
- E. Grievance Process

Step 1. Informal Review

An educational support employee with a grievance shall first discuss it with the principal or immediate supervisor directly, the objective being an informal resolution of the matter.

The employee shall request an informal meeting with the person who is the immediate supervisor within ten (10) working days, of the grievable event. The immediate supervisor must hold an informal meeting with the employee within three (3) working days of the request. The immediate supervisor shall respond to the employee within five (5) working days of the meeting.

Step 2. Formal Review

If the employee is not satisfied, or if no decision is rendered within five (5) working days of the meeting, the employee may obtain further formal review by filing a completed grievance form with the immediate supervisor. Such grievance must be in writing and must state specifically that this grievance procedure is being invoked. This filing must be received by the immediate supervisor within five (5) working days of the immediate supervisor's response or, if there is no response from the immediate supervisor, within ten (10) working days of the initial request for an informal meeting. The immediate supervisor shall hold a hearing within five (5) working days of receipt of the written grievance and render a written decision within five (5) working days of the hearing. The educational support employee may appear alone or with a representative from the Association.

Step 3. Appeal

If the employee is not satisfied, or if no decision is rendered within five (5) working days of the hearing, the employee may obtain further review by appealing the matter to the manager/director of the division. The director will involve intermediate levels of supervisors not considered in Step 1 or Step 2, and the human resources officer. This appeal must be in writing and received by the director of the division within five (5) working days of the immediate supervisor's response or, if there is no response from the immediate supervisor, within ten (10) working days of the date of the appeal filed under step 2. The director of the division shall hold a hearing within five (5) working days of receipt of the appeal and render a written decision within five (5) working days of the hearing.

Step 4. Final Appeal

If the employee is not satisfied, or if no decision is rendered within five (5) working days of the request, the employee may obtain further review by appealing the matter to the superintendent. This appeal must be in writing and received by the superintendent within five (5) working days of the step 3 response or, if there is no response within ten (10) working days of the appeal filed under step 3. The superintendent shall hold a hearing within ten (10) working days of receipt of the appeal and render a written decision within ten (10) working days of the hearing.

Step 5. Arbitration

If the aggrieved person is not satisfied with the disposition of the grievance at Step 4, or if no decision has been rendered within ten (10) days after the grievance was received by the superintendent, the unit member may, within fifteen (15) days after receipt by the superintendent, request, in writing that the Association submit the grievance to arbitration. If the Association determines that the grievance has merit, it may submit the grievance to arbitration no later than forty (40) days after receipt by the superintendent. If the Association fails to serve such notice of its intention to arbitrate within this time limitation, the grievance shall be considered settled. No individual employee shall have the right to invoke this arbitration procedure.

Selection of Arbitrator

1. If the Association and the Board are unable to agree upon the selection of an arbitrator within seven (7) calendar days after the Association's notice of an appeal to arbitration, the Association shall submit the grievance to arbitration under the Voluntary Labor Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association.
 2. The jurisdiction of the arbitrator shall be confined to the express provision(s) of this Agreement at issue between the Association and the Board. The arbitrator shall have no authority to modify any provision, or to hear or decide on more than one grievance without the mutual consent of the Board and Association. The decision of the arbitrator shall be binding on the grievant, the Association and the Board.
 3. The Association and the Board shall each bear their own expenses and share the cost of the arbitrator.
- F. The timeliness in this section for filing requests for informal meetings and appeals and for the convening of hearings and rendering decisions may be extended only at the mutual consent of the grievant, FASSE, and the Board designee.
- G. The Board and the Association will jointly schedule grievance hearings which are mutually convenient. No reprisals of any kind shall be taken by the Board or by any member of the administration against any aggrieved person, any representative, any member of the Association, or any other participant in the grievance procedure by reason of such participation.

All documents, communications, and records dealing with the processing of a grievance shall be filed in a separate grievance file and shall not be kept in the personnel file of any of the participants.

Forms for filing grievances, serving notices, taking appeals, making reports and recommendations, and other necessary documents shall be prepared jointly by the superintendent or designee and the Association.

All meetings and hearings under this procedure shall not be conducted in public and shall include only the grievant(s), the principal or supervisor, the superintendent, their designated representatives and relevant witnesses.

3.4 PERSONNEL FILE

Material of a negative or derogatory nature must be shown personally to the educational support employee prior to placement in his or her personnel file. The file copy must be signed by the educational support employee to indicate that the employee has seen it.

An educational support employee shall have the right to place a signed, dated response to any derogatory material placed in his or her personnel file.

Educational support employees have the right, by appointment, to review materials in their personnel files. This review shall not include confidential material such as reference letters, or information received in the course of initial employment. Educational support employees can have an officer of FASSE present during the review.

Material related to the grievance procedure will not be placed in the educational support employee's personnel file except as the grievance decisions affect the employee's terms or conditions of employment or if agreed to by the employee.

When termination of an educational support employee occurs, no documents or other materials of a negative nature except those that relate to the reasons for termination shall be placed in the personnel file of said employee.

3.5 ANNOUNCEMENT OF VACANCIES

In the event there is an opening for a regular position within the unit, the Board will post notices of such vacancies for a period of at least five (5) workdays on appropriate bulletin boards.

The hiring process of all new and vacant positions shall be advertised for five (5) workdays. A unit member desiring to be considered for a vacancy must apply for the specific vacancy by the specific deadline. In determining the selection of the successful candidate, the Board will consider such qualifications as: skills, abilities, experience, length of service, and overall needs of the school system. The intent of this language is to insure a fair and consistent hiring practice in hiring the best qualified candidate and in no way is meant to compromise the legal right of the superintendent to hire personnel as the needs of the school system may require.

The Board encourages qualified internal candidates to apply for vacancies.

3.6 VOLUNTARY TRANSFERS

- A. The increase in time of a part-time support employee to a full-time position on the same pay schedule at the same job site is not considered a transfer provided that the new position is essentially the same as the current assignment.
- B. An educational support employee who desires a change in position or job site shall indicate such request when the position is posted by notifying the human resources officer in writing during the posting period.

In determining the selection of the successful candidate, the Board will consider such qualifications as: skills, abilities, length of service, and the overall needs of the school system. The intent of this language is to insure a fair and consistent practice in transferring the best qualified candidate and is in no way meant to compromise the legal right of the superintendent to transfer personnel as the needs of the school system require.

- C. A support employee temporarily assigned to a higher paying position for more than ten (10) consecutive work days will be paid for the eleventh day, and any subsequent consecutive day, in accordance with 4.3.A.
- D. Educational support employees who have been transferred involuntarily are not limited in their eligibility for a transfer or promotion.

3.7 INVOLUNTARY TRANSFERS

The superintendent or designee may involuntarily transfer employees, as the needs of the schools require.

Generally, an employee will receive in writing ten (10) days in advance that they will be involuntarily transferred. If requested, the employee, within five (5) days, will be given the reasons for the administrative transfer.

Employees transferred involuntarily may submit requests for transfers in accordance with the voluntary transfer policy.

3.8 PROMOTIONS

A promotion is a change to a higher hourly rate from the previous position. In determining the selection of the successful candidate, the Board will consider such qualifications as: skills, abilities, experience, length of service and overall needs of the school system.

The intent of this language is to insure a fair and consistent promotional practice in promoting the best-qualified candidate and in no way is meant to compromise the legal right of a superintendent to promote educational support personnel.

When a position becomes available that would cause a promotional opportunity within a particular department, that position may be filled by a qualified regular employee in that particular department as determined by the manager.

3.9 BUS DRIVER TRANSFER REQUESTS

When bus drivers request to make a lateral move for route selection, the board will consider such qualifications as skills, abilities, experience, seniority, a safe and suitable location to park the bus, which is within reasonable distance of the route, and the overall needs of the school system.

The intent of this language is to insure a fair and consistent practice in transferring the best-qualified candidate and in no way is meant to compromise the legal right of the superintendent to transfer educational support personnel.

3.10 REDUCTION IN FORCE

The Board decides which positions and budget category(ies) will be affected by a reduction in force.

Prior to any layoff or reduction in force, a seniority list will be developed.

Seniority as used in this section shall mean seniority based on continuous employment within the Frederick County Public School system.

If two or more support employees have the same length of service, they shall be ranked in order of their first day of continuous regular employment and then, if necessary, by lot.

Temporary and probationary employees in the affected category will be separated before any regular employees are reduced.

The reduction of permanent employees within an affected category shall be made after consideration of an employee's seniority, work performance, skills and abilities.

Interruption of service - Seniority shall continue to accumulate while an educational support employee is on an approved leave of absence or on layoff of less than one year.

Regular food service employees employed prior to July 1, 1993, will not be reduced in hours or salary in the last three years prior to retirement, as verified by the human resources department. It is understood that it may be necessary to involuntarily transfer the food service employee in order to fulfill this commitment. This benefit applies only as long as the employee continues to maintain employment with the school system and does not impair or affect the school system's authority to institute a reduction in force or terminate for other reasons such as performance or conduct.

When food service work hours must be reduced, volunteers willing to work fewer hours will be sought before support employees are transferred.

3.11 RECALL

Educational support employees who are laid off due to a reduction in force will be placed on a recall list and will be recalled based on the date of layoff. The most recently laid off employees will be the first to return. Only those persons who are qualified will be considered for a given vacancy.

Educational support employees who have been laid off will remain on the recall list for a period of one year. If any of those on the list declines a job offer, he/she will be removed from the recall list.

An individual who is offered recall must indicate within seventy-two (72) hours after being notified by certified/registered mail at the last known address whether or not he/she accepts the position offered and must be available to return to work within thirty (30) days. FASSE will bear the expense of the postage.

During a period of layoff, no individual will be hired to fill a position of any grade and qualification of an individual on layoff unless such person declines the recall or is no longer on the recall list.

Unit members recalled under these provisions shall have restored to them all previously accrued sick leave and personal leave. Uncompensated annual leave will also be restored to twelve-month employees, if restored to a twelve-month position.

The Board and the Association recognize that appropriate governmental agencies which have jurisdiction may promulgate rulings and/or regulations that may impact this section. If such rulings or regulations cause any provisions to be in conflict, the parties shall meet within ten (10) days for the purpose of renegotiating only the provision(s) held to be contrary.

3.12 SEVERANCE OF EMPLOYMENT

RETIREMENT

An educational support employee desiring to retire shall send to the appropriate supervisor and the human resources officer a written statement of retirement specifying the retirement date.

The human resources officer shall confer with the retiring educational support employee and offer assistance to the educational support employee in completing the required forms for retirement. The human resources officer shall notify FASSE of educational support employee retirements. Requests for confidentiality of retirement decisions of employees will be honored.

RESIGNATION

Educational support employees resigning from service shall submit a resignation, in writing, to the immediate supervisor that states the effective date of leaving and which may state the reason for the resignation. One copy shall be sent to the human resources officer. It is an expectation that employees will provide a two-week notice prior to resigning. Exceptions may be granted for extenuating circumstances by the human resources department.

This applies only to the first time called each day.

Statement of Intent

The purpose of the Sick Leave Bank (the Bank) is to provide sick leave to Bank members after their accrued and current year projected sick leave have been used. The Bank is to provide sick leave only in cases of prolonged, catastrophic, incapacitating personal illness, injury, or quarantine of the member during the regularly scheduled duty day, which is not likely to permanently disable the member.

1. New employees may become members of the Bank only after completion of the probationary period.
2. A new employee wishing to join the Bank must submit a completed enrollment form to the support personnel officer within ten (10) days of the end of the probationary period.
3. Employees returning from extended leave may become members by donating one day of sick leave within thirty (30) days of the date of reinstatement to active service.
4. Employees who fail to act within the specified enrollment eligibility period must wait until enrollment is open again (July 1 through October 1 of the next fiscal year).

6. Any regular FCPS employee whose work assignment is half-time or more, and who is not eligible to participate in the FCTA Sick Leave Bank, is eligible to participate in the Bank after all other membership requirements are met.
7. To remain a member of the Bank, an employee must contribute to the Bank at a rate of one (1) day per year.
8. Membership in the Bank will remain in force and continue from year-to-year with a deduction made automatically as required, unless membership is canceled in writing by the member before October 1.

RULES

1. The Bank may be used only by the individual contributor for his or her illness, injury, quarantine and must meet all of the following criteria:
 - a. personal

- b. prolonged
 - c. catastrophic
 - d. incapacitating
2. The Bank may NOT be used by the member to remain absent from work in order to assist a family member.
 3. Only sick leave may be contributed to the Bank – annual and personal leave may not be contributed.
 4. For the purposes of administration of the Bank, sick leave is defined as:

A designated amount of compensated sick leave granted to an employee whose absence is due to an illness, injury, or quarantine which meets the requirements of rule 1 (above).
 5. Sick leave may not be granted for any period of disability during which monies are paid to the member under workers' compensation. If a member who has utilized sick leave days granted by the Bank thereafter receives benefits under the Workers' Compensation Act for those same days, pay will be administered in accordance with the handbook language on workers' compensation and the Bank will be reimbursed for any days used.
 6. Elective (non-emergency, non-life threatening) surgery will not be covered during the school year for members who work less than twelve (12) months.
 7. A member must be absent for ten (10) consecutive work days before being eligible for a grant from the Bank for that same illness, injury, or quarantine. Those ten (10) days may be covered by the member's accumulated sick leave, personal leave, annual leave, or leave without pay in accordance with the prevailing policy. Once the ten (10) consecutive work day eligibility requirement has been met, subsequent intermittent absences for the same condition will not cause ineligibility.
 8. Members must submit requests for the sick leave bank to the Bank committee chair at the FASSE office.
 9. Requests must be made within fifteen (15) calendar days of return to work.
 10. The Bank will request additional information if unable to reach a decision regarding the request.
 11. All requests to draw upon the Bank must be accompanied by a signed physician's statement detailing the cause, nature, and prognosis for the illness, injury, or quarantine.
 12. The decision of the sick leave bank committee shall be approved by the support personnel officer unless the decision is inconsistent with sick leave bank regulations or is unsupported by documentation. Leave grants from the Bank will be made in units of not more than twenty (20) days (except in extreme cases as determined by the committee) and will not exceed fifty (50) days in any fiscal year. The maximum number of sick leave days that will be granted during any two (2) consecutive fiscal years is one hundred (100). Members who draw the maximum of one hundred (100) days in two (2) fiscal years are ineligible to participate for the next fiscal year.

13. Members who want an extension of leave must submit another request form for additional leave before the expiration of the prior grant.
14. In cases where the committee recommends denial of either a request for leave, or additional leave, the Bank will notify the member directly in writing with the reason for the denial. A member may appeal directly to the FASSE board of directors through the president within thirty (30) days of the denial.
15. A contributor will lose the right to request leave from the Bank if one or more of the following occur:

 - e. use of one hundred (100) days during two (2) consecutive fiscal years
 - f. refusal to apply for disability retirement benefits if the committee determines that the member may be eligible
16. The existence of the bank and participation by employees in the Bank does not negate or eliminate any other FCPS sick leave policies, nor does it in any way negate the rights of individual employees who participate in the Bank to other sick leave benefits included in the FASSE-Board of Education Agreement.

Administrative Procedures

1. One day of sick leave will be deducted from the member's sick leave account in the second pay period in October each year and will be placed in the Bank, unless written notice of cancellation is given prior to July 1. Contributions to the Bank must be authorized by the employee on the appropriate form, available in the department of human resources. The annual contribution of one day will be continued from year to year until canceled in writing by the member. Additional days may be assessed if the Bank has a negative balance at the end of the school year. Members will be notified prior to any additional deduction.
2. The president of FASSE will select employees to serve on the sick leave bank committee, and shall submit their names to the FASSE board of directors for approval. FASSE will provide the names of the sick leave bank committee, in writing, to FCPS Human Resources Department by June 30 of each school year.

3. The Bank will approve all donations before they are forwarded to the payroll department.
4. The committee will review and recommend to the support personnel officer, approval or denial of all requests for leave from the Bank within fifteen (15) working days of receiving the request.
5. All requests to draw upon the bank must be made on the appropriate form.
6. When the committee deems a second opinion is appropriate, any member requesting leave may be required to undergo a medical examination and consultation by a physician of the committee's choice at the applicant's expense. Any member not wishing to submit to this requirement may withdraw their request without affecting future membership.
7. In the event a member is unable to personally complete the leave request form, an agent or family member may act on their behalf.
8. An employee must use all sick leave that will be accrued for the current fiscal year before requesting leave from the Bank. An adjustment will be made on the final paycheck to reflect any negative balance in sick leave. If the amount on an employee's paycheck is to be adjusted, said employee will be notified. In no case will the granting of leave from the Bank cause a member to receive more than his or her regular salary.
9. The payroll department will maintain records of all member contributions, withdrawals, cancellations, and the status of the Bank.
10. Any Bank member may review his/her membership application form, request for withdrawal of membership, and approved requests by contacting the Bank committee chair at the FASSE office.
11. If, in the judgment of the committee, an applicant for leave, or an extension of leave, is eligible for disability retirement benefits, the committee may require the employee to apply for such benefits. Failure to apply as directed may result in disqualification from receipt of further benefits. The employee will continue to receive Bank benefits while waiting for a decision regarding the disability retirement. Bank benefits shall cease when disability retirement becomes effective. The member is required to notify the Bank of approval of any applications for disability retirement.
