

ABSTRACT
AMERICAN APPRENTICESHIP INITIATIVE
MILWAUKEE INSTITUTUE OF ART & DESIGN

Lead Applicant: Milwaukee Institute of Art & Design (MIAD)
273 E. Erie Street, Milwaukee, WI 53202

Partnership(s): Marquette University Opus College of Engineering (Private)
GE Healthcare Systems (Private)
Briggs & Stratton (Private)
Trek Bicycle Corporation (Private)
Delta Faucet (Private)
Fiskars (Private)
Master Lock (Private)

Additional Partners: Pius XI High School
Ronald Reagan High School

Areas Served: State of Wisconsin (South and Eastern Wisconsin)

Total Funding: $3,000,000 (60 Month Period)

Project Name: "AIM-High Wisconsin"
Apprenticeships in Manufacturing & High-Tech - Wisconsin

Summary:

Creating public-private partnerships to broaden the use of American Apprenticeships in developing a highly skilled workforce able to meet industry needs while also offering U.S. workers access to training and career advancement to reach the middle class.

Participants: 300

Population: Women, Veteran's and Minorities

Industry: 5415 Computer Systems Design and Related Services, 23 Construction, 31-33 Manufacturing, 51 Information

Occupations: Architecture, Engineering, Commercial & Industrial Design, Electronic Engineering, Graphic Design, Materials Engineers, Mechanical Engineers,

Contact: Neil Hoffman, President
Milwaukee Institute of Art & Design
414-847-3200
neilhoffman@miad.edu