

Identify DEEOIC stakeholders and explain what “stake” these groups or individuals have in the program.

Describe what communicating in “Plain English” means to you and why it’s important for the program.

List the consequences of poor claim development.

Explain the advantages of a well-written, descriptive and claimant-oriented recommended decision.