General Comment

I do not need the government to tell me what to do with my retirement money. The government prints paper money that has nothing to back it and has no idea how to quit spending money. You want me to trust the government. No way, you speak with forked tongue.

Leave me and my money alone. I earned the money and do not need any help from you. You will get your tax money.

When the government decides to balance its budget, come back and talk to me, maybe I will listen.
