General Comment

I sir am perfectly capable of taking care of my own retirement with out any help from this Government . I have live for 61 years with out the government controlling any of my life and will continue to do so until I am dead . Why all of a sudden does this regime think that we are all stupid . This is why Americans no longer trust their Government and I believe that they just trying to get there hands on my retirement to piss it away just like every thing else they touch !
