General Comment

Please do not take my 401k and IRAs away from me. I have been a "good girl" all my life. I saved money and had a standard 30 year mortgage. I stayed in my house and improved it over the year and sold it at good increase in the middle of the housing downturn. I now have a smaller home and no mortgage.

I did not speculate widely with my 401k and only lost a small amount in the down turn. I have made that up this last year. Please do not now force me into an annuity system because others cannot manage their money. If people want to purchase an annuity with their retirement money, fine, there are a lot of products out there. Please do not force me to do something with MY MONEY that I do not need or want.

I gave you money and voted for you in the last election, please don't do this to me.
