Subject: 401K/IRA

I have heard talk recently about the government wanting to take over individual 401K/IRA accounts. Please shed some light on this matter for me? Really this shouldn't be an issue at all. My money is my money the government should have no say or interest in it what so ever. I understand our new administration is writing big checks it can't pay for, but why should I? I am a firm believer in freedom and the constitution and this talk is outrageous. The current president is a crook and needs to be stopped. This would be devastating to many Americans and needs to be thought out way differently. Please advise!
