General Comment

I understand you are contemplating the exclusion of chiropractic services from the abominable Obama healthcare plan. This is totally unacceptable from myself and all my friends with whom I have discussed the matter. Chiropractic care is the most cost efficient medical service we can imagine. Many of us have had chiropractic services solve musculo/skeletal problems where conventional doctors had prescribed, or suggested, more expensive and intrusive surgery.

Abolish the entire fiasco if you will, but leave chiropractic services untouched and coverable by insurance policies, including medicare.
