General Comment

They who can give up essential liberty to obtain a little temporary safety, deserve neither liberty nor safety.

You cannot force someone to go against their religious or conscientious beliefs. The first amendment is not to keep the church out of state affairs, but rather to keep the state out of church affairs. This country was founded by those who were against the government forcing them into doing things they could not in good conscience do.

I am against this government stomping out the rights of the people.
