General Comment

The Federal government has NO AUTHORITY or JURISDICTION to authorize, demand, or force any sovereign citizen of these United States to pay for health care in general or any other service no matter how noble or pure the motive may be. The Federal government has NO AUTHORITY or JURISDICTION to grant money it does not have or force others to care for individuals outside its jurisdiction according to the United States Constitution, Article 1 section 8. According to Amendment 1 of the United States Constitution, Congress shall make NO LAW respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof;...

Therefore all powers and acts by the Federal Government, through its sometimes nefarious and always unlawful agencies relating to this "law", are illegal and will be fought by many in court. Regardless of the consequences, I WILL NOT obey any illegal or unlawful order nor will I participate in the cruel killing of the innocent.

Completely Disgusted,

David Gilchrist
