General Comment

To whom it may concern:

I absolutely support the inclusion of reproductive family planning in preventative health services. Women's health needs are too often left out of health services, and women are forced to pay for their own services to prevent pregnancy and maintain health. It's time to cover women's services, and ensure that women have safe and affordable access to reproductive health services. And sooner, rather than later, please!

Thank you,
Heather Jordan, RN, BSN, BA
U.S. Fulbright Scholar to Peru
