General Comment

I've received word from my insurance agent that we are looking at the possibility of yet another form to fill out for you. The company that I work for has been in business for more than 40 years. They are family owned and fall under your 50 employee threshold. We spend an inordinate amount of time filling out forms since Obamacare was implemented. Time taken away from doing actual business. It seems counter productive to me to add what amounts to as more busy work. If we aren't making and selling our products that means we can't collect taxes for you. I'm curious, do you even read the forms we already send you, if you did you would not need me to keep confirming our employee numbers.
