General Comment

Please do not restrict my freedom to use options in my IRA accounts in ways that generate income and actually reduce risk. Options can be dangerous in the hands of people who don't know how to use them, but used properly they can reduce risk. Please do not continue to move in the direction of reducing the freedom of people to act as they wish--as the government continues down this path we become less and less a "free" country. I object strongly to this proposed restriction on my freedom to use options in safe and responsible ways!!!
