General Comment

To Whom It May Concern:

My concern as a citizen with IRAs is that this proposed new rule will adversely impact my ability to trade options (calls and puts) in my IRA accounts. I have sold call and put options in my IRA accounts for a number of years. I have done it safely and without any need for a broker. I have successfully grown my IRA accounts by utilizing option trading and reduced risk in my account with the same vehicles. I took the time to learn how to trade options properly within my IRA accounts prior to seeking approval from my brokerage firm. I should be allowed the freedom to continue to trade options safely in my IRA accounts. I strongly oppose any rule changes that will adversely impact my ability to continue trading options.

Thank you.
