General Comment

Regarding the regulation to restrict options trading in IRA accounts I respectfully disagree. I use covered calls in my IRA account to earn extra income. The Federal Government is already interfering in my private life excessively with their regulations. Suggest that the Government does not need to 'help' individual investors with their personal investment decisions;

Exhibit 'A' is the Government's $18 trillion debt along with $100+ trillion in unfunded liabilities. I do not need Government's help to get into debt I am capable of doing just fine on my own!
