General Comment

I oppose the proposed action of not allowing the trading of options in an IRA account. I have taken time to educate myself to trade options (level I & II) in a responsible and safe manner with less risk than trading regular stocks. I have found options to be a safe and reliable way to generate additional safe income. Please do not take this valuable tool away from us seniors trying to supplement our retirement income.

Not allowing options to be traded in an IRA account would severely hamper the ability to earn additional supplemental retirement income.
