General Comment

Dear Sirs, If I understand this action correctly I would be restricted from trading options on my IRA account. I'd like it to be known that I've studied hours to understand and learn how to use options to protect my IRA portfolio. I also find the tools offered by online brokers and online courses extremely helpful. My account is richer today from my learning to trade options as protection on stock loses. Please do not take this away from us. My retirement income will be limited as it is without having more regulation. Thank you
