General Comment

I understand that you meddling bureaucrats would stop me from trading options in my self directed IRA. I have made thousands of dollars SELLING options in my account for an approximate yearly yield of about 8%. The more money I make and grow the account the more I will have to withdraw and the more taxes you federal parasites will get to throw away on nonsense. The federal government sticks it's nose in my and everybody else's business to darn much. Are you going to make up the difference? I guess since you bureaucrats are mainly socialist/communist dolts this has no bearing on you but means a lot to the quality of life for my retirement. Hey wise up we are not children and you are not our parents.
