General Comment

Dear Sir,

I would implore you to continue to allow us to use options in IRA accounts, as they allow us to blunt the falling stock by selling an option on the shares that I own. Actually, the options can also be used as a source of income, and they make the stock much safer to own, and that is part of your priority, I believe. Please continue to allow their usage. If you disallow them, you will be taking away a source of income from us. please, please please
