General Comment

Please allow us the ability to continue to use options in our retirement accounts, IRAs, etc. Do not restrict the use of IRA options. I have taken the time to understand option trading and have used these tools to minimize risk and substantially improve my returns and growth of these accounts. Restricting these tools will significantly restrict my ability to have a better retirement. Properly used option trades actually reduce risk while increasing returns very safely. Thank you for allowing us to continue to use these option tools in our IRAs.
