General Comment

Implementation of this Proposed Rule would rob me of an important income source that I have trained and prepared myself to obtain. I have been a government employee for over thirty years so my pay and retirement is probably not what the private sector is, but with the ability to trade options in my retirement account and earn income from it as I have done for the last 10 years I am looking for a comfortable retirement. Please don't take my opportunity to do so away from me.
