

Consolidated Rail Infrastructure & Safety Improvements Workforce Development Fact Sheet

FY22 Funding: $1.42 billion

The Federal Railroad Administration supports the nation's rail network in part through the eligibility of workforce development and training activities under the Consolidated Rail Infrastructure & Safety Improvements (CRISI) grant program.

The information below highlights the opportunities for multi-year workforce development projects to receive grants under the 2022 CRISI Notice of Funding Opportunity (NOFO).

•	CRISI Workforce Development
Overview	As part of the CRISI program the development of safety programs and institutes, including workforce development plans and training activities are eligible project types.
Eligible Applicants	<ul> <li>States, including the District of Columbia.</li> <li>A group of States.</li> <li>An Interstate Compact.</li> <li>A public agency or publicly chartered authority established by 1 or more States.</li> <li>A political subdivision of a State.</li> <li>Amtrak &amp; other Rail Carriers providing intercity passenger transportation.</li> <li>Class II/III Railroads and Associations that represent a Class II/III Railroads.</li> <li>Rail Carriers &amp; Equipment Manufacturers, in partnership with at least 1 of the first 5 entities shown above.</li> <li>Federally recognized Indian Tribe.</li> <li>Transportation Research Board.</li> <li>University Transportation Centers engaged in rail-related research.</li> <li>Non-profit labor organizations representing rail employees.</li> </ul>
Eligible Projects	<ul> <li>Previously selected workforce development projects include:</li> <li>Development and Implementation of HBCU Based Railroad Engineering Program fo Underrepresented Communities. The project submitted by University of Delaware wi develop and implement a railroad engineering program at Morgan State University, a Historically Black College and University in Baltimore, MD.</li> <li>Mechanical Craft Workforce Development Apprenticeship Training Program. The project is a three-year Mechanical Craft Workforce Development Apprenticeship Training Program submitted by Amtrak that will provide significant professional development opportunities for current and future Amtrak employees.</li> <li>Climate Change and Extreme Events Training and Research Program. The project submitted by San Jose State University Research Foundation will establish a Climate Change and Extreme Events Training and Research program to conduct research, education, and technology transfer activities to improve the rail network's safety and resilience.</li> </ul>