Subject: Comment in support of RIN 1210-AB30

April 24, 2010

Please support the interim final rule under the Paul Wellstone and Pete Domenici Mental Health Parity and Addiction Equity Act of 2008 (RIN 1210-AB30). Insurance companies should not be able to charge policy holders more for the treatment of mental illnesses (deductibles, copays, etc.) than for physical illnesses. It is a totally arbitrary distinction set up to benefit only the insurance companies.

Sincerely,
