General Comment

Regarding Regulation Identifier Number: RIN 1210-AB32

This comment is regarding the request to extend the comment period to 120 days. It is imperative that we as financial services supervisors be given ample time to analyze the impact the new rule would have to our clients, advisors, and business in general. We need time to vet this situation in order to provide meaningful, constructive feedback to you as you are requesting. We are asking for a sufficient amount of time and moving from 75 to 120 days would not seem to be an excessive request to ensure that the objectives are accomplished.
