General Comment

I have a Master's Degree in Education, therefore, I can and will plan for my OWN retirement! I have worked very hard to raise a family by myself without a government handout, let alone needing/wanting government interference in how I do so!!! With the poor way that the government runs the finances of our country, I sure do NOT want them meddling in my personal finances and retirement savings when they have no business, let alone have NO RIGHT to do so!
